Dedicated . . .

To This Our Community

As we Seniors leave the friendly halls of S.F.H.S. for the last time, we take with us an album of memories never to be forgotten. We have had our laughs and perhaps a tear or two, but all of them went toward making us educated young men and women who will proudly bear the title "Crusader" for the remainder of our lives.

In these turbulent times when materialism is too often substituted for the real; spiritual values, we Seniors are most grateful for the privilege of having received a good Catholic education. Through it we learned not only the State's requirements but also God's requirements; not only chemical formulas but also God's formula for heaven.

And so it is that we wish to dedicate the '62 CRUSADER to the persons responsible for giving us this tremendous opportunity. Who is more responsible than you, the members of the community of Ferdinand, who have so generously contributed to the building of this Catholic institution? It is because of you that we go out into the world a little better prepared to meet problems that a mathematical equation could never solve.

Thus we ask you, the community of Ferdinand, to accept this dedication as a token of our sincere appreciation for all the sacrifices you have made to give us this advantage.

That Complete Statement Which Is Literature

--Virginia Woolf

"Books, like friends, should be few and well chosen." --Samuel Paterson.

Pictured on this introductory page are books, either long established or somewhat contemporary, to which students refer in their studies or simply read for moments of pleasure in the enjoyment of beauty.

Walt Whitman once said, "In the civilization of today it is undeniable that over all the arts, literature dominates, serves beyond all." It is for this reason that we have chosen as our theme literature, the teacher of life, love, and truth. Because of literature, our means of bridging the years, the privilege of knowing the minds of such great men as Cicero and Shakespeare has not been denied us.

Faculty

Real men and women are formed in many instances by the guidance of a dedicated faculty. Through the efforts of the teachers of St. Ferdinand High School we have been prepared for the day when we will begin our individual way of life. The religious, educational, social, and physical training that we students have received can be accredited only to the fine teaching staff that so eagerly served us. Let us hope that some day we will be able to repay all of those who helped us toward our goal.

Activities

The actions of men are like the index of a book; they point out what is most remarkable in them. . . . Happiness is in action and every power is intended for action; human happiness, therefore, can only be complete as the powers have their full and legitimate play.

Student Council Inaugurates Officers

The Student Council, under the leadership of Sister Mary Victor, launched a year full of activities beginning with an Inauguration Assembly. This first formal inauguration took place in fitting sobriety. David Schipp, Vice-President of the '60-61 council, swore in this year's President, Mary Ellen Keller, who in turn presided over the remainder of the assembly. Other officers to take their oaths were Edwin Tretter, Vice-President; Norma Schipp, Secretary; and James Fischer, Treasurer.

Music Students Take First Division

Much rejoicing took place on the bus as the music contestants returned from Evansville College on January 27. The girls' ensemble took 1st division with their song, "Ave Admirable Cor Jesu." The ensemble consisted of Betty Ebert, Eileen Bromm, Joan Schipp, Carol Hedinger, Antionette Vaal, Mary Lou Helming, Rebecca Knies, Rosalee Gudorf, and Judy Klumper.

The boys' ensemble singing "Winter Song" was the first boys' group from St. Ferdinand to bring home a 1st. Those participating were Ted Harpenau, Ralph Tretter, Dennis Laake, Larry Leinenbach, Robert Boehman, Keith Steczyk, Ralph Welp, Larry Kemper, and Robert Hedinger.

Judy Schneiders received a first division rating for her clarinet solo, "Malaguena."

More blue ribbons were won by Brenda Lubbers, Nancy Schum, Judy Schneiders, and Norma Schipp, the clarinet quartette, playing "Snowflakes."

The cornet trio composed of Mary Jo Hedinger, Pat Lueken, and Sharon Eckerle received blue ribbons for the playing of "March."

"Well if it isn't Hank Morris."

Senior Play

"Forever Albert," a light comedy, revolves around Ben Turner's career-minded daughters who are prodded on by their Uncle Albert. When Albert "borrows" $500 from the "hope jug" to buy a new organ, a crisis develops in the family. Ben threatens to tell Ellen that the money she has been saving to remodel the kitchen has been taken by her brother, Albert. This threat causes Albert, who has lived with the family for 25 years, "to try his wings in the cold world." He leaves for Broadway with a producer, Mr. Lucas, to write the score for a musical comedy.

"He sure is different looking, isn't he?"

"Benny, you look positively green."
"She kissed me."

The brawn and brains behind the scenes are Miriam Tretter, Phyllis Uebelhor, Frank Pund, Sam Fischer, and Ralph Welp.

Jim Begle, "you're not going to burn that scavenger hunt debris in here, are you?"

Lee Joe, are you really working or just preparing for the broom dance?

Where the boys aren't.

Bob, what form!

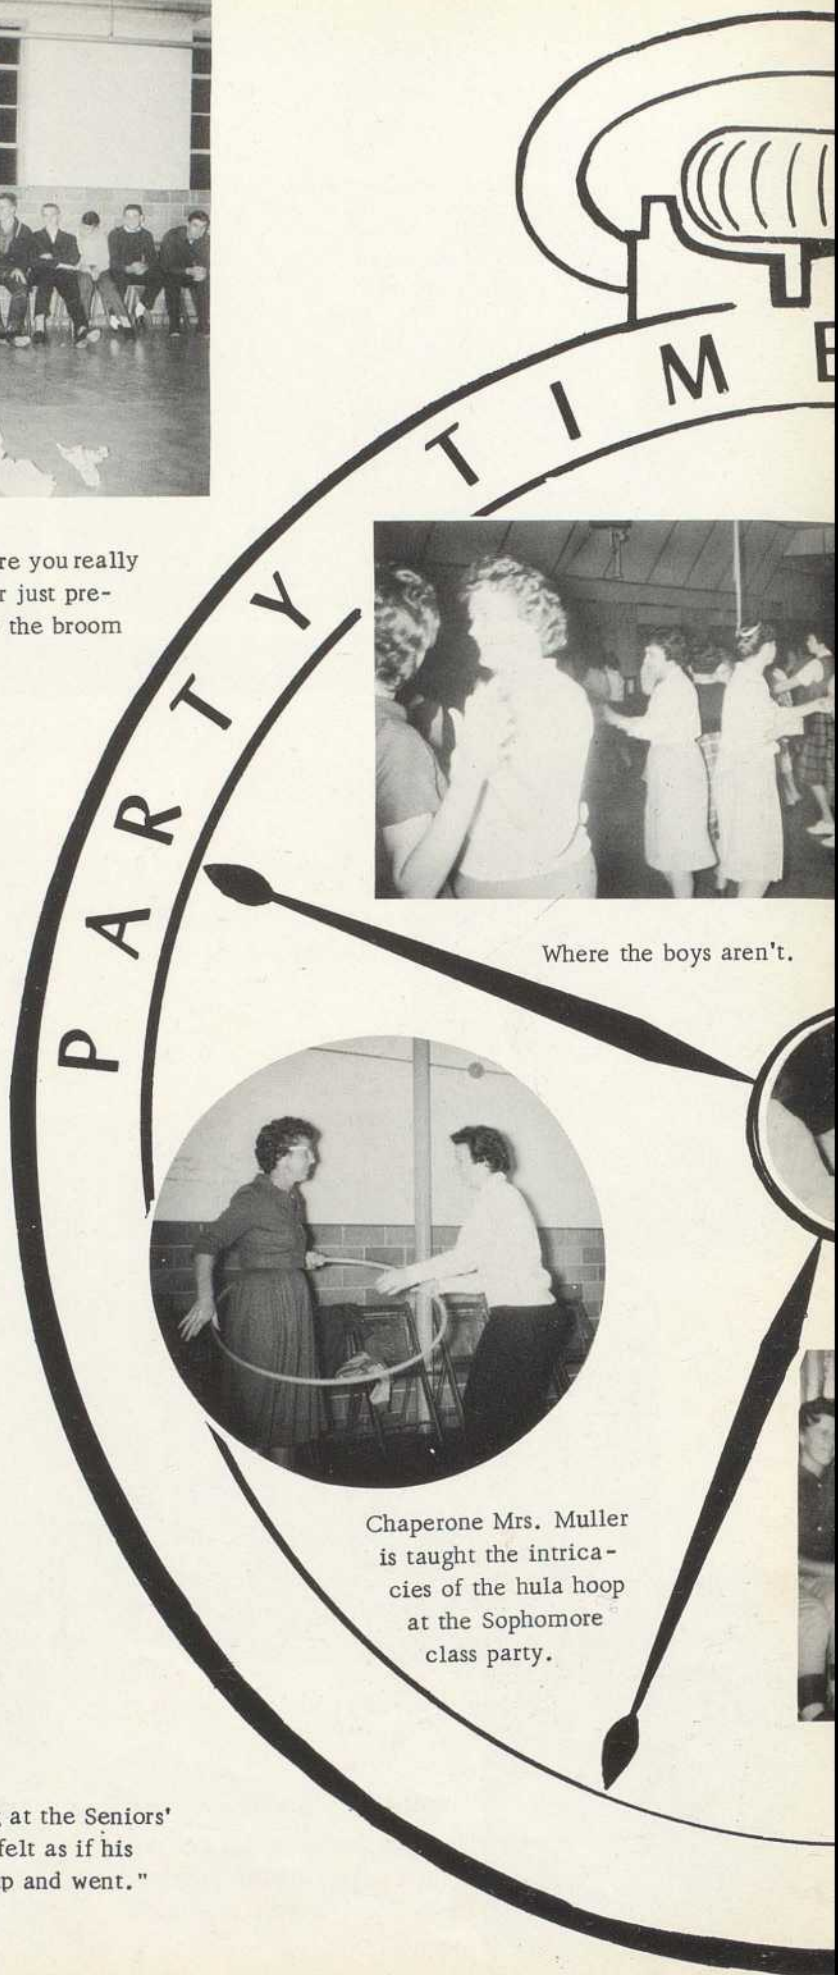

Mr. Wahl gets in the swing.

Chaperone Mrs. Muller is taught the intricacies of the hula hoop at the Sophomore class party.

After disc-jockeying at the Seniors' dance, Jack Comer felt as if his "get up and go got up and went."

The Frosh exchange spinning platters with Mr. Morgan and Mr. Wittmer.

"The most delicate, the most sensible of all pleasures, consists in promoting the pleasure of others."

King Joe and Queen Mary Ellen lead off the dance at the Seniors' Fall Festival.

Isn't that the wrong way, boys?

Stag line awaits does.

The Seniors strike a friendly pose while bowling.

Staff members Jane Olinger and Mary Ellen Keller discuss the advisability of placing this picture in the yearbook. Phyllis Uebelhor seems dubious about copy to be typed on the mat.

To some this yearbook may be nothing more than a series of pictured pages tightly bound between a blue and gold cover. But to us, the staff, who have spent long hours struggling with captions, pictures, division and dedication pages, as well as ads, this yearbook is the embodiment of many evenings of laughs and hard work. Somehow these hours of work seem small in comparison to the eager anticipation of receiving the finished product in the fall.

We, the staff, wish to express our sincere gratitude to Sister Mary Carmen, our advisor, who has so unselfishly given of her time to make the publication of this annual possible.

Kathleen Kuebler and Keith Steczyk, pictured above, browse through the dummy book, while co-editors Dave Schipp and Pat Maffenbeier are hard at work planning layout.

Dennis Laake discovers that the ads not only brought in money but also brought with them a tremendous amount of work. Layout men Larry Leinenbach and Bob Hedinger busy themselves with pencil and ruler.

Class Assemblies

In the first pep assembly of the year, an original skit, "The Un-United Nations," was given by the seniors. The expressions ranged from "Howdy folks!" to "Deutschland uber alles!" Ted Harpenau was the main attraction as a representative of Scotland in his red plaid kilt.

An amusing skit, "Foiled Again," given by the Freshmen, featured a very lively villain. The worried family softened the hard-hearted character by offering him tickets to the Ferdinand game which was to be played that evening. All left the stage with smiles upon their faces as the villain was "foiled again."

Crystal-ball gazer, Delbert Weyer, and Doctor Mike Schuch were the stars of the Sophomore's pep assembly in which they gave two skits entitled "The Happy Medium" and "Casual Casualty." As can be seen in the pictures, the crystal-ball gazer was not very successful in receiving messages from beyond; and the casualty was quite casual. In fact, the fish in the fish bowl were not very cooperative in sending out inspired messages.

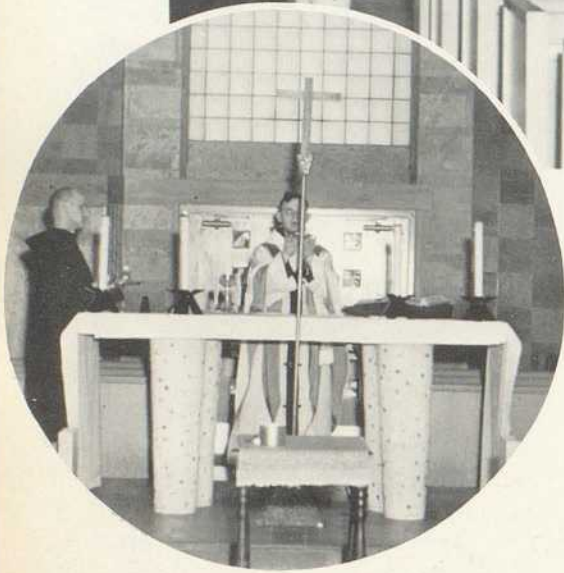

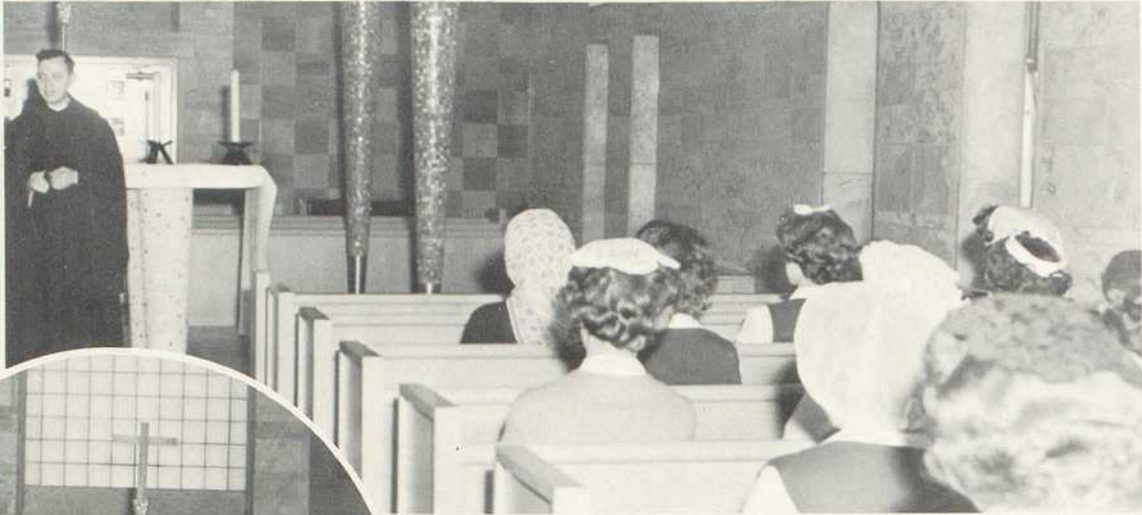

In lieu of the scheduled basketball pep assembly, the Juniors changed the tone of their assembly by offering a lovely Christmas program to the student body. The explanation of the various Christmas symbols through choral recitations, coupled with caroling at the manger, was a fitting commencement of the Christmas holidays. The audience was surprised to find so many lovely solo voices among the Junior carolers.

Student Recollection Day

"Now that's what I call a good retreat!" This was one of the many remarks made by the students expressing complete satisfaction with the retreat given this year by Father Adrian Fuerst, O.S.B., at St. Jude's Guest House in St. Meinrad. Father's vast experience and his engaging manner of speaking made this retreat quite a memorable one for the Juniors and the Seniors. The boys made their retreat on May 3; the girls on May 4.

The retreat for the underclassmen, held within the school, was given this year by Father Lawrence. Private spiritual reading, talks by Father Lawrence, and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass constituted most of the program for the day. The students also gathered around the Fatima Shrine on the campus to pray the rosary.

"Whenever you want him he's there!" This is one of the many complimentary remarks made concerning our maintenance man, Mr. Linus Wendholt. This ever-faithful janitor is always the first to come in the morning and the last to leave in the evening. Because of his untiring efforts the students always find the classrooms awaiting them neat and clean in the mornings. Not only does Mr. Wendholt tackle the dust and debris found within the school, but he also extends his magic touch to the surrounding campus where he gives the grass and weeds some serious competition. As must be evident by now, the student body of S.F.H.S. considers Mr. Wendholt indispensable, and on behalf of them the Crusader staff expresses its sincere appreciation with a hearty "Thanks!"

Maintenance and Kitchen Staff

Mrs. Urban Lueken, Mrs. Gervase Berg, and Mrs. Hubert Berg are the components of what the student body of S.F.H.S. thinks is the grandest cooking team in the U.S. Mrs. Gervase Berg is a newcomer to the kitchen of S.F.H.S. this year, whereas Mrs. Urban Lueken and Mrs. Hubert Berg are our old stand-bys. To them also we express our sincere gratitude.

"Hawaiian Luau"

Receiving enormous straw hats to signify their position, Queen Anna Mae Hoffman and King Joe Niehaus were crowned in a little grass hut with a monkey swinging in the doorway.

Queen Anna Mae received a large bouquet of tinted carnations.

The foods were given enticing titles in the banquet sponsored by the Juniors for the Seniors and Faculty.

Tropical nectar, followed by an entree of game of the jungle, taro cake, diced bamboo, and golden dreams, with coconut milk to drink, completed the evening's menu.

Enjoyment showed on the faces of all who danced to the music of Jim Bolte and his Combo in a lovely setting of flowers and fish nets, emphasizing the Hawaiian theme.

Throughout the evening students requested members of the faculty to sign programs in remembrance of one of the outstanding events of the year.

Mary Lou Hoffman, a Junior, soothed everyone's nerves and whetted appetites as she sang the lovely "Aloha Oe" previous to dining.

The Story of our Country

St. Ferdinand's annual spring concert took on a different view and a different sound this year as the glee clubs performed from the bleachers of the gymnasium. The theme of the concert was definitely American, ranging from the song sung by Columbus' men as they landed on American soil to 20th-century jazz.

Among the American tunes sung by the glee clubs were the following:

Indian Lullaby
Thanksgiving
Hymn
I Am the Nation
I Got Shoes
De Animals
Sourwood Mountain
Shenendoah
Ring, Ring the Banjo
Song of My Land

A typical American Barber Shop Quartet, composed of Dennis Laake, Robert Hedinger, Keith Steczyk, and Larry Leinenbach, thoroughly entertained their audience with the songs, "In the Evening by the Moonlight" and "Coney Island Babe."

In Music

Sister Mary Inez, O.S.B.
Band and Choral Directress

Dennis Laake portrays the American cowboy in a beautiful rendition of
"Night Herdin' Song."

Because of the prominence of swing bands in America, the story of our country in music would have been incomplete without one on the spring concert.
The students at the right
swing out to "Bill
Baily Swing."

Excellent were the numbers played by our very youthful band. The audience was told the life story of both Victor Herbert and Sousa by Ted Harpenau in his accompanying narratives as the band played "Salute to Victor Herbert" and "Salute to John Philip Sousa."
Other selections were "Westward Ho!" "To a Wild Rose," "Surrey with the Fringe on Top," "Tunes of Glory," "Rhapsody in Blue," and the Finale, "Song of My Land."

Bob Hedinger sings
an old favorite,
"Ol' Man River."

"Cindy," a popular hit tune, was sung by Bob Boehman.

"Parting is such sweet sorrow."

The big moment has finally come. All the long hours of work seem to be enfolded in that one diploma. Now looking back over the many hectic evenings spent battling with a typewriter or wrestling with a math problem they all seem worthwhile.

Distributor of the long-desired diplomas at Commencement Exercises was Right Rev. Monsignor Thomas Clarke, Chancellor of the Evansville diocese. The guest speaker for the evening was the Rev. Urban Knapp, O.S.B.

Pictured below are the graduates of the traditional breakfast given by the Daughters of Isabella immediately following the 8:30 Graduation Mass at the parish church.

Graduation

Last-minute instructions are given the students as they gather into a classroom before receiving their diplomas and going out into the "cruel" world, as one so candidly put it.

The graduates took leave of their Alma Mater for the last time as the band played the recessional, "Graduation Day."

Seniors Invade Shakamak State Park

Horseback riding, boating, and water-gun fights were only a few of the activities in which the Seniors engaged during their class trip to Shakamak State Park on May 14. Fortunately, everyone survived and all arrived home perhaps sunburned and limping but nevertheless happy--happy at having one more beautiful memory to add to their list.

Studies

"A mind without culture is like a body without a soul; glory consists not in riches but in knowledge."

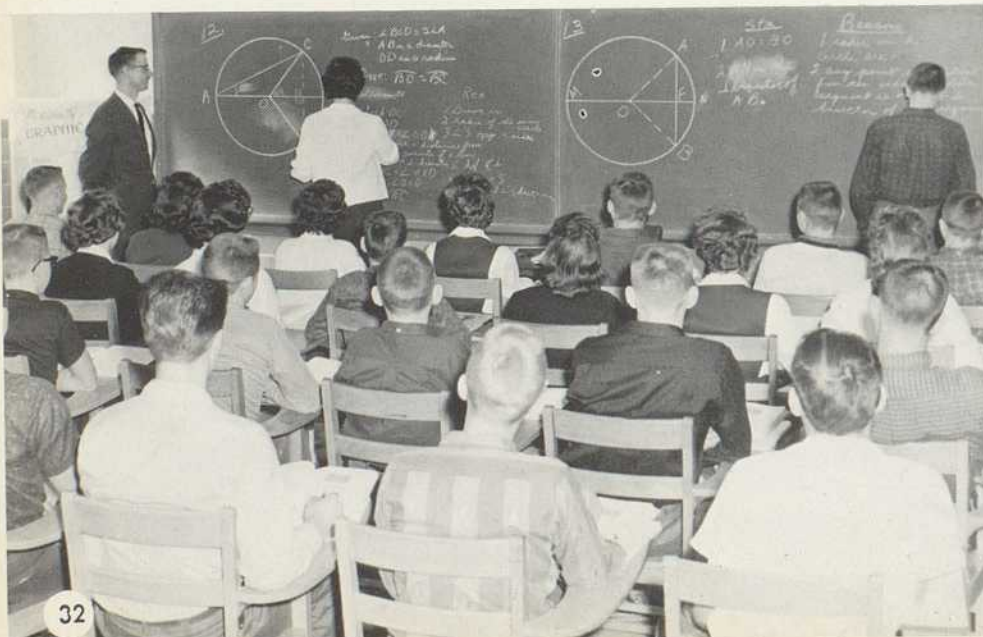

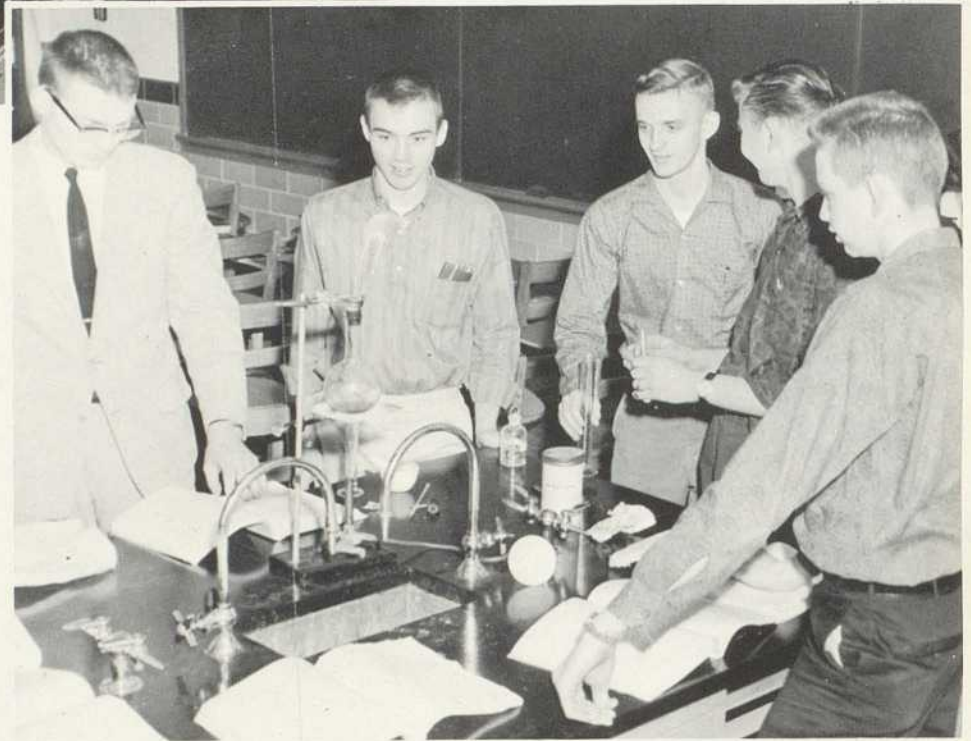

Mohammed

Math and Science

Absorbed in the study of the refraction of light rays is Mr. Gibson's physics class.

Vibrant interest is evident on the faces of these Senior chemists as they await the results of their experiments. Looking on is Mr. Morgan who is teaching chemistry for the first time this year.

Mr. Wahl directs his Sophomore geometry students in proving a theorem with the use of figures.

Religion

Father Simon gives his religion class of Freshmen boys spiritual guidance.

Films and other visual aids help the students understand more clearly the subject matter of their classes.

Biology

The Sophomore girls artistically dissect their frogs. The various and sundry items are identified after extraction with the help of their textbooks.

Father Hubert in his first year of teaching Latin at S. F. H. S. introduced a new method of teaching this subject by making more extensive use of the tape recorder. Pictured above is the Freshmen class learning the conjugation of verbs with the help of Father.

Languages

Grammar, grammar, and more grammar has been the theme song of the Sophomore English classes. This concentrated full-year course was initiated in an attempt to improve school standards in this all-important subject. It is the hope of the English teachers that the fruit of this year's work will reveal itself in the conversation, compositions, and general writing of the students in their Junior and Senior years.

The Junior English class gains experience in public speaking. Mary Lou Hoffman delivers her oration while Sister Mary Boniface and the class listens intently.

Keith Steczyk, co-editor of the LANCE, represented St. Ferdinand High School in the 1962 Knights of Columbus Oratorical Contest. His speech, "You Are Your Brother's Keeper," won him both the sectional, April 16, and the regional, April 29. At the State Championship at Indianapolis Sunday, May 13, Keith was awarded a $50 Savings Bond and a silver medal for winning second place in a group of five.

Nancy Schum, Kathy Kuebler, and Janet Barth browse through the selections displayed during the book fair at which over 600 books were sold.

Planning for and giving nice parties is a subject not at all foreign to a homemaking class. According to the picture at the left, the Juniors and Seniors are enjoying the fruits of their own labor.

Homemaking

Cool, spring dresses are modeled by the students who made them. They are: Linda Bosler, Ellen Verkamp, Patty Hoffman, Barbara Graman, and Irma Jean Pund.

For outstanding work performed during the course of the year Linda Bosler was awarded a trophy at the honor assembly held on May 25.

Marietta Boeckman, four-year home ec student, was the recipient of this year's Betty Crocker Homemaking Award. Marietta took the test along with twenty-eight other Seniors.

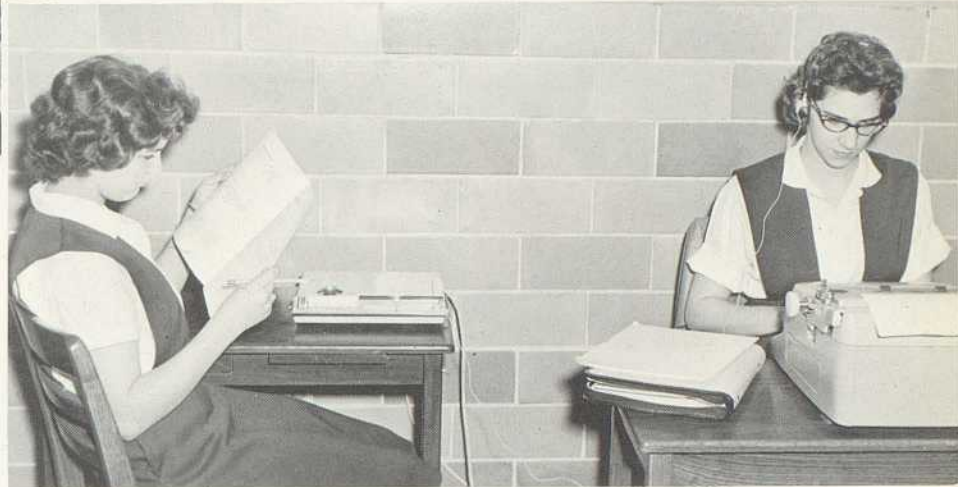

Knowing how to do something and doing it are two different things. Kathleen Vaal and Ruth Wessel prove to their fellow students that they can make delicious corn fritters. Even the photographer was given a bite.

Government

Mr. Maxey gets his point across to the Senior boys' government class. The point may range from a local election to a new crisis developing in West Berlin or Laos.

Business

Education

Nancy Becher and Sue Bolte become acquainted with the Edison Voice-writer, the latest addition to the Business Department. Job-seeking students are fully aware that machine dictation is on the list in almost every office today.

Oh my! will I ever be able to figure out all this scratching? Quite frequently does this thought run through the minds of the Senior shorthand students as they transcribe their 100 and 120 takes. Besides struggling with notes, they have also discovered that a thorough command of grammar and the ability to type mailable letters are essential counterparts of the shorthand course.

"Small but mighty" is a term that could well be applied to the Junior shorthand class. Though small in number they have proven themselves outstanding students in this skill subject. Of the seven members five have passed several 3- or 5-minute takes at 100 words per minute on new material. Ruth Niehaus, back right, is especially deserving of commendation for her excellent work in the course.

Shop and Mechanical Drawing

Reactivation in the shop department resulted in a fine showing of woodwork turned out by the students who spent much and great effort upon their items.

Mr. Gibson supervises the mechanical drawing classes which also resumed activity this year. Participating students showed both enthusiasm and ability for this class.

Freshmen girls avidly play basketball during gym period with good sportsmanship, teamwork, and plain ol' fun in abundance.

Sports

Brethren: Do you not know that those who run in a race, all indeed run, but one receives the prize? So run as to obtain it. And everyone in a contest abstains from all things--and they indeed to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one.

Basketball

After a rather shoddy beginning last fall, St. Ferdinand's Crusaders staged a mighty comeback, conducted themselves like true champions, and won seven of their last eight ball games, thus ending the season with a fourteen and nine record.

Highlighting the season was the Huntingburg sectional, where the Crusaders were considered one of the most feared teams. After trouncing Holland and Huntingburg, this mighty team marched into the semi-final game and gallantly went down in defeat to the eventual sectional champions, the Jasper Wildcats.

Mr. Alex Groza, basketball coach of Bellarmine College was the guest speaker at the basketball banquet Thursday, March 15. Joe Niehaus was awarded the Chamber of Commerce Sportsmanship Trophy; Gene Vaal was the recipient of the free-throw trophy.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders for the 1961-62 basketball season, pictured at the left, were Kenny Klueh, Dennis Schaefer, Gerald Schaefer, and Roger Schuler. These four boys formed the nucleus of what proved to be one of the best cheering sections ever produced at St. Ferdinand High School. Special tribute should be given to these boys because they worked many hours, even before school commenced in September, to perfect their many new and interesting yells.

Jack Stallman bares his pearly whites in defiance of a Cardinal in possession of the ball.

Dave Schipp clears off a rebound and defends it earnestly from his adversary.

Big Ed Pauckner outleaps a Zebra to fire his jump-shot.

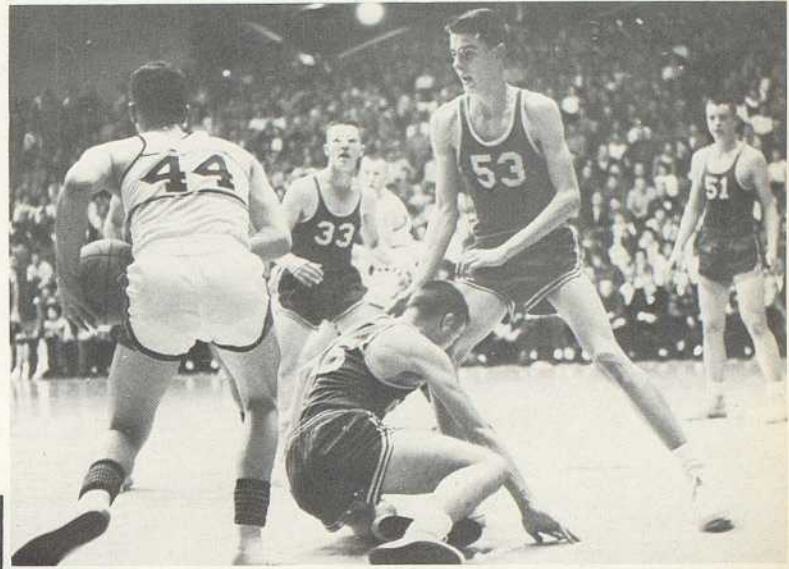

Joe's up there again while Jack sets up the fast break against Spurgeon.

Huntingburg Sectional Offers Many Thrillers

Dave Schipp gets set to take shot as Jasper's Gregg Sturm comes charging in.

Keith Steczyk is fouled by Huntingburg's Joe Kendall in mad scramble for ball.

Big Ed Pauckner clears off rebound during hectic moment of Ferdinand-Huntingburg game.

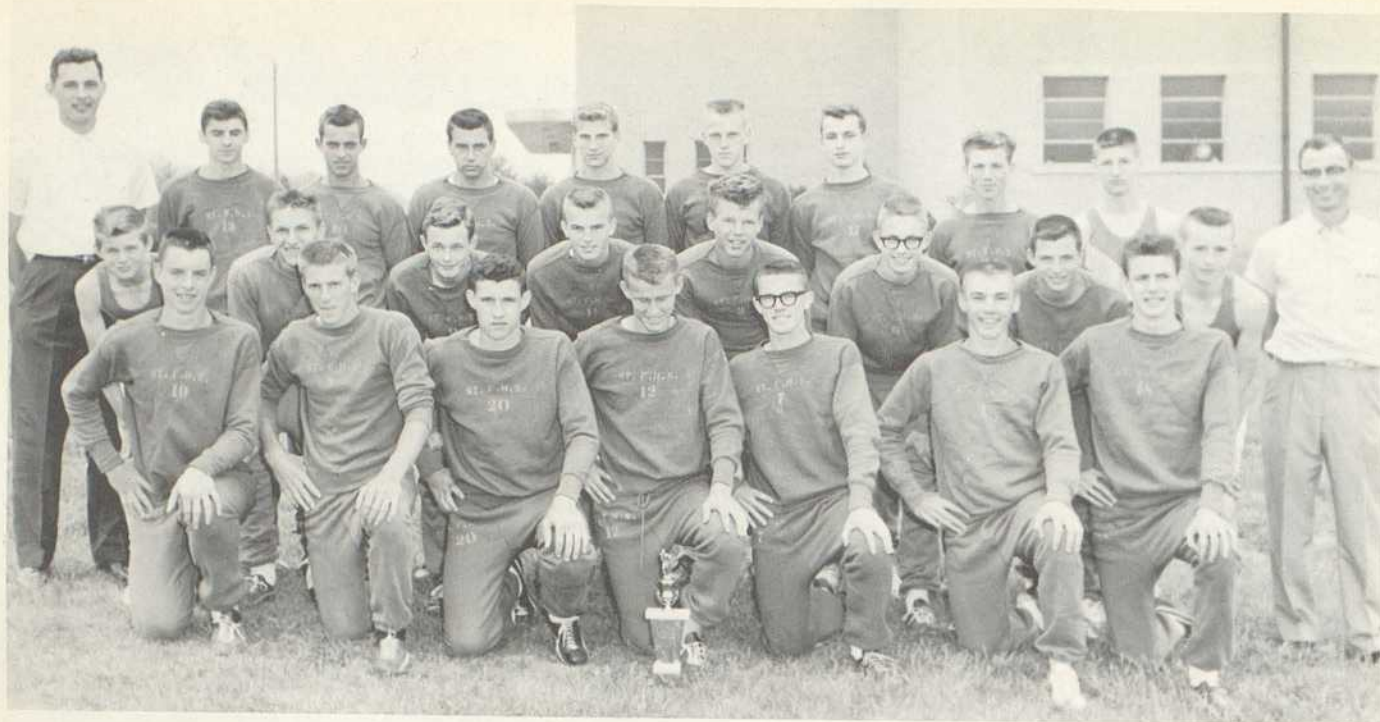

Holland's Jim Sibrel looses ball as Dave Schipp executes fine defensive play.

In an effort to arouse school spirit for the sectional, the Student Council members worked diligently at making shakers in preparation for Crusaders debut.

At Boonville on May 1 seven teams participated. We won two firsts and two fourths for a total of 22 points.

Frank Pund, Senior, shows Bill Hagedorn, Sophomore, his form in the low hurdles. He did a good job for Bill set a school record in the lows of :23.7 seconds while Frank holds the high hurdle record of :17.8 seconds.

Junior Ed Pauckner, the school's record holder in the shot put event, demonstrates for Lee Leinenbach. Ed's record is 42'4".

The mile relay team composed of Joe Niehaus, Dave Schipp, Ernie Brames, and Jack Stallman set a school record of 3:51.2. Ernie also holds the half-mile record with 2:08.5 while Jack holds the 440-yard dash with :55.8.

Keith Steczyk shows Dennis Oeding how he set school records in the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes of :10.7 and :24.0 respectively.

STANDING: Mr. Maxey, Dennis Oeding, Jack Stallman, Pat Stallings, Gene Vaal, David Schipp, Keith Steczyk, Joe Niehaus, Jim Ruhe, Pat Ruhe, Bill Hagedorn, Lee Leinenbach, Mr. Wahl. KNEELING: Dave Laake, Jim Werne, Keith Muller, Paul Lehr.

The baseball Crusaders, under the excellent guidance of coaches Wahl and Maxey, compiled a fine record of four wins and two losses. The four boys pictured individually are the only Seniors who were on the squad. Each of these boys contributed their fair share to the completion of a successful season.

Jack Stallman

Students

Dreamers are the architects of greatness. . . . They are the chosen few--the Blazers of the Way--who never wear Doubt's bandage on their eyes--who starve and chill and hurt, but hold to courage and to hope, because they know that there is always proof of truth for them who try--that only cowardice and lack of faith can keep the seeker from his chosen goal; but if his heart be strong and if he dream enough and dream it hard enough, he can attain, no matter where men failed before.

Herbert Kaufman

Senior Officers

Quality evidently was considered when these Seniors were selected as leaders of their class. Pictured left to right are, Joe Niehaus, Vice-President; Pat Maffenbeier, Treasurer; Miriam Tretter, President; and Richard Bieker, Secretary. As can be seen, they didn't find their responsibilities a bit dull.

Chow time! Dig in kids; it's free! The completion of the final performance of the Senior play, "Uncle Albert," certainly calls for a festive occasion; and it looks as though that is exactly what they're having.

Rita Mae, the next time you look into the eye of the camera, be sure to smile as prettily as Anna Mae is doing right now.

What report could these Junior officers possibly be working on? The mood, as shown by their faces, is definitely gay. Taking care of the business affairs of their class are Gene Vaal, Treasurer; James Fischer, President; Donna Mehringer, Vice-President; and Carol Klem, Secretary.

Juniors

The big moment the Juniors have long-awaited has finally arrived. The reception of their class rings symbolizes another stepping stone along the way to their graduation. They can now be designated by a superior term; namely, upperclassmen.

These Junior girls seem to be very enthusiastic about their newly-arrived class jackets. Scenes such as this were very frequent the day the jackets arrived. The diligent Juniors missed no chance to display their new property to the eyes of the envious underclassmen.

Fruitcakes, fruit-cakes, and more fruit-cakes were sold by the Juniors in order to earn money so they would be able to sponsor the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. These hard-working students put forth much effort in this project as is evident in the enthusiastic faces shown here.
