CLASS HISTORY

On September 2, 1946, twenty-seven anxious but green Freshmen wandered into the halls of Dubois High School, to acquaint themselves with the world about them.

Our faculty consisted of: Mr. Beeks, Principal; Mr. Jackson, Math; Mr. Zehr, English; Mrs. L. E. Zehr, Home Economics; Ralph Seger, Commerce; Joe Rowekamp, History.

As everything was new to us, we were scared and even forgot to elect class officers.

The Freshmen Class consisted of:

Gene Bauer	Mary Lee Nordhoff
Orlan Bauer	George Opel
James Bray	Richard Pieper
Pauline Gehlhausen	Tony Pieper
Bernard Gilson	Claude Seger
Jack Goodman	Norma Sendelweck
Luella Hacker	Richard Stamm
Alfred Hemmerlein	Dorothy Mae Teder
Anna Humbert	Gabriel Thiesing
Lilla Humbert	Mary Florence Ward
Rudy Huebner	Walter Wendel
Gladys Matheis	Glenn Ziegler
Catherine Mehringer	Joe Ziegler
Barbara Jean Nigg

During the year we lost one member, James Bray. Our queen attendants were: Catherine Mehringer and Mary Lee Nordhoff.

Our first high school social gathering was an initiation party given to us by the Sophomores on October 26.

In the fall of 47' we hurried to the Sophomore room and found two members had dropped out. They were: Alfred Hemmerlein and Luella Hacker. Helen Bachman and Ralph Schroeder joined the class. Class officers were:

President:	Helen Bachman
Vice President:	Gene Bauer
Secretary:	Dorothy Mae Teder
Treasurer:	Mary Lee Nordhoff

Queen attendants were Mary Lee Nordhoff and Helen Bachman. Faculty changes were: Mrs. Schiller replaced Mr. Jackson and Mr. Kreitzer was added. On September 28, we entertained the Freshmen with an initiation party. Our class sponsor was Mr. Kreitzer.

After a four month vacation, we reported back for our third year of High School. Catherine Mehringer and Mary Florence Ward did not return. Anna Marie Schurig and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McCutcheon were the new faculty members. Class officers were:

President:	Norma Sendelweck
Vice President:	Gene Bauer
Secretary:	Barbara Jean Nigg
Treasurer:	Richard Pieper

Our class sponsor was Anna Marie Schurig. Mr. Kreitzer, principal, replaced Mr. Beeks.

Queen attendants were: Norma Lee Sendelweck and Helen Bachman. On April 3, our class went on an outing to Spring Mill State Park. On April 21, and 22, our class gave a junior play entitled "Aunt Cathie's Cat." Mr. Treitzer directed the play. On April 27, we were hosts to a Junior-Senior Banquet. In September we came back to finish our fourth year of high school. Our class officers were:

President: Gene Bauer
Vice President: Norma Sendelweck
Secretary: Richard Stamm
Treasurer: Gabriel Thiesing

Mary Florence Seng was the new faculty member replacing Anna Marie Schurig. During this year we published the Jeep Echo. Mary Lee Nordhoff was the Editor. Our class sponsor was Mr. Zehr.

The queen chosen was Helen Bachman. Her attendants from the Senior class was Gladys Matheis and Norma Lee Sendelweck. Gabriel Thiesing was the cheer leader from our class.

The motto chosen by the class is "The word American ends in 'I Can.'"
Our class colors are blue and gold. The yellow rose is our class flower.

On January 26, 27th, our class presented the play, "Mountain Justice," in the new high school gymnasium. Mr. Zehr directed the play.

After our commencement exercises, on April 26, we will have to leave Dubois High School. Though we have been striving for graduation for four years, we are sorry to leave a swell school including a fine faculty and a fine group of high school students, but its memories will linger with us always.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Dubois High School, Dubois County, State of Indiana, being of sound mind and cheerful disposition do hereby make this our last will and testimony to wit:

I, Anna Mae Hummert, will my quietness and love for study to Herman Heeke.

I, Joe Zeigler, will my love for loafing, ability to get by in school without studying and my bright remarks to Ebert Zehr. (He said they must be continued).

I, Dorothy Mae Teder, will my long blonde hair, blue eyes and my ability to blush to Doris Lee Mathies.

I, Claude Seger, will my height and love for teasing girls to Dalcus Fuhrman.

I, Helen Bachman will my honor of being basketball queen to my sister Mary.

I, Glenn Zeigler, will my love for those wonderful weekends to Alois Pieper. (It's okay if you can catch up on your sleep, Alois).

I, Norma Sendelweck will my "Hoosier Drawl" and my ability to not speak to boys until spoken to, to Hilda Mae Eisenhut.

I, Gabriel Thiesing, will my good yell leadership and my smile for the girls, to Eugene Coble.

I, George Opel, will my powerful 40' chevvie with its wonderful pick-up, and high speed, and also his love for chasing girls in Dubois every night to Herschel Zehr.

I, Barbara Jean Nigg, will my talent and editorship of the Yearbook to Elta Breitweiser.

I, Rudy Huetner, will all the girls to the rest of the boys as I have already grabbed my gal.

I, Gladys Mae Matheis, will my quietness and pleasing personality to Fritz Patchek.

I, Eugene Bauer, will my ability to torment Miss Seng in Journalism class to anyone whose got the nerve to try it.

I, Pauline Gehlhausen, will my small features and cheerful smile to Alice Seitz.

I, Orlan Bauer, will my mischeivousness and slick tricks to Emil Fuhrman.

I, Lillia Mae Humbert, will my giggling spells in class to Betty Humbert.

I, Walter Wendel, will my winning way with the girls and my precious Pontiac to John Stamm.

I, Mary Lee Nordhoff, will my editorship of the school paper and beauty queen title to my sister, Peggy.

I, Bernard Gilson, will by ability to agrue and my love for Shorthand to Channing Hall.

I, Jack Goodman, will my bashfulness and my way of getting along with everyone to Robert O. Matheis.

I, Richard Pieper, will my freckles, red hair, and muscles to Franklin Potts.

I, Richard Stamm, will my slow start with everything and my fast finish to Howard Anderson.

The Senior Class of 1950, wills to all students who are presently enrolled and students who will attend Dubois High School, the love, appreciation, and respect to Dubois High School and its faculty.

CLASS PROMISEY

Having just arrived home from a hard day at the mill, I sat down in my favorite chair and gazed blankly out of the window. As usual I turned on the radio and listened to Gabriel Thieling, who I listen to every evening over WITZ on the "Happy Hour" program. He had already made a name for himself in the entertainment world. Sitting there listening to him, my mind came to rest on my high school days at D. H. S. Gab was one of my classmates who was always ready to entertain or have fun in the days at old Dubois High.

Then I thought of all my other classmates who are now scattered far and near over our country. One of my nearest friends of D. H. S. days is Richard "Red" Piener, star basketball player, in the year 49-50. He accompanies me when flying about the country on a week-end jaunt to some secluded fishing spot, and is my companion when on a vacation, or on some soul-satisfying cruise.

On one of our yearly excursions, we ran into Mary Lee Nordhoff at a little spot in Florida. She was just rounding out her vacation after having completed a modeling contract for the Conover Agency in New York. Not having seen us for a long period of time, she asked a great many questions about our home town and her home-town friends. The conversation then turned toward Gladys Mae Katheis and Pauline Gelhausen, two former classmates. On her return trip, I reminded her to check up on these two industrious girls who are working for a law firm in Atlanta, Georgia. Gladys and Pauline explained that their shorthand course really paid off in more ways than one. Both girls married ambitious lawyers.

Cruising low in Ohio, Red identified the prosperous "Huebner & Son's Construction Company", of which Rudy Huebner is manager. We remembered his high school sweetheart as the blushing bride. Red began humming the song "Cincinnati, Ohio", and I knew Red wanted to spend the night here. As we landed on Lunken Airport, we recognized Barbara Jean Kieg, R.N. boarding a large Northeastern Liner. We climbed out of the cockpit and saw a tall, dignified, blonde storming after the plane. Realizing it was for a worthy cause and knowing Barbara Jean as we did, Richard and I offered the young gentlemen our services. We arrived at the Huntingburg airport two minutes after the big Northeastern Liner landed. We released the excited blonde and left him in pursuit of Barbara while we took off for Dubois. We heard later that the blonde accomplished his mission after Barbara assisted a doctor with an operation.

Having arrived in Dubois we heard a noise in the plane, and decided to have a check up at Richard Stamm's Garage. Richard is an efficient repair man. Richard was servicing Orlan Bauer's truck. Orlan is hauling wood all over Southern Indiana. While at Stamm's Garage, we saw Joe Riegler, formerly known as "Ozark", passing out candidate cards. Joe is now running for Judge of the circuit court of Dubois and Martin County. These three boys were the best of high school pals. Joe mentioned that he saw our most humorous and good natured friend, Claude Seger. Claude now has a very nice and practical farm over in the vicinity of Loggostee where he found the girl of his dreams and promptly settled down.

While Richard was working on the plane, we visited our old Alma Mater. Here we found there had been quite a turnover in the teaching personnel. The Big Three: Mr. Kreitzer, Mr. Seger, and Mr. Zehr have been adequately replaced by George Orel, Eugene Bauer, and Norma Sendelweck. George found it would be more profitable to supervise children than turkeys and is now Principal of Dubois High School. Bauer has made quite a record for himself as coach. His team is ranked first in the state. Norma liked the idea of being a bachelor girl and is making teaching her profession.

Principal Orel informed us that Bernard Gilson is an accomplished player of the violin and is now playing in the Philharmonic Symphony in Carnegie Hall. He also tutors the little darlings of high society. Jack Goodman plays the viola in the same Orchestra. It seems he is well occupied with his family and has no time for teaching.

At this point, the expert mechanic, Richard Stamm, announced that the plane would need new de-icers. He gave us the address of a reliable firm in Detroit which carried plane parts. Richard suggested that we take care of this matter immediately.

After hearing Principal Opel's lecture on promptness, we took for Detroit without any hesitation. My co-pilot, Red, reminded me that it was time to refuel. He didn't use much persuasion to convince me that a few hours in the Hoosier capital could be satisfying. Walking along the street, we ran into none other than Dorothy Mae Teder. She now has an ultra modern beauty shop in down town Indianapolis. She has also combined marriage with her career. While talking to Dorothy, I asked her about her high school chum, Helen Bachman. For an answer she gave me a fashion magazine, on which appeared a picture of Helen the Basketball Queen in 49-50, and a very attractive queen too, (my memory is good). Inside the magazine, I read where Helen was listed as the best photographer's model of the year.

Dorothy told me that Anna Mae and Lillie Mae Humbert who looked so much alike that the faculty could hardly tell one from the other, were operating a Ladies' Wear Shop across the street from her place of business, and she sees them quite often.

Finally, we arrived in Detroit, located the reliable firm and discovered that our buddy, Walter Wendel, was owner of this large Serve-Us All Garage. He was also the Packard dealer and father of a happy family.

Although the class of 1960 was thought to be the greenest class in the history of Dubois High School, I, Glenn Wexler, found it to be the most prosperous and successful class ever to graduate from Dubois High School.
