DUBOIS HIGH SCHOOL
DUBOIS, INDIANA

A pair of doors,
A set of walls,
Enclose our lives
Within these halls.

Within are dreams
And memories
Of days gone by
That one still sees . . .

Of friendships lost
And friendships made,
The thoughts of which
Will never fade.

Though crumble may
The walls of clay,
The memories live
From day to day.

So to these halls
We dedicate
This memory book
And await our fate.

Foreword

Dear Reader:

We the Annual Staff of Dubois High School present this issue of "The Echo" in token of appreciation for the many things DHS has given to us. It is not the intent of this issue to contain all those things for it would take a very large volume to do so, and we could make only a feeble attempt to accomplish that end. Instead, it will contain those treasures which we cherish most highly.

We therefore, present "The Echo" not in an effort to hold on to the past but, rather, in an effort to enlighten the future by remembering the past.

Sincerely,

Tom Neukam
