MR. ZEHR, Class Sponsor

I was born near Kempton, Germany. I had eight years in our country grade school, we walk, no busses. Two years I went to town one day a week to study Home Ec. Foods, Literature and Gardening. This is all the education country children get unless the parents can afford to keep them in town and pay tuition which is very high. I read a notice in our paper, asking for exchange students, with at least one year English. I had no English but had always wanted to come to America, so I answered. I was so surprised to be called to take the Exam. After passing, I tried to find an English teacher but could not. On July 13, 350 students, sponsored by five churches, sailed from Rotterdam, for America. I left without knowing one word of English, was the only one on the ship who couldn't speak English. We brought very few clothes because they were too short. This is because of the price of material. After arriving in New York, we went to Washington, D.C. by bus. The strangest things were people drinking water with their meals and women driving automobiles. I was most impressed by the monuments. We rode our first elevators and tasted cooked corn, which none of us liked. We were afraid of the negro waiters because we had never seen a negro. From here I went to Celestine. I was so afraid to start to school and surprised to see how it was, so nice. I don't want to leave D.H.S., but would like to stay and finish, because I would never have it so nice and beautiful as it is here. The nicest thing that ever happened to me was when the pupils gave me my watch at Christmas. I enjoy the ball games, we do not have them at home. I'll never forget my school. I know I will get homesick for my school when I get back to Germany. I have to tell the truth, the teachers and pupils are so friendly, my goodness, I can't say how nice you can be, never like German teachers. Mr. Kreitzer, the principal, makes jokes and fixes things that are broken. I couldn't believe it when I first saw it. German principals just sit on their chairs and act smart. America is so wonderful. The people are so kind and friendly, they live more comfortably and the food is better. We just have meat and white bread once a week. Below is a picture of the back of my home in Germany, the house and barn is under one roof. If you want to write me and I hope you will, my address is below.

THANKS for a wonderful year, I will never forget.

CLASS HISTORY

HAROLD MATHIES	LEROY FRIEDMAN	ED WINEINGER	WILLIAM ARNOLD
President	Vice President	Treasurer	Secretary

Thirty-five Freshmen were enrolled in Dubois High School for the school term, 1948-49. Our faculty consisted of: A. J. Kreitzer, Principal; Mr. Zehr, Grammar; Mr. Seger, Commerce and Coach; Mrs. Schiller, Math and Latin; Mr. McOutcheon, Science; Mrs. McOutcheon, Home Ec; and Miss Shurig, Commerce and Grammar. Our class sponsor was Mrs. McOutcheon. At the beginning of the basketball season, Waunita Kalb was selected as cheer-leader. Gerry Schiller and Thelma Jean Demu were selected as our basketball queen attendants.

When we returned for our sophomore year, we had lost three of our members: Alois Welp, Albert Vogel, and Herman Evans. This year our basketball queen attendants were Thelma Jean Demu and Hilda Mae Eisenhut. Again Waunita Kalb was selected as cheer-leader. Also we had a new girls' physical education and English teacher. She was Mary Florence Seng.

6 more of our members didn't return for our junior year of schooling. They were: Norma Leistner, Genevieve Hoffman, Doris Hentrup, Robert Mehringer, Ebert Zehr, and Robert Otto Mathies. However we received a new member, Ed Wineinger. We received two new faculty members. They were: Mrs. Ellis, Commerce and Grammar; and Miss Walker, our music teacher. Once again Waunita was our cheer-leader. Hilda Mae Eisenhut and Thelma Demu were selected by our class to be our basketball queen attendants. The juniors had a magazine campaign. This didn't amount to very much cash for our class. Our class play was "Great Caesar's Ghost"!! Mr. Kreitzer was our class play sponsor. At the end of April the juniors were hosts for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. Mrs. Ellis was our class sponsor.

Again in our senior year, we had a change in faculty. Miss Sater, Miss Quebbeman, Miss Coomer, and Mr. Walker replaced: Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. McOutcheon, Miss Walker, and Mr. McOutcheon. Mr. Zehr was our sponsor for "Eve on a Rampage", our senior class play. Leroy Friedman and Ed Wineinger were elected as editor and assistant editor of the year book. Mildred Breitwieser was chosen as editor of the school paper. Hilda Mae Eisenhut was chosen as the basketball queen of Dubois High School. Her senior attendants were: Geraldine Schiller and Thelma Demu. Dorothy Pieper was elected as Prom Queen. Our Dubois High School Beauty Queen was Waunita Kalb, who represented us at the Holiday Festival at Huntingburg. This was also the fourth consecutive year that Waunita Kalb was our cheer-leader. So our schooling ended with the Baccalaureate Service held on April 20th and the Commencement on April 25th.

So much to our sorrow we must say goodbye to a grand group of students, faculty, and a grand, grand old school, old D. H. S.!

CLASS PROPHECY

(EXCERPTS FROM THE DUBOIS EXAMINER*****YEAR 1960

Flask! June 14, 1960 New York: Miss Maunite Kalb, noted hair stylist predicts that the fashion for Milady's hair this year will be a straight short bob. She has been wearing her hair this way for several years and movie Director Elmer Himsel of "Lavish Pictures Inc." finds it very attractive. In fact, he says he will insist that his leading actress, Thelma Denu, wear the new hair style in her next picture, "Growing Up In Dubois", written by Daniel and Leroy Friedman, noted authors.

July 4, 1960 Philadelphia Noted politician and senator Harold Mathies gave the principal address at the 4th of July ceremonies here today. Senator Mathies and Mrs. Mathies, the former Miss Hilda Eisenhut, plan to spend a few days here in our fair city with two of their high school chums, Richard Mathies and Gerry Schiller. Richard is a prominent architectural engineer, having been the brain behind our beautiful new skyscraper. Miss Schiller is now a famous lawyer, and at this time she is battling the most important case of her career. She feels she owes a lot of her success to her faithful secretary, Dorothy Pieper. also she says that the judge in this trial, Judge Edward Wineinger, has been very generous to her, since they were high school classmates.

July 20, 1960 Paris France: Retired farmer Patrick Himsel, on a tour of Europe is reported by his doctor, Dr. Marvin Sernersheim, to be in ill health. He has been assigned a special nurse, Mary Ann Schoot for the remainder of the trip.

August 1, 1960 Cairo, Egypt: Geogoligists Alice Seitz and Mildred Breitweiser reports interesting new discoveries of rare pieces of art. Since these are out of thier line they will turn them over to Donald Padgett and the Mrs., Marilyn Rasche, for their art collection.

August 4, 1960 Fort Bourbon, Mo. Captain Merelea McGuire of the Spars was today promoted to the rank of Major.

August 4, 1960 Detroit, Mich., Donald Eichmiller of "Ike Automobile Company" has come up with an ultra modern design for cars. He plans to name this new car the "Jody Special" for his high school sweetheart, Joan (Jody) Grieve.

August 10, 1960 Broadway, New York. Rowecamp and Weikert, famous playwrights today opened the theatre doors on their new hit "Hinky Dinky Doo".

August 30, 1960 Arizona. Sgt. William Arnold, Army tester of new jet cars, today made the fastest ride of his career. The new jet-21, designed by Lenard Gelhausen and Denis Sander attained a speed of 300 miles per hour.

Sept. 17, Hayseville, Indiana. Harold Huebner, owner and operator of Huebner's Service Station here announced today that he has purchased the Halbert's Club, a swank night spot and that he plans to let the present managers, Channing Hall and Albert Pieper have charge of it.

September 28, 1960 Chicago. John Stamm coach of the "Windy City Jeep's" announce that his team would surely win the national title this year as one of his star players, Bobby Gene Mathies is from his own home town, Dubois, Indiana. Both agree that much credit for their success is due to the conderful climate and healthy atmosphere of the warm little town.
