Memories In Motion

All of us at NDHS were restricted to the rules that our school board established. But we came to school anyway in hopes for a good education. We dragged ourselves into our cars and headed off to school. When we arrived, we refused to give up our freedom to cruise, but we forced ourselves to walk into school. While at school we listened to our teacher's lectures (sort of), and sometimes our attention drifted off to our own little "Wayne's World." We dreamt about some of the wild things we could do instead of being here at school. We may have dreamt about hijacking the UPS truck that came every day during fifth period and take off in that UPS party wagon. We could have taken off in our own vehicles and cruised for a period or two. Whatever we may have dreamt about, it probably was not associated with school. At the end of the day our nerves were built up, but after 3:12 our freedom to hit the roads again had returned.

Memories In Motion-NOT!

Chances are, that at least one time in your lifetime, you had an unusual occurrence happen to you. You may have walked down the hallway, and suddenly, you felt as if you had two left feet. Before you knew it, your face had been carpet burned, and all your classmates laughed at you (freshman). In the morning, as you walked toward your first period class, you notice your truck out in the parking lot had just rolled down into the slushy front yard of the school. However, we do our best to cope with these monstrosities.

The guinea pigs pictured on these two pages generously volunteered to pose for some quite unusual occurrences that may already have happened to you.

Spirit Week

For the third year, the students at Northeast Dubois have participated in various competitions, to show their school spirit, called Spirit Week. There were both sports competitions and dress-up competitions to show spirit. Each homeroom could gain points for either sports events won or to be the best dressed for the day. The dress-up days consisted of Summer Day, Farmer Day, Hat Day, Rival Day, and Blue & White Day. The sports events the homerooms competed in were a tug-o'-war, volleyball games, track events, and anything goes. The homerooms also had to decorate the homeroom door and at least ten lockers, and they also got an opportunity to decorate one car out of each homeroom with paint, streamers, and almost anything else creative the students could think of. There were rules, of course, and if any homeroom was to break any of those rules, their team would be disqualified from that competition. The lockers, doors, and cars were to be judged by impartial faculty members. The last day of spirit week, each homeroom had the opportunity to perform a skit to earn some final points in the gym. The final results at the end of the week were Mr. Haworth's homeroom in first for the second year in a row, Mr. Mills' homeroom in second. Spirit Week was enjoyed by everyone and really boosted the attitude of all students and teachers.

Different . . . . . . . .is good.

From the tallest to the shortest, Aaron Simpson and Amy Nunn have stood out among the senior class for their height. Aaron took an advantage of his height by joining basketball and cross country, while Amy Nunn just grinned and bore her height. Chopping two by fours and concrete blocks became Cory Voegerl's unusual sport in karate. Catalina Navarro, from Cali, Colombia came to Dubois to experience our American customs. Boy and girl classroom environments switched places as Chad Englert became the first guy in sewing class, while five girls cut and hammered in woodshop class. Unusual nicknames were heard in the senior hallways. You may have heard a Whooshty or a Chippy here and there as you walked to class. These many qualities has made the senior class of 1992 one of the most unique classes at NDHS.

NICKNAMES

"My nickname is passed down from my brother. His name is Chippy too."
- Brian "Chippy" Helderman

"I got my nickname when I was in middle school. My dad and all my uncles have been called Hammer. It's a family tradition." - Chris "Hammer" Hemmerlein

"I got my nickname from Coach Elliot while I was in baseball. He called me Gibby because he said I batted like Curt Gibson." - Chad "Gibby" Brinkman

"I got my nickname from my brother-in-law, Terry Kluesner." - Scott "Whooshty" Schepers

People That Make You Go Hmmm...

Reading many books, starting fashion trends, or collecting t-shirts also became another uniqueness of the class of 92.

The coolness of long black leather coats were seen on many senior girls.

Scott Beckman and Jason Braunecker set the trends for wearing spurs on cowboy boots. If anyone was wanting to read a book and was wondering if it was any good, you could have asked Tammy Fehribach. Tammy probably sets the record in the class as the number one top reader of novels. Jason Voelkel and Michael Cave's interests in racing and basketball encouraged them to collect several T-shirts.

Another Great Year

Spell Bowl

They were tied with Forest Park for third place on the 78th word at State competition. Chris Bieker went up to spell. The team achieved a second place finish on the tiebreaker word and another great year for Spell Bowl.

The competition started off with the Blue Chip Conference meet at Paoli. The team spelled 63 out of 80 words correctly which achieved them a first place finish. Then the team went to the area competition at Shoals and obtained a total score of 66 out of 80 words for a first place finish and another chance at the State competition. At State, the team spelled 72 out of 80 words for a second place finish in Class 4.

The team will be losing five strong seniors. Mrs. Himself is looking to the underclassmen to fill the gaps. The students had a total of 3500 words to learn in two months. The students spent hours studying. Four times a week, they met at 7:45 in the morning to study. "Also special thanks to all of the kids for all of their hard work." - Mrs. Himself.

Wake up! Where do you think you're going? What are you doing? These are some of the statements your teachers or classmates might have said to you during the 1991-92 school year. The phrase "Wake up!" was commonly heard from Mr. Haworth, who tried to wake up senior Scott Freyberger during 6th period Government class. "Where do you think you're going?" was heard frequently from Mr. Kline to some determined to skip out students. "What are you doing?" was repeated constantly by Mr. Wahl to sometimes one, but most of the time, a group of mischievous students.

Nevertheless, students tried to get away with things they weren't supposed to do. They sometimes got away with it, but sometimes they got caught in the act!

Student Life

Just Got Paid !

CHACHING !!!

Besides keeping up with the responsibilities of being a full-time student, most students at NDHS had to work part-time jobs at local businesses. Many of the jobs at fast food restaurants were to take out the trash, mop the floors, and to wait on customers. Stocking shelves, doing inventory, and waiting on customers were the main jobs at retail and grocery stores. Most of the businesses in the local area payed between $4.00 and $6.00 and gave their employees between twenty and twenty-five hours a week. 94% of the seniors worked after school or on weekends to save money for college, weekends, clothes, and to pay-off loans on cars. Many of us just viewed our jobs as a "do it for the money thing."

Making the Grade

Should teachers give students time in class to do their assignments? Do students use their study halls wisely? When do students find time to finish their homework? Are students working too many hours to juggle their grades and jobs?

Most of the students at NDHS work part-time jobs after school and weekends. This doesn't leave much time for the students to do their assignments or to work on research for their class projects. Most part-time jobs started between 4:00 and 6:00, which didn't leave much time for early study time. Teachers gave time in class to do work also. In Government class, Mr. Haworth gave the seniors time to work on worksheets and to read over literature for mock trials. Mrs. Meredith gave juniors time to do research on their debates on women's rights, gun control, animal rights, etc. Mr. Gladish gave time in class for the sophomores to look up information for their persuasive essays that were written on a variety of topics. Mrs. Acuff gave time out of her class to let the freshmen work on writing journals.

For the answers to our questions... Students must set priorities.

The Northeast Dubois Basketball Homecoming was held on Friday, January 24. The Jeeps defeated Vincennes Rivet 72-42. During the game, the queen's court showed their support by doing the first-ever wave.

The ball carrier was Brad Schroering, son of Donny and Cathy Schroering. The crown carrier, daughter of Kevin and Johnna Fisher, was Hannah Fisher. Christine Schroering, vice-president of the Student Council, was the announcer, and Mr. Pennington provided the music. This was the first year at Northeast Dubois High School that the Queen Crowning was videotaped. Mr. Dan Fritch from Hoosier Video came and videotaped the evening from beginning to end. He taped the girls getting their make-up done by Mary Kay, the guys watching the clock, anxious to get started, the trophy cases, the basketball team warm-up, and other school trivia. Mr. Robert McCarty took the still pictures.

The dresses were made by Barbara Mohr. The underclass attendants' dresses were made of gold lame that went to the floor. They had a sweetheart neckline, puff sleeves, and a train in the back. Their escorts wore black tuxedos with black bow ties and cummerbunds. The seniors and the crown carrier's dresses were made of white taffeta covered by white lace with gold threads that went to the floor. They had a portrait neckline and a train in the back. Their escorts wore black tuxedos with pinstripes and tails.

Working behind the scene were the coordinators, Mrs. Connie Himsel and Mrs. Julie Parr. The art students worked on setting up the background. It consisted of white gossamer accented with black netting. Large black and gold vases with gold branches were used as accents.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

Holiday Ball

The second annual Holiday Ball was a great success compared to last year's, which was shortened because of snow. It was an opportunity for everyone to get out and spread some Christmas cheer. Many of the faculty came out to see that the Ball was a success. Even Mr. Balka, the industrial arts teacher, who was disguised as Santa Claus, passed out candy canes to all who attended.

Seniors Dionne Meredith and Scott Beckman were crowned King and Queen of the Ball. Music was provided by Rhonda Welp and Duane Lorey, who played a variety of music from rock to country, as well as some traditional Christmas music.

Robert McCarty was on hand to take pictures for all who wanted them.

Rockin' Through the Years

Blacklight

The Northeast Dubois Show Choir presented "Rockin' Through the Years" on Friday, April 24, and Sunday, April 26. The lights and sound board were operated by Andrea Buechler, Kathy Hagen, Kim Rottet, Mary Sue Linne, J. D. Opel, Deanna Perkins, and Chad Gudorf. This year's performance had more choreography than past shows have had. Jay Brinkman played the drums, and Mr. Pennington played the keys. The Show Choir sang Disney and Twenties melodies, City of Angels, and Rock On. The Show Choir had twenty-one members. Siebert's in Jasper loaned Jeremy Seger his tuxedo. Julie Parr helped in the set design, and Janis Dodd helped in preparing the program. Some of the songs sung were "Crazy" by Christine Schroering,

"Till a Tear Becomes a Rose" by Kristi Moore and Kevin Weisheit, "Great Balls of Fire" by Scott Brosmer, and "Victim of the Game" by Shanna Danhafer. The set design was a jukebox with musical notes around it. The set was designed by Mrs. Julie Parr. The Show Choir practiced the week before to perfect their show. "Rockin' Through the Years" was a huge success from all the hard work and dedication displayed by the Show Choir and everyone else who helped with the show.

Everything I Do

Prom

On Friday, May 15, 1992, the junior class presented "Everything I Do" as the 1992 Prom theme. The Prom was held at the K of C from 8:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. The colors were teal, black, and silver. The 1992 Prom King and Queen were Chad Brinkman and Catalina Navarro. The photography background was a waterfall, white lattice, silver tinsel, and white gossamer. The music was provided by the D.J. "Rowdy Knights." Appetizers and soft drinks were also provided at the Prom, compliments of the junior class. People added a new look by wearing a cowboy hat or spurs.

Hot Country Nights

Post Prom

A Post Prom party followed the Prom at the high school. The theme was "Hot Country Nights." The PTO and parents worked weeks on getting ready for the Post Prom. Liz Neukam was in charge of the committee.

The hallways were filled with the hay, wagon wheels, antiques, and even a view of a western town to make it look authentic. There was even a full size wagon in the gym. It had to be disassembled to get it in the gym. There was a scavenger hunt, casino games, panning for gold, golf, ping-pong, bean bag toss, steer roping, three-legged race, and a balloon shaving contest. There were several cash prizes given away during the night. A $500 cash prize was won by Johnny Lynch. Many other prizes were donated by local businesses.

Focus Staff

The Focus is published eight times a year by the Northeast Dubois Communications class. The editor was Dionne Meredith. The business manager was Chris Hemmerlein. Circulation managers were Brandy Emmons and Wendy Merkel. The photographers were Kerri Mehringer, Misty Schneider, Wendy Merkel, Chris Hemmerlein, Brandy Emmons, Michael Cave, and Dionne Meredith. The advisor was Mr. Rick Gladish.

The paper has continued its usual coverage of all the latest stories and sports events around the school. To make their job a little easier, the Focus Staff has a new Macintosh computer. The paper consists of the editorials, Rod of the Month, Heap of the Month, Mystery Baby, and the album review. The logo of the Focus was changed this year to an updated version.

Louder the Better

The sound and light club played after every home basketball game. They also played at special occasions like the Holiday Ball and by invitation, at the middle school dances. The dances have all been very successful with great turnouts. They all did a great job in playing at the dances.

Thanks to the Student Council who purchased the equipment. Everyone had fun at the dances. The club is looking forward to many more good times in the future.

Pep Club was a new addition to our school. They helped motivate our basketball team at home games. Pep Club helped increase our school spirit. They all sat together at basketball games and cheered their loudest for the Jeeps. They also painted signs for the basketball games. They were a great support for the team. Hopefully, this attitude will spread throughout the student body.

Service to Our School

One of the outstanding projects the library club did was to purchase books for the library. A committee of students went to Evansville book stores and picked out paperback books that they thought other students would enjoy. They had their annual candy sales, the seniors went out to eat, and, of course, they also worked in the library.

The student council continued their service projects, such as the Red Cross Blood Drive and the Dubois County Food Bank Drive. The student council also paid for activities that benefited the rest of the school. These included the school convocations, the t-shirts for the spirit week champs, and the Holiday Ball.

Achievements Create Character

The substance abuse students spent a day in training at St. Joseph's Hospital. Their purpose was to deliver the anti-drug and alcohol message to young students. The program was expanded to include grades K-9 at Dubois Middle and Dubois and Celestine Elementary schools. This program is a successful part of the group's curriculum.

The Beta Club attended the State Convention in Indianapolis. Ellen Starr received third place for her art entry at the convention. The club's new project was the "Adopt-a-Highway" program. Ellen Starr, Jeremy Seger, Robin Merkel, Jeremy Schipp, and Ms. Leland were the dedicated members that braved the cold at 8:00 a.m. to pick up trash along the highway.

Being the Best We Can Be

The Girls FCA sold Tom Watt merchandise as their fundraiser. The top salesperson was Amy Sander. They had a picnic at the Isaac Walton on May 17. They designed new T-shirts and sweatshirts. The T-shirts and sweatshirts had the FCA logo on them. The Girls FCA also held a breakfast. Senior Jill Schroering, as President of Girls FCA, gave the prayer of Thanksgiving at the Senior Banquet.

The Boys FCA promised a pizza party to any club that donated more food than they did for the Dubois County Food Bank Drive. The pizza party was won by the Library club. Boys FCA also designed new T-shirts. The Boys FCA held a Christmas dinner. Boys FCA held a breakfast for everyone so they could do well on their tests.

Preparation for the Future

One of FHA's many activities was trick-or-treating for the March of Dimes. The group that collected the most money was Dawn Hall, Brandy Emmons, Lisa Tinkle, Wendy Merkel, and Jill Schroering. They also sponsored a Christmas dinner for FHA parents. For their fundraiser, they had a car wash and a bake sale. Both of these were held at Walmart. FHA also had a hot dog roast at Mrs.

Denbo's house.

BPA bought and delivered Christmas gifts to needy children. For their fundraiser, they had their annual fruit sales. BPA went to Stoll's Restaurant for dinner. The club also held a banquet. The District 10 contest was held at Evansville, and the State conference was held at Indianapolis. No one qualified for nationals this year, but several students did very well. The following students competed in the following categories: Dawn Terwiske - extemporaneous speech, Chad Haefling - prepared speech II, Tara Greener - keyboarding, Carrie Weisman - keyboarding and prepared speech I, Sherry Schepers - Office Assistant, and Janel Schroering - employment skills.

The Future Farmers of America did many things. They sold honey as their fundraiser. They also had a car wash. The Future Farmers of America had a barbecue at the Jaycee Park at Celestine open to the public.

The Art Club helped to sponsor 35 students in the Dubois County Art Guild Show. For their fundraiser they sold candy sticks. Art Club decorated the Christmas tree in the office. They purchased an art print done by Dave Meyers. The print will hang in the high school. They also entered the window painting contest at Rax.

Doty, Jenny Wright, Scott Sendelweck, Dan Weisman, Jannay Nicholson, Chris Rottet, Kim Rottet, Michael Seger, Cathy Riley, Rachael Neukam, and Angie Schott.

German Club's fundraiser was selling candy bars. They went to Noble Roman's to eat pizza. They made and sold Valentine's Day cookies. The club also went to Der Deutsche Gasthof to eat dinner in Montgomery, IN. German Club had a successful year.

Marching To The Beat

Band

The 1991-92 band season was bigger and better than ever. The band marched 100 students strong, putting NDHS as one of the largest bands in class four. Leadership was provided by seniors Chad Haefling and Michelle Kieffner as field commanders. Other seniors included Andrea Buechler, Chris Rottet, and Scott Kieffner.

Band season opened with a full week of band practice on NDHS grounds for summer band camp. Some of the goals of the band were to win the percussion and the field commanders awards. With lots of hard work and dedication, they won both awards. The field commander award was earned at Heritage Hills. The percussion award was won at the competition at Tell City. The band worked hard to deserve a division one rating at the District competition at Jasper. This was the fourth consecutive year that a division one was attained. The music from this year's show included selections from "Back to the Future", "Saint Frederick", and "Don't Cry Out Loud".

"Every year I was in band, it seemed the band got stronger and a lot bigger." -Senior Andrea Buechler

The Yearbook staff went on a trip to VUJC. There the staff learned about photography and layout design. The staff even had the chance to look at other schools' yearbooks. Last summer four members attended a yearbook camp at Georgetown College. They were Paul Ebert, Shelly Conrad, Matt Fromme, and Kevin Sensmeier. The editors were Paul Ebert and Shelly Conrad.

This year the Yearbook class had six juniors instead of the usual two. The juniors gained experience and knowledge about how to run the Yearbook. Next year with all the experience gained, the Yearbook should be better than ever. The class believes the 1991-92 Echo has been a success.

Boys Tennis

Traditionally, Forest Park has always been a rival to the boys tennis team. Tradition was broken. Forest Park was defeated twice along with rival Springs Valley. These were the most challenging matches all season for the young Dubois team.

Coach Mark Verble expresses his feelings by saying, "The boys have improved very much, and since the team is so young, I feel that the coming years will be even better." The team will be losing two players, Jeremy Seger and Chad Haeffling.

The mental attitude award was achieved by the two seniors, Jeremy Seger and Chad Haeffling. Jeremy Seger played number three singles and Chad Haeffling played number two singles. The most valuable player was sophomore, Jason Knies, who played number one singles. The most improved award went to another sophomore, Jeremy Schipp, who played as half of the number two doubles team.

The team placed fourth in the Blue Chip Conference. They also beat Forest Park in the Sectional with a score of 3-2, but lost to Jasper by a score of 0-5. The team placed third in the Wood Memorial Tournament.

"I feel the team and I improved tremendously. At first I was worried about getting smashed by the other team, but as the season went on, I wanted to smash the ball at the other team. In the next couple of years, we will be awesome." -Sophomore Jeremy Schipp

"I feel that the year went exceptionally well for me. My best game was when I played Tecumseh." -Sophomore Bryant Allen

Girls Cross Country

Young but determined the girls cross country team did an exceptional job this season. The team finished with a record of 53 wins and only 25 losses. Because there were no seniors, leadership for this young team came from juniors, Alicia Jahn and Sherry Lueken. Coach Schulthies stated, "The season went very well. The girls showed they could run well and enjoy doing it."

Alicia Jahn was the top runner for the team. She won the MVP, mental attitude, and practice queen awards. Alicia finished number one for the team in every meet. Mary Merkel won outstanding freshman/sophomore. Mary had a great steady improvement over last year. Also Alicia Jahn, Mary Merkel, Aimee Stetter, Jaime Brosmer, and Angie Hemmerlein made the All-Conference team.

The best effort by the whole team was at Sectional which was at Jasper. The girls tied with Jasper for first, but due to the tiebreaker they finished second. At Regional, they finished fourth which led them on to Semi-State at Bloomington. This was only the second time in our school's history that a girls cross country team was represented at Semi-State.

Running Towards a Great Finish

Boys Cross Country

At the beginning of the 1991 Cross Country season, Coach Betz and the team had two major goals. First, they wanted to improve throughout the whole season, and second, at the end of the season, they wanted to be the best they could be.

Coach Betz commented that the team's highlights were winning the Paoli Invitational, the Sectional championship, and returning to the Semi-State. This year the team had three outstanding runners who made the All-Conference team: Seniors Chad Englert, Tony Danhafer, and Aaron Simpson. The team finished with a 121-21 record for the season.

He would also like to thank all of the seniors for their hard work and leadership throughout the season and during the past four years. And also a very special thanks to all of the parents who were there to support the team. Coach Betz said, "I really enjoyed working with the team this year."

Varsity Volleyball

Coach Debbie Gladish was very optimistic going into the season, but the team faced a lot of good competition and had some team dissension. Though the team did not have a winning season, they did beat Springs Valley which was a great feat. Senior Jill Schroering made the All-Conference team, which has been very difficult for a Dubois player to accomplish. The team ended the season with a 5-16 record and the desire to keep improving for a better season next year. Junior Tina Reckelhoff came away with the most improved player award. Senior Jill Schroering was awarded the mental attitude award as well as the defense and spiking awards. Jill shared the serving award with senior Michelle Kluesner. Junior April Hall earned the award for the most assists.

Senior night was one to remember. This year's team consisted of six seniors, four of which played on the Varsity team, one student manager, and one exchange student from Colombia who played on the J.V. team. The seniors will be missed but Coach Gladish is very optimistic that the hard work this year of the junior varsity team will pay off and strengthen next year's varsity team. The season began with a win against West Washington and ended with a loss to Forest Park in the Sectional at Jasper.

J.V. Volleyball

The junior varsity coach, Karen Acuff, commented "The team was coming along and to remember that the season's record didn't reflect the matches that were well played and the close scores. Despite the low number in players and various injuries, the team did the best they could. With continued hard work and an increased sense of teamwork, the girls will be a strong support for the varsity team." Everyone enjoyed having Catalina Navarro, the foreign exchange student from Colombia, on the team. The girls really appreciated getting to know her. Catalina learned a lot about organized sports in the U.S. since it's totally different in Colombia.

One of the goals of the J.V. squad was to condition harder and to incorporate plyometric exercises and varied structured drills into their practice. Freshman Mary Sue Linne received the serving and spiking awards.

Girls J.V. Basketball

The 1991-92 girls J.V. basketball team ended the season with a 9-9 season. The season began with a win against Paoli, followed by a variation of wins and losses against other area schools. This enabled the team to keep their team spirit up. The J.V. basketball team ended the year with high hopes for next year.

"The J.V. team began the season with little playing experience. However, they improved steadily throughout the season, working hard on individual skills and team play. Their willingness to work hard and improve made the season enjoyable," commented Coach Beth Seger.

She further stated, "With the improvements made at the J.V. level, and with summer playing time, this team has the potential to become strong, competitive players on the varsity level."

The most improved award went to Jaime Brosmer and the rebounding award went to Heather Wortinger.

Girls Varsity Basketball

The 1991-92 Lady Jeeps had a good season, despite having a very young team. "Their record of eight wins and ten losses could have been better, had they won some of their close games," commented Coach Mills. He also added that what they lacked in experience, they made up for with hard work, desire, and dedication.

Although the team had only two seniors, Jill and Christine Schroering, and three juniors, the younger freshmen and sophomores played key roles and made some good improvements throughout the year.

A sectional win was one of many goals the team tried to achieve throughout the year, and although they didn't bring home the crown, each put forth their best effort. The team did come away with a win in the Paoli Tourney. The Jeeps competed along with three other teams. In this tourney Jill Schroering was the leading scorer for the Lady Jeeps.

There were some school records that were broken this basketball season. Senior Jill Schroering set a new school record for scoring 38 points in a single game. The previous record of 33 points was shared by Mindy Neukam and Charlotte Reuber. Junior Karen Kalb set a new record for most assists in a single game.

Awards night was one to remember with senior Jill Schroering being awarded Most Valuable Player and the Rebounding Award. Junior Karen Kalb came away with the Assists and Most Improved awards. Senior Christine Schroering led the team with the highest freethrow percentage and was also given the defensive award. Freshman Mary Sue Linne led the team with the highest field goal percentage. Sophomore Mary Merkel was recognized as the most outstanding freshman-sophomore.

Good Sportsmanship

Freshman Basketball

The 1991-92 freshman basketball team started off slowly. The team started the season off with a two point loss to Perry Central. "We did not have very many wins, but overall, I think we improved in the basics of the game. The freshman team did show some improvement and worked hard all year long. The team's efforts were great. The team worked hard in practice and on the court during the games. The freshman team now has a better understanding of the motion defense as the year has now ended.

Overall, the freshman team did a great job," commented second year coach Rob Haworth.

Even though the freshman team did not have many wins, they always displayed good sportsmanship and did a great job in representing their school.

Working Hard

JV Boys Basketball

"The season started off slowly, but the team kept working," commented coach Rick Gladish. They turned things around the second half of the season and won eight out of their last eleven games. In their tourney played at Southridge, they lost in an overtime to Southridge with a score of 28-35. The team consisted of seven sophomores and one freshman. The most exciting game played this season was at North Harrison. The game went into overtime and Dubois won the game with a final score of 38-37.

Basketball awards were achieved by sophomore Derick Stenftenagel, who received the most improved and rebounding awards. Sophomore Jason Knies received the freethrow award.

The junior varsity team worked well together as a team, learned a lot, and are ready for next season to begin. The boys finished their season with a record of nine wins and ten losses.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

The 1991-92 season for the Jeeps in basketball showed a steady improvement of the second half of the season. Senior leadership was handled by Michael Cave and Aaron Simpson, as the only two seniors to finish on the varsity team. Student managers were Jeremy Schepers and Jarrod Beck. Videotaping was handled by Ryan Breitwieser and Kent Buechler. Coaches Mr. Mathies and Mr. Gladish gave the team the techniques for improving their record for the season.

Although the Jeeps started off with a win against Crawford, the Jeeps seemed to go downhill for a few games. Midway through the season, the Jeeps made a comeback and started pulling off wins. This may be associated with the players, junior Kevin Kalb and sophomore Rodney Wolf. Kalb had an average of 14 points a game and a 73% freethrow average. Wolf averaged 12 points a game along with a 55% average at the freethrow line. If you look at the Jeeps record for the season (8-13), a lot of the losses were very close, yet not close enough to win. The award winners for the boys basketball team were as follows: Michael Cave - MVP, Freethrow, Defense, and Charlie Skaggs Mental Attitude Award; Kevin Kalb - Rebounding Assists and Leading Scorer Awards; Derrick Stenftenagel - Most Improved (Varsity) and Rebounding (JV); Rodney Wolf - Outstanding Frosh-Soph Award; and Jason Knies - JV Freethrow Award.

Striving for School Spirit

Cheerleaders

Congratulations goes to the varsity cheerleaders for showing their spirit and capturing the spirit stick at the Vincennes Summer Cheerleaders' Camp.

The varsity cheerleaders, along with the other two squads, made their goals to increase school spirit. They started off the year with reinstating the Pep Club, organizing fan buses to the away games, and painting signs for many athletic events. The cheerleaders conducted a mini cheerleader clinic at NDHS for middle and elementary students interested in improving their cheerleading skills. Their fundraiser consisted of selling sweatshirts and t-shirts with new jeep designs. The cheerleaders also had time to do freeze modeling at the Jasper Wal-mart during sectional week. The cheerleaders worked all year round to promote school spirit and in order to help defray the cost of new uniforms. The cheerleaders set up a lemonade stand at the Haysville Sommerfest. The cheerleaders were also helped by seniors Chad Brinkman and Tony Danhafer and sophomores Byron Fuhrman and Brian Kluesner as lifters. One unique thing about the three varsity senior girls was that they have been cheerleaders together since the fifth grade. The Darryl Friedman Outstanding Cheerleader Award went to Dionne Meredith.

Girls Tennis

The NDHS Girls Tennis Team had a record of eleven wins and three losses during their regular season. The season record after the sectional at Jasper was eleven wins and four losses. The girls won the Blue Chip Conference title with a five win and no loss record. The number one singles player, senior Christine Schroering and the number one doubles team of sophomore Tracy Meyer and junior Tina Reckelhoff made the Blue Chip All-Conference team. Christine Schroering remained the number one singles player all season. Tracy Meyer and Tina Reckelhoff were the number one doubles players throughout the season. There were a total of thirteen girls on the team. The team was young this year with four freshmen and only two seniors.

"This tennis season had its ups and downs. Since this was my last year, I held high expectations. It was an overall good season being conference champions once again. There is a lot of hidden talent on this young team, and I hope they receive more support in the years to follow." - senior Christine Schroering

Boys Golf

The 1991-92 golf team had a season of ill fortune. The team consisted of one senior, one junior, and two sophomores. Some members had arrangements made to go on a trip to France in June 1992. Thus, the team unfortunately had only two members, senior Jeremy Seger and sophomore Daniel Hall, participate in the Sectional at Jasper. The loss of two members also caused the team not to attend the Blue Chip Conference because of the required four-member team.

Awards went to Jeremy Seger-Most Valuable Player, Bryant Allen-Most Improved, Daniel Hall-Mental Attitude, and Scott Sendelweck-Fairway Award. After completing the golf sectional at Jasper, the putting award went to sophomore Daniel Hall and Jeremy Seger earned the Green's and Regulation Award.

"Even though we hoped to win a match, I think the season was a success because everyone did their best and had a good time. I wish next year's golf team the best of luck. Also I'd like to thank Mr. Mills and Mr. Stallman for all their help." -senior Jeremy Seger

A Record Breaking Year

Girls Track

The 1992 Girls Track team had 18 girls, which was the biggest team that they've ever had. There were school records broken by: senior Jill Schroering in the shot put and discus, and sophomore Jaime Brosmer in the 3200 meter run. Jill Schroering also got first place in discus at the Sectional and third at Regional to advance to the State Finals. Jill was named All-Conference in the shot put and discus as was Alicia Jahn in the 800 m and the 1600 m runs. "The highlights for the year were when the team finished second in the Forest Park Inv., Southridge Inv., Dubois Relays, and Blue Chip Conference," commented coach Tammy Schulthies. This is the first time that five team members qualified for the Regional at Evansville Central. They were Jill Schroering-discus, Alicia Jahn-800m, Sherry Lueken-100m high hurdles, Jaime Brosmer-3200m, and Mary Sue Linne-discus.

"The future track teams look good. Also my special memories were that everyone on the team improved," commented Tammy Schulthies.

"The '92 season was the most enjoyable for me. This was the most unified team that I've ever been a part of and no matter what kind of performances were given almost everyone was an animal on the inside. That's what's important!" - senior Kerri Mehringer

"This year was a great season. Everyone came together as a team. Especially around conference and sectional time when it mattered. There were also a lot of great individual performances as well. And I wish the best of luck to the '93 team." - senior Jon Merkel

Conditioned to Win

Boys Track

The 1992 boys track team had thirty-one members of which eight were seniors. There were some school records set. Kerri Mehringer broke his own record in the high hurdles with a time of 14.75. Kerri also broke Rod Hemmerlein's low hurdle record with a time of 39.6. The shuttle hurdle record that was held by Brian Worthinger, Ryan Hall, Jon Merkel, and Kerri Mehringer was broken by Kerri Mehringer, Jon Merkel, Trevor Roach, and Josh Bolin with a time of 1:06.1. We also had a record number of regional qualifiers which was five out of six events. The five regional qualifiers were Chad Englert, Kerri

Mehringer, Rodney Wolf, Steve Petry, and Trevor Roach. Also, Trevor Roach and Kerri Mehringer made Blue Chip All Conference.

Coach Vic Betz said that this year's team had a slow start. They were rained out three of the first six meets. He thought the conditioning of the team was slow at first but peaked at the proper time which was for the Blue Chip Conference and Sectional. The highlights of the season were winning the Dubois Inv., placing second at the Dubois relays, getting third place at Blue Chip Conference (which was almost a perfect meet), and placing third at Sectional.

MOVING ON

Moving On. Many seniors thought they would never hear those words. However, on May 30, 1992 at 7:00 p.m., 68 seniors graduated from NDHS. All of us would experience many changes in the future. Over 60% of the seniors were headed off to college, while other were ready for the work force.

Father Donald Spaulding began the ceremony with a prayer. Then speeches from Salutatorian - Christine Schroering, Class President - Robin Merkel, and Valedictorian - Chris Bieker were read. The speeches consisted of memories, goodbyes, and thank yous. Robin Merkel also presented Catalina Navarro with a Jeep replica to remember the class of 1992. The song, "Wind Beneath My Wings" was sung by the show choir. Finally, Mr. Wahl and School Board President Larry Lorey presented the diplomas. The class of 1992 was as close as they had ever been as they walked out with tears in their eyes.

Below: Seated at Graduation, which started promptly at 7:00 p.m., May 30 is the class of 1992.
