Publish Our Memoirs and

Class History

On August 31, 1950, thirty-nine green but jolly freshmen wandered into a new era. Everyone was a bit scared, but their anxiety got the best of them and they discovered their faculty which consisted of Mr. Kreitzer, Principal; Mr. Zehr, Social Studies; Mrs. Schiller, Mathematics and Latin; Mr. Seger, Physical Education and Commerce; Mrs. Ellis, English; Mrs. McCutcheon, Home Economics; Mr. McCutcheon, Science; and Miss Walker, Band and Music. This was our first band.

We were directed through our first year by our sponsor Mrs. McCutcheon and our class officers who were: Gladys Seitz, President; Charles Eichmiller, Vice-President; Ruthann Schiller, Secretary; and Janice Mehringer, Treasurer.

Our class reporters were Jennifer Stamm and Melvin Meyer and our basketball queen attendants were Ruthann Schiller and Jennifer Stamm. In the course of the year Eugene Friedman, Linus Keller and Ambrose Lampert departed from our number.

In the Fall of 1951 we hurried to the Sophomore Room and found that two of our number had dropped out of school. They were Eugene Hemmerlein and Radus Schiller. We were fortunate, however, in gaining Rita Mae Senninger, Oscar Fromme and Delmer Hasenour from Jasper High School.

Faculty changes for the year were as follows: John Walker replaced Mr. McCutcheon, Jesse Quebbeman replaced Mrs. McCutcheon, Thelma Sater replaced Mrs. Ellis and Charlotte Coomer replaced Miss Walker.

Our basketball queen attendants were Christine Hall and Ruthann Schiller. Marlene Terwiske, one of our members, was picked as a yell leader. Our class officers were: Theodore Conrad, President; Marlene Terwiske, Vice-President; Jennifer Stamm, Secretary and Barbara Ann Meyer, Treasurer. Our reporters were Ruthann Schiller and Franklin Theising.

After what seemed like only a few days of vacation we reported back for our Junior Year. Edwin Breitwieser did not show up and Oscar Fromme, Virlee Mathies and Janice Mehringer departed for greener pastures.

Faculty changes were: Mr. Parks replaced Mr. Walker, Miss Price replaced Miss Quebbeman, and Mr. Chapman was added as English Teacher. Another change had been made in that Miss Coomer had become Mrs. Rasche. During the year Mrs. Rasche took a leave of absence and Marie Senninger took her place. However, due to an accident she was replaced by Esther Lasher. A Vocational Agriculture Department was added this year.

Our queen attendants were Inez Bauer and Christine Hall. Marlene Terwiske was again a yell leader and Theodore Conrad placed second in Dubois County in the "I Speak For Democracy" Contest. Our class raised money by having a magazine drive, a carnival supervised by Miss Sater and a class play directed by Mr. Kreitzer. On April 23 the Junior Class were host to the seniors at the annual banquet and prom at the American Legion Club. Our sponsor was Miss Sater.

Our class officers were: Melvin Meyer, President; Marie Freyberger, Vice-President; Robert Thacker, Secretary and Martha Bauer, Treasurer. Class reporters were Barbara Meyer and Theodore Conrad.

On August 26, 1953 we reassembled to complete our quest for a diploma. We were sorry to hear that Delores Loveall would not be with us. Mrs. Henry Seger replaced Miss Price, Mrs. Rasche returned to the Music Department, and Mr. Henry Seger replaced Mr. Chapman. His first official act was to direct the Senior Class Play, "Lady Spitfire" presented on October 29 and 30. Mrs. Rasche directed the band and majorettes as they appeared as one of the 78 bands at the annual high school day at the Indiana vs. Marquette Football Game at Bloomington.

Our officers were Theodore Conrad, President; Gladys Seitz, Vice-President; Barbara Ann Meyer, Secretary and Bernice Kluesner, Treasurer.

Marlene Terwiske was elected basketball queen and Barbara Meyer and Ruthann Schiller were the senior attendants. She was crowned at the Shoals Game on December 4, 1953. Queen for the Holiday Festival at Huntingburg was Jennifer Stamm. Eight senior members of the Beta Club attended the Convention at the Kentucky Hotel at Louisville. Marlene Terwiske served as yell leader for the third consecutive year. Franklin Theising was also elected as yell leader and Jennifer Stamm was the Drum Majorette. Ruth Fuhrman was selected as the DAR Good Citizen of Dubois High School.

On April 25, 1954 we had our Baccalaureate Services followed later that week by Commencement. We received our diplomas under our motto which read, "Success Awaits at Labor's Gates".

We know that Mr. Zehr, our sponsor and Mr. Kreitzer, our Principal breathed a sigh of relief at our departure; but with us a consciousness remains of images and precious thoughts that shall not die and cannot be destroyed.

Class Will

We, the graduating class of 1954, of Dubois High School, County of Dubois, and State of Indiana, being of seemingly sound mind and memory, do hereby will and bequeath in this our first will and testament certain of our assets to the parties mentioned.

Inez Bauer, her graceful manner and poise to her neighbor, Mary Frances Seifrig.
Martha Bauer, her uncanny ability to manipulate the office books to Matilda Humbert.

Teddy Conrad, his speech making ability to Alfred Hoffman (who probably won't need it.)

Charles Eichmiller, his ability to make the principal cry for the Seniors to Leo Gilson.

Marie Freyberger, her freckles to Dian Rohrscheib.

Ruth Fuhrman, her good Citizenship Award to Mary Ann Baer.

Edgar Gehlhausen, his ability to lay concrete blocks in front of the school door to Tom Reck.

Patty Greive, her ability to pester Miss Sater in Shorthand to Cecelia Gust.

Christine Hall, her quietness to Shirley Hall.

Delmar Hasenour, his love for a certain senior girl to Robert Wilson.

Stanley Huff, his matured manner and ability to handle a car to Kenny Brosmer.

Kenneth Kane, his knack for calling Bingo to Charles Himsel.

Bernice Kluesner, her ability to guess weight to Frances Patcheak.

Wanda Lottes, her cute smile to Eileen Coble.

Delbert Mathies, his graceful bearing to Donald Hopf.

Vernon Mathies, his good looks and convertible to Donald Reuber.

Barbara Meyer, her giggling spells to Wanda Eichmiller.

Melvin Meyer, his quick thinking and bright remarks to Frank Senninger.

Delores Patcheak, her tact and intuition to Aileen Humbert.

Joan Sander, her driving ability to Geraldine Nonte.

Ruthann Schiller, her red hair and fiery temper to anyone who has the ability to cope with it.

Gladys Seitz, her bright remarks to Carol Wilson.

Rita Mae Senninger, her blonde hair and sweet personality to Patricia Padgett.

Jennifer Stamm, her ability to be a good majorette to Patsy Fromme.

Marlene Terwiske, her ability to receive three to five letters a day from the same guy to Arlene Ziegler.

Robert Thacker, his ability to make funny noises in class and put the blame on other people to Bill Skaggs.

Franklin Theising, wills his height to Harold Weikert.

Esther Wolf, her curly hair to Phyllis Baker.

Roger Zehr, his flying trips to Hall township to Harry Friedman.

Robert Ziegler, his fondness for Model T Fords to Cletus Sermersheim.

*"And Now Having Reached Our Goal We Leave
Forever The Halls Of Dubois High School Fully Realizing That"*

The Moving Finger writes; and, having writ,
Moves on: nor all your Piety nor Wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a Line,
Nor all your Tears wash out a Word of it.

Sincerely Yours,
