Senior Class History

The rickety old door of Dubois High creaked open in 1954 to admit forty-six brave and ambitious Freshmen into its fold. The job of educating such a group was left to the following people: A.J. Kreitzer, Principal; Elmer Zehr, Social Studies; Paul Phillips, Math; Henry Seger, English and Latin; Ralph Seger, Coach and Physical Education; Aaron Parks, Biology and Agriculture; Mrs. Lula Seger, Home Economics; Mrs. Charlotte Rasche, Music; Miss Amanda Toliver, English.

Miss Amanda Toliver was our class sponsor. We elected the following as our class officers: Pres-Sharon Perkins, Vice-Pres-Helen Dorsam; Sec-Carolyn Anderson; Treas-Eric Krodol; Reporters-Furba Lou Ziegler and Theodore Kalkwarf.

We chose Carolyn Anderson and Sharon Perkins as queen attendants and the cheerleaders chosen from our class were Furba Lou Ziegler and Sharon Perkins. During the summer of 1955, a miraculous change came over our class. We were no longer a group of beginning Freshmen, but now, in the fall of the same year, we once again entered DHS. This time as Sophomores.

As we all gathered together again, we noticed eight of our old classmates were missing. But we also found that we had gained Lorraine Beuchler as a classmate.

Our faculty was the same except for the following changes: Richard Kemper replaced Charlotte Rasche and Kenneth Riley replaced Amanda Toliver.

Paul Phillips was our class sponsor and our class officers were: Pres-Don Patcheak; Vice-Pres-Carolyn Anderson; Sec-Linus Bauer; Treas-Judy Friedman. Judy Friedman and Carolyn Anderson were our queen attendants and Furba Lou Ziegler and Sharon Perkins were again cheerleaders.

As "Jolly Juniors," we returned to Dubois High on August 28, 1956, to find that Lorraine Buechler, Margaret Richey and Clara Mae Schnell were not with us. During the first semester, we also lost four more of our class, but we also gained Betty Beyke, Darlene Schnell, and Norman Keller.

The faculty changes were: Mrs. Wilma Beckman replaced Mrs. Lula Seger, and Mr. John Lyons replaced Mr. Kenneth Riley.

Our class sponsor was Mr. Henry Seger and class officers were: Pres-Don Patcheak; Vice-Pres-Judy Friedman; Sec-Carolyn Anderson; Treas-Linus Bauer.

Thus thirty-six strong, we plunged forward on our magazine campaign and our Junior Carnival was held on October 3 at the gym.

Cheerleaders chosen from our class were Judy Friedman and Sharon Perkins. Our queen attendants were Sharon Schiller and Carolyn Anderson.

Under the direction of Mr. A. J. Kreitzer, we presented our class play, "Desperate Ambrose," the ninth and eleventh of April.

The last event of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom, at which we entertained the Senior Class.

It was held at the Rustic on April 23. The music for the evening was provided by Willie Bartley and his band.

Don Patcheak represented DHS in the Dubois County "I Speak For Democracy" contest and we were all very proud to have him place first.

Echoes of "Hi, I haven't seen you all summer," and other comments could be heard throughout the halls of DHA as thirty-five Seniors returned to finish their high-school education.

We were sorry that Lafem Bauer was unable to finish her last year with us. Mr. Elmer Zehr sponsored our Senior Class. Our class officers were: Pres-Don Patcheak; Vice-Pres-Judy Friedman; Sec-Carolyn Anderson; Treas-Lowell Dorsam; Class reporters-Sharon Perkins, Darlene Schnell, and Betty Ann Beyke.

Under the supervision of Mr. John Lyons, work was begun on the Jeep Echo and The Echo.

Judy Friedman and Furba Lou Ziegler represented our class as Cheerleaders.

Under the direction of Mr. Henry Seger, the Seniors presented their play, "The Case of the Missing Heirs," on November sixth and seventh.

At the annual Huntingburg Christmas Festival, Judith Friedman represented our school as the Holiday Queen. Edna Zehr represented our class as the DAR Good Citizen.

Our class was proud to have Janet Bleemel represent DHS in the county "I Speak For Democracy" contest. She received second-place honor.

Carolyn Anderson was crowned Basketball Queen, January 17, 1958, with Helen Dorsam and Edna Zehr as her Senior attendants.

The Senior members of the Beta Club enjoyed seeing the Ice Review.

Jack Goodman and Jerry Breeding were crowned Prom King and Queen at the Junior-Senior Prom.

On April 27, Baccalaureate Services were held at the Gymnasium, followed by Commencement that week.

Thus, after four years of many happy memories, our high school career was ended, and once more we passed through the doors of Dubois High. This time never to return, but to use the knowledge we gained here to achieve our goals.
