PRESENTING

THE '60 CRUSADER

ST. FERDINAND HIGH SCHOOL

FERDINAND, INDIANA

OUR THEME

As you browse through this book, you will note the word "Crusader" appearing frequently. That is as we wish it to be, for we have chosen it as our theme word. During the course of this school year, we have been re-awakened to its beautiful meaning. People take too much in life for granted--teenagers, it seems, especially so. We at St. Ferdinand High School have taken our school nickname too much for granted, forgetting its true meaning. Many schools bear a nickname which is no longer part of a student when he leaves school. In our case it is different. We must be "cross-bearers"--Crusaders--not only through our school life but through all our life. We are grateful, therefore, to have this Crusader ideal re-vitalized for us.

OUR HOLY FATHER

To the world at large, the name "Pius" has almost become synonymous with "Holy Father," for we are so very familiar with Pius IX, X, XI, and XII. When, on October 28, 1958, a new pope was elected, taking the name John, we were surprised. We thought he had to be another Pius. Moreover, this man was a perfect stranger to many. Would he be able to fill the void in our hearts made by the death of Pius XII? But we should have known--the Holy Spirit always guides Holy Mother Church.

Pope John has gained for himself the highest respect from Catholic and non-Catholic alike. His fatherly solicitude for all, regardless of race, station, and creed, has endeared him to the whole world.

Historically speaking, Pope John will be remembered most for calling the Ecumenical Council of 1961. As Crusaders, we follow our leader, "The Crusader" of our day, with fervent prayers and loving devotion.

DEDICATION

Life is a continuous series of incidents--some rewarding and profitable, others not so. One such incident is coming in contact with other people, for by so doing a change is brought about in us. Throughout our high school days, we have come in contact with many persons who have changed us for the better and who have prepared us for our coming Crusade through life. To God, teachers, and friends we here say, "Thank You."

But as we, the Seniors of 1960, have spent our last year at St. Ferdinand High, there is one who has spent her first of many, we hope, at our school. In one year's contact with her, we have been aided to an extent which we cannot fully realize at the present time. She has already truly caught the Crusader Spirit--being interested in everything from our attendance at Mass and excelling in our studies to beating Mater Dei. In coming to St. Ferdinand, she has brought with her many ideas which have not only changed us for the better, but which will continue to bring forth ever better graduates of St. Ferdinand High.

We therefore dedicate the '60 CRUSADER to you, Sister Mary Victor, for your guidance, your enthusiasm, and your sure-spoken words which have helped us through our last year of high school.

FACULTY

The dedicated faculty of St. Ferdinand High has been an invaluable aid in launching the students on their great crusade through life. By their teaching they have armed their pupils with the sword of knowledge and the shield of truth. All of them, through their guidance and supervision, but more by their example and whole-hearted giving of themselves, have convinced us to believe in the future. By remembering them and following their example, we would do well to dedicate our lives, as they already have done, to whatever lies ahead in the challenge of our coming crusade.

We are the "Senior" Crusaders of St. Ferdinand High. . . Like the Crusaders of old, we take delight in victory. . . Our victory, however, is not one over a foe but over ourselves, climaxing in the attainment of a high-school diploma. And yet we realize that an even greater victory must be ours before we can consider ourselves true conquerors; namely, the victory of a life well-lived. . . Grateful thanks to our sacrificing parents and to our teachers for helping us to grow up and to attain our goal. . . Many cherished memories of the past four years will live on through the years. . . class parties. . . fund-raising projects. . . assemblies. . . musicals. . . Senior play. . . Senior trip. . . being a class officer. The Seniors' choice for this year was Joe Olinger as Vice-President, Leon Niehaus, President; Mary Magdalen Lampert, Secretary; Allen Greenwell, Treasurer; all pictured above.

Juniors!! . . . What a thrill to be upperclassmen! . . . and we reached that "upper bracket" faster than we thought. Our class representatives; namely, the offices, are Tom Vaal, President; George Boeglin, Vice-President; Sue Backer, Treasurer; Gene Begle, Secretary. We have enjoyed our year . . . beginning each day with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass . . . working together in the classroom . . . deadlines on term papers to be met . . . chemistry equations to be solved . . . shorthand outlines to be mastered. The satisfaction of work well done gave us a thrill. But we experienced thrills outside the classroom as well . . . class jackets, . . . class rings, . . . the Ferdinand-Jasper basketball game . . . Junior-Senior Banquet and most of all the thrill of knowing that we'll all be together again in fall . . . as SENIORS.

We are last, of course. . .the baby Crusaders. . .yes, the Freshmen. Pictured above are just a few of us. . .our officers, Brenda Hagedorn, President; Donna Mehringer, Vice-President; Brenda Lubbers, Secretary; and Ernest Brames, Treasurer. What an experience, our first year in high school. . .We had to acquaint ourselves with so many new teachers, with students from seven different schools and with a more difficult course of studies, Locker combinations. . .tardy slips. . .admit slips. . .library fines. . .oh, what headaches. But we survived, thanks to our teachers who saw us through our little battles. Much time and effort were spent in building a firm foundation on which to erect the remaining three years of our high school studies. We hope our edifice will not topple before we have reached our four-year goal. . .Mighty Crusaders. . .for God. . .for our community. . .and for our school.

STUDIES

To be truly good Crusaders, we must prepare ourselves religiously, educationally, socially, and physically. How better could we do so than by participating fully in the curriculum outlined by the school through its principal and its teachers. In the following pages you will see us at work in the various departments, all of which will aid us in our future careers.

Stanley Jacob, Bob Boehman, and Ken Jasper, CBA contest winners.

These second year Latin students must have found a joke in Caesar.

German became a part of our curriculum this year under the capable teaching of Sister Damian. The students at the right are enjoying a German folk song. Could it be Schnitzelbank? You guessed it!

In an effort to fulfill the purpose of Catholic Book Week to interest our people in reading Catholic books or those morally Catholic in tone, various contests were held during CBW, 1960. Prizes were the winner's choice of any Teen Age Book Club (TAB) selection.

Our TAB Clubs have done much to foster a greater love for reading among S. F. H. students. During this year more than 1768 books were purchased besides the almost 400 earned as dividends, AND THEY ARE READ! Some library copies have been read eight or ten times.

Mary Ann Durcholz gained recognition for herself by winning an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C. Her essay, "What Rural Electrification Means to My Community," was judged the best in this area.

L A N G U A G E S

"Who, which, or that--which one is correct?" asks Sister Mary Dominic of her Junior English class. Ever more readily students will agree that one does not fit socially and culturally unless he can speak and write well. Much credit goes to the English Department for the fine work being accomplished in the various classes.

GOVERNMENT

"Now, let me think," queries Father Simon in his Senior Government class. The expression on Paul Wollenmann's face says, "It's this way, Father."

HOMEMAKING

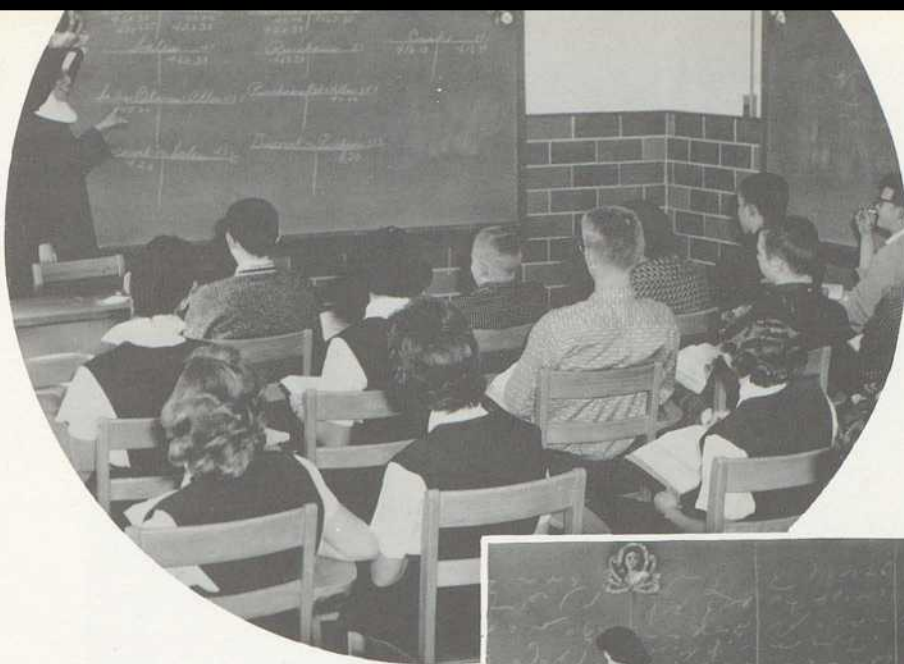

The Sophomore girls learn the proper techniques for measuring and cutting patterns.

Mary Magdalen Lampert, SFHS's recipient of the 1960 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award.

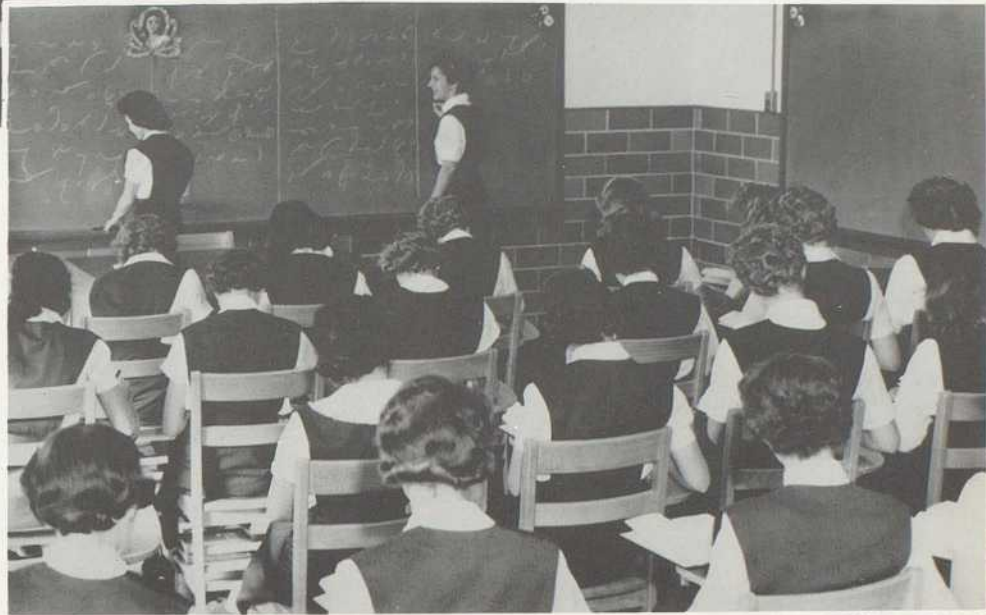

High school girls are not fully educated until they have mastered the art of homemaking. Sister Damian does not leave one stone unturned in her attempt to make masters of her students in this all-important art. A complete program is offered in this field, ranging from the basic fundamentals to child care and family living.

Bookkeeping students learn that the Sales Returns and Allowances account is debited, that Purchase Returns and Allowances is credited.

The business world is always looking for stenographers who can type well, who can spell, who know their shorthand and who have a sense of responsibility.

To bring forth such girls is the aim of our business department, under the direction of Sister Mary Carmin, S. F. H. S. graduates have proven themselves satisfactory employees in various business firms.

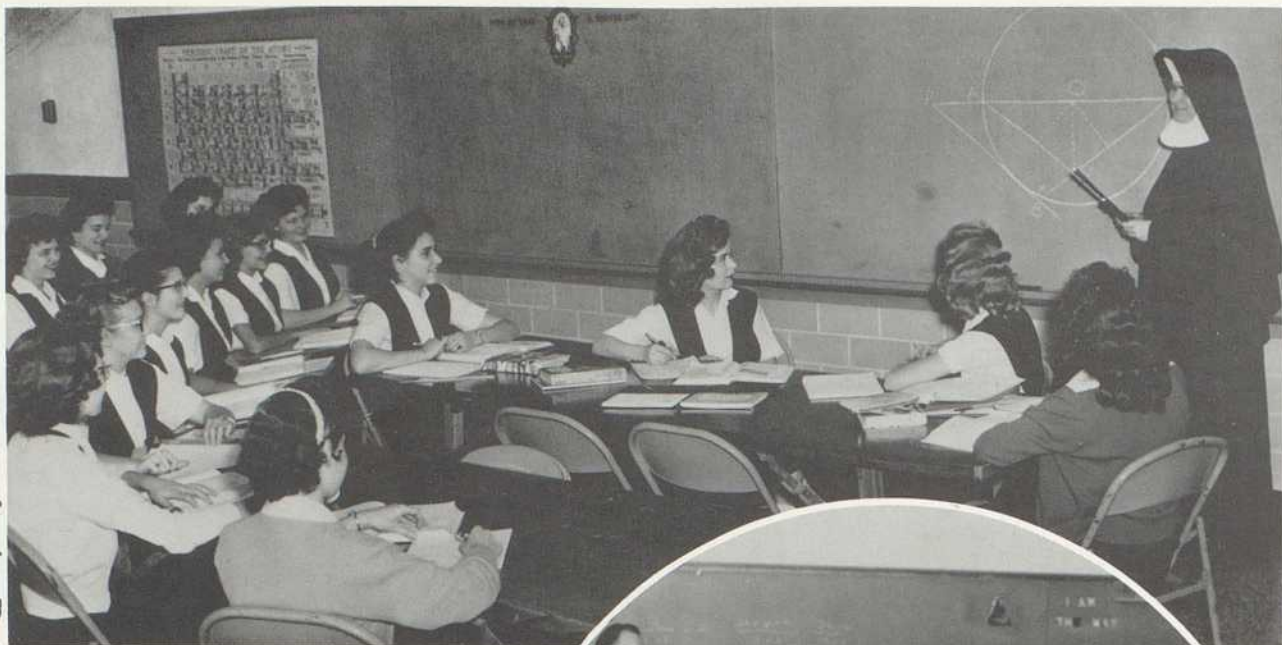

Agnes Tretter and Jeanne Ebert, members of the first-year shorthand class, take delight in their ability to take dictation.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The Senior typing class learns the importance of good placement, neat carbon copies, and accurate tabulations.

Sister Francesca demonstrates a geometric proof to her girls' geometry class. MaryEllen doesn't know whether to believe it or not.

MATH

"Algebraic equations are really not so difficult," Mr. LaGrange tells the Freshmen.

Norman Mehling points out one stage in the development of life in Mr. Evrard's general science class.

BIOLOGY

The Sophs demonstrate intestinal fortitude as they bravely reveal the contents of "Mr. Cat."

What interesting things can be discovered under the powerful eye of a microscope.

It doesn't take a thinking man long to realize the tremendous role science is playing in our modern-day world. Spacemen are no longer fantastic characters in funny books--they are becoming an actuality. Electronics, satellites, missiles--these words have become part of our everyday language. Our youth must be equipped to enter our science-minded world, and this places an important duty upon every school. But upon the catholic school is placed an additional responsibility--that of giving the Almighty His rightful place in a scientific world. The student must be made conscious of the fact that science cannot be divorced from religion.

CHEMISTRY

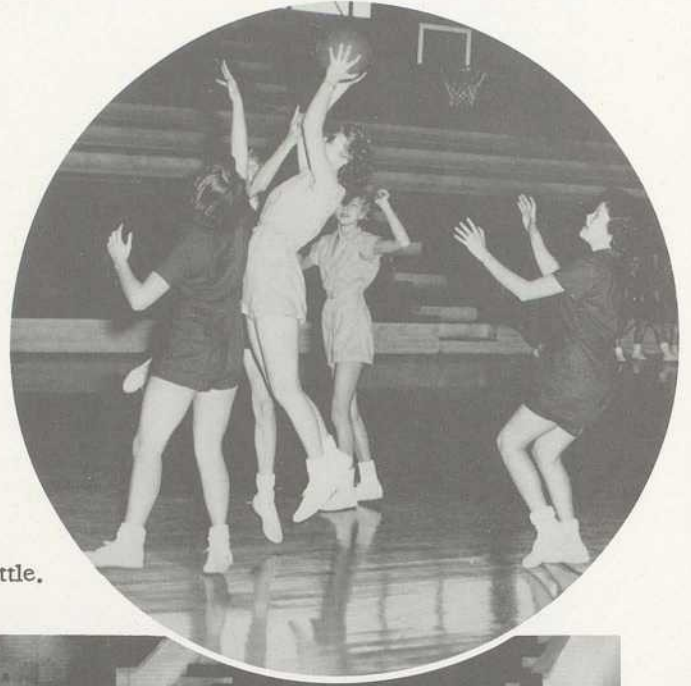

Group participation has found its way into the Science Department. These Juniors and Seniors are fascinated by the experiments in Mr. Wahl's and Sister Francesca's classes.

Mr. Tieken took no chances. He makes certain that the biology class learn the technique of artificial respiration.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Sophs versus Frosh--quite a battle.

"A sound mind in a healthy body,"--much truth is contained in this old adage. It is the purpose of our Physical Education Department to develop healthy bodies so that a sound mind can function properly. Sister Mary Claude keeps the girls actively engaged in calisthenics, softball, basketball, and volleyball. To keep them on the alert, she intersperses their play time with tests on the rules learned.

Now where did that ball go?

GLEE CLUB AND MUSIC CONTESTANTS

There was much excitement among the SFHS music contestants at the Evansville regional for they carried one of the highest percentages of first-division ratings there. At the left are shown Dan Peters, Mike Hubers, and Don Hagedorn, who took first with their cornet trio; and Phyllis Werne, Mary Margaret Peters, and Teddy Sue Werne, flute trio.

More blue ribbon winners were the seniors pictured at the right: Nancy Oser, bass clarinet; Bernard Weyer, alto saxophone; Dan Wendholt, cornet; Patty Lueken and Brenda Lubbers were the accompanists. Patty took first in both her cornet and piano solos, but since she was in Class D, could not compete in the state contest.

The Freshmen presented a skit "Who's the Dummy?" at their assembly preceding the Ireland ballgame. Several girls added spirit to the assembly by posing as Hillbillies.

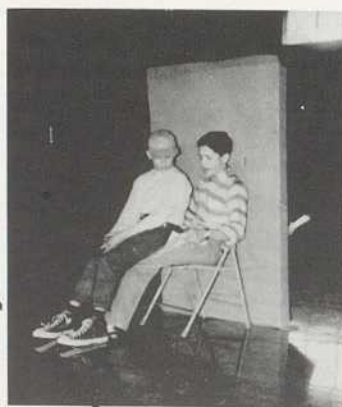

For the Christmas assembly the Freshmen gave a choral presentation of the scriptures concerning the Birth of Christ. It included prophecies of His coming as well as their fulfillment through the major events in the Gospels; namely the Annunciation, the Visitation, the Birth of Christ, and the coming of the Magi.

At the Senior Basketball Assembly, Slenderella McGillyguddy and Prissy Johnson were tried and convicted of showing unloyal support to the Crusaders. Slenderella was sentenced to report to the coach before all games and Prissy was ordered to keep the official score at games.

JUNIORS

The Junior Assembly was held in December. They portrayed very well the true spirit of sportsmanship that should be found in every basketball team.

The Sophomores entertained the student body with their assembly in January. They tried to find the disloyal fan who had predicted a Blackhawk victory over the Mighty Crusaders. They succeeded and of course the student explained that it was but a slight misunderstanding and was granted a pardon.

SOPHOMORES

BLIES

"The Robe" is the story of a great adventure of the spirit in which a young man, through a terrific experience, finds faith and a meaning for his life. Marcellus, a Roman officer, has been exiled, and it becomes his duty to crucify a Galilean called Jesus. The officers toss dice for the garments worn by the Galilean, and Marcellus gains possession of them. Being confronted more and more with the strange robe which seems to have a mysterious power, a miracle is wrought in Marcellus. At last finding peace within himself he turns ever more to the Galilean but hesitates to accept him as divine until his eyes are opened.

THE ROBE

"Marcellus has a decision to make, which affects not only himself, but you and Caligula as well. So I thought it only fitting that you be here when he tells us his pleasure."

"I'll read this in private, Quintus, and prepare my reply. You may wait or you may return for it, as you prefer."

"Were--were you--out there--sir?"

"Thanks to our physician, Sarpedon, we have captured one of these Christians who seem bent on overturning our government."

CHRISTMAS QUEEN

Pretty, blue-eyed Senior, Lula Hagedorn, was chosen by her fellow students to represent St. Ferdinand High in the annual Christmas Parade held at Huntingburg on December 5. Lula reigned for one glorious day and received many lovely gifts from the sponsoring merchants. Many of our students accompanied Miss Hagedorn at the parade, adding to the festivities which we're sure our Queen will never forget.

HI-FI SOCK - HOP

The pre-Lenten Mardi Gras Hi-Fi Sock-Hop held in our gym on March 1 proved to be a most entertaining evening for our students. Jerry Birge, WITZ's Disc Jockey, spun the platters for the evening. A number of prizes were awarded the students, the Grand Prize, a Kodak camera, going to Jane Olinger.

Socks in review!

Fred Leinenbach, A Sophomore and Bernice Oser, Freshman, received the awards for the prize-winning socks of the evening.

The big grins of Dan Peters, left, and Irma Jean Dall, below, give us an idea of the good time the Sock-Hop gave the student body.

Sam Fischer and Sandy Haas, both Sophs, reigned as King and Queen at the Valentine Dance sponsored by the Senior class.

IN APPRECIATION

We, the Crusader Staff, on behalf of the Senior Class of 1960, wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to Sister Mary Carmin, our yearbook advisor. She has devoted much of her time helping us outline and plan our '60 CRUSADER. Without her faithful service to us, we could not have produced as fine a book as we expect this to be when it comes "off the press" this summer.

A special "thank you," Sister Mary Carmin, for all you have done for us. We are indeed grateful.

SPORTS

The Mighty Crusaders enter and are given an enthusiastic welcome by loyal fans during the Huntingburg Sectional.

Tension mounts as the game progresses.

A final victory for the Blue and Gold over the Otwell Millers.

Not only in the realm of religion and studies do the SFHS students show themselves Crusaders, but in sports as well. Our team, bearing the title of CRUSADERS, was one of which we were justly proud. They took their share of defeats, we know, but they also brought us not a few memorable victories. The Tell City-Ferdinand News Trophy found its way back into our trophy case. The wins over Dale and Rockport were great thrillers. But the climax of the season came at sectional time. Who could forget the Jasper-Ferdinand clash. We suffered defeat, yes, but what a glorious defeat it was. Sincere congratulations to our MIGHTY CRUSADERS.

Words of advice for the varsity as action begins.

You'll have to jump a little higher, Dave.

Our cheerleaders for 1960 were, as pictured below, Stan Fischer, Jim Ebert, Jerry Douglas and Butch Olinger. These boys were the backbone of our cheering section and certainly the finest cheerleaders to come forth from S. F. H. S.

A special tribute goes to Senior, Jim Ebert, for his all-out effort to arouse enthusiasm in the fans during his two years as cheerleader. To Jim, and the returning cheerleaders, we wish to express our hearty thanks for the time and effort they have put forth during the 1960 Basketball Season.

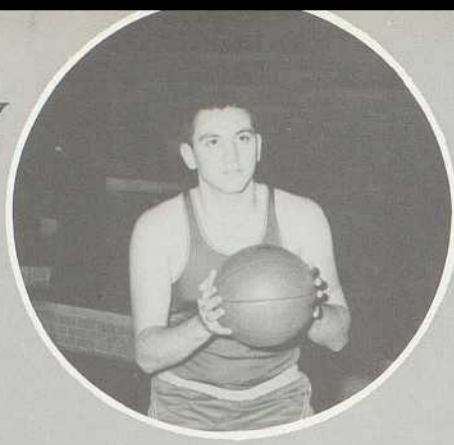

But boys, where's the ball?

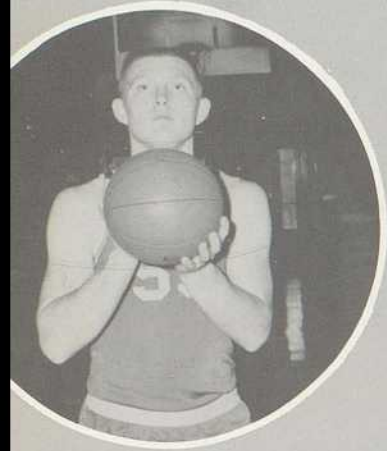

You've got that ball, now go.

MARTY

Leon "Marty" Niehaus, 6'3" Crusader forward, has broken every scoring record previously held in the short eight-year existence of SFHS. Marty broke the career scoring record previously held by Leon Wendholt, a graduate of 1954. Niehaus scored 880 points as compared to Wendholt's 804, besting the old mark by 76 points. Dennis "Turkey" Durcholz, class of '57, set the single-game scoring record in February of '57 by pouring in 34 points against English. Niehaus came back three years later in February of '60 and again turned loose against English with 35 markers, thus breaking the old record by a single point. Perhaps the record which shows best Marty's ability on the hardwood is his single-season record, scoring 532 points as compared to 378 for Durcholz.

Leon was awarded the Chamber of Commerce Sportsmanship Trophy (picture at left); was unanimously voted the outstanding player in the Patoka Valley Conference, thus receiving another trophy; was voted the most valuable player in the Huntingburg Sectional by the newspaper editors in the area; and was selected to Indiana's Southern All-Star Team.

Having been offered many scholarships, Marty has accepted the one from Loyola University of New Orleans.

Arad McCutchan, coach of Evansville College's Aces, was the guest speaker at the basketball banquet held in our school cafeteria on February 22.

Tuffy Schipp looks a bit exhausted as Joe Verkamp takes over.

Every sport in every school has its outstanding man, Marty Niehaus is our basketball "great." But we have also discovered an excellent track man in our Junior class--the versatile Joe Verkamp. Running in six individual events, he captured five blue ribbons and one second. We are expecting even greater things next year. The Sophomore boys too, have exhibited fine running ability.

Tom Vaal and Joe Verkamp crossing the low hurdles.

Keith Steczyk has a determined look as he receives the baton from Elmer Vaal.

RECOLLECTION DAY

Father Eric is shown celebrating Holy Mass and distributing Holy Communion to the boys. The high school gym has been the scene of daily Mass all through the school year. The picture below shows Father in conference with the girls.

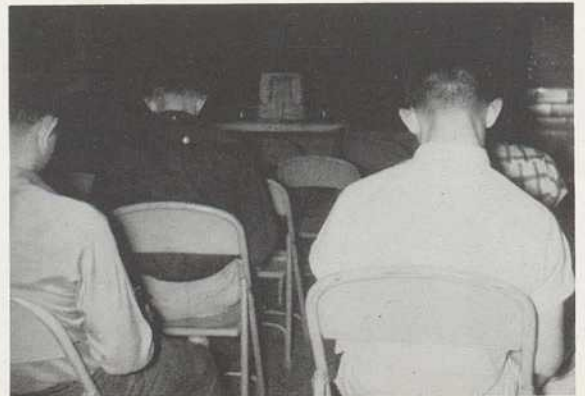

An atmosphere of peace and quiet prevailed on Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week--the annual retreat days. This year, for the first time, Tuesday was set aside for the boys only; Wednesday for the girls, which eliminated the congestion felt in past years, as well as fostered a more prayerful spirit.

Father Eric Lies, O. S. B., of St. Meinrad Archabbey, proved a wonderful retreat master, giving the students much food for thought and good reason for some hearty laughs.

Private reading -- an important feature of the day's schedule.

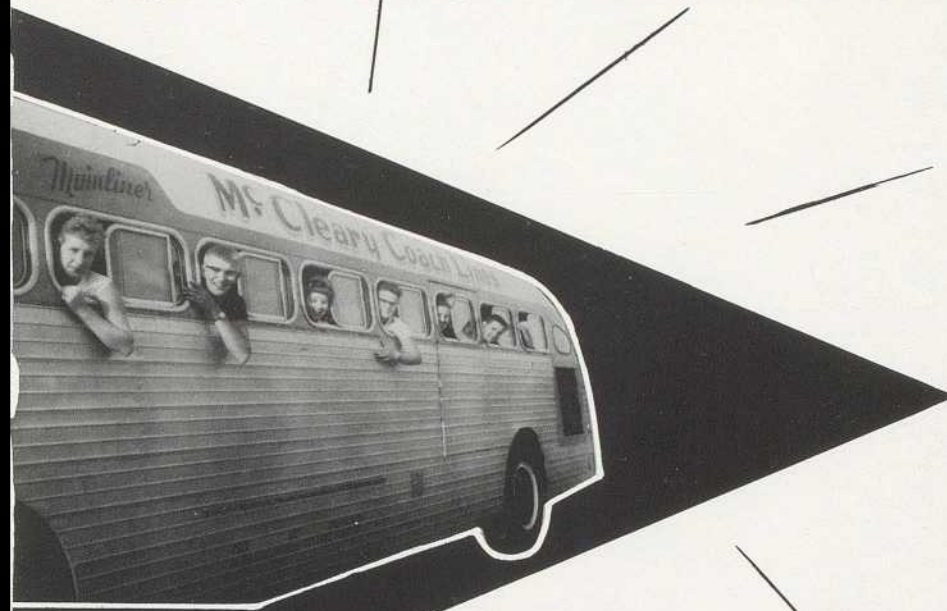

Students spend time before the Blessed Sacrament. They were delighted to have this privilege.

SCENES FROM SHAKAMAK

The evening of Wednesday, May 4, found a group of 53 tired, sun-burned and sleepy Seniors returning from Shakamak State Park, where they spent a most enjoyable ten hours. The group was accompanied by three faculty members; namely, Sr. Mary Carmin, OSB, Sr. Mary Boniface, OSB, and Mr. LaGrange.

JUNIOR-SENIOR-FACULTY

The bright blush of Paul Wollenmann and the paling of Marilyn Vonderheide contrastingly showed the surprise of these two Seniors when their names were called as Emperor and Empress of the evening. This honor was accorded them as a result of secret balloting by the Junior Class.

The high school cafeteria was aglow with fun and excitement from 7 to 11 p.m., April 28, as the Juniors hosted the Seniors and the Faculty at the traditional Junior-Senior Faculty Banquet. The "Sayonara" theme--Japanese for "farewell" was carried out to perfection, including everything from "Fortune cookies" and fans to a "tea house". The Seniors' complete satisfaction and gratitude to the Juniors were manifested by the many "oohs" and "ahs" heard during the course of the evening.

Willie Bartley and his Orchestra.

"All this and chicken, too!"

BANQUET

The faces of Paul, Mary Magdalen, Bernie, Ray, and Tom say, "We're having a gala time." But who are the remaining partners?

SAYONARA

Nancy, MaryEllen, Dorothy and her partner, Elsie and Mary Ann are busy "cutting the rug" while the stag line is occupied with the autographing of "Sayonara" memory books.

Nancy Oser, Dorothy Helming, and Linda Werne return to their pew after receiving Holy Communion at the graduation Mass. After Mass, the graduates were honored with a breakfast by the D of L. Susan Buechler and the Wollenmann Trio, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Senninger, furnished the entertainment.

Fifty-two young men and women of the seventh graduating class of S. F. H. S. received their diplomas on Sunday, May 15, from Bishop Grimmelsman.

OF 1960

Fr. Morley
 Commencement Speaker

Allen Greenwell, Student Speaker

Dearest Mother, you have watched over the years of my education. True Mother that you are, you are pleased that I have finished my course. May I lay my diploma at your feet? May I offer you the years that have been completed? May I ask you to be happy with me in the happiness of commencement day?

Dear Mother, the work of life lies ahead. My success will be of deepest concern to you. You will be watching me, guiding me, advising me, sympathizing with me, blessing me, congratulating me. All this I believe, and all this I ask.

Guide me to companionship that will make me know that I am among your beloved children. Lead me to a partner who is like myself--a child of Mary. Ward off temptations that might prove too strong for me.

Obtain for me that measure of success in life that will make glad your motherly heart and insure my eternal joy with you in heaven.

Dear Mother, my thanks for your sweetness and generosity during the days of my education.

Dear queen, lead me safely through life so that in the end I may . . . feel around me your welcoming maternal arms.

Daniel A. Lord, S. J.
