Acknowledgments

We, the Senior Class of 1964, wish to express our sincere gratitude to Sister Mary Victor, Mr. Ferman Yearby, The Ferdinand News, Mr. Edwin Becher, and Mr. Ernie Begle for their assistance in making this yearbook possible.

"To regret deeply is to live afresh."

Dedication

The past year has brought sorrow and regret to the entire world. We at S.F.H.S. feel doubly deprived --as Americans, of a President named John; as Roman Catholics, of a Pope named John. Two great men, both bearing the same name, have gone to their eternal reward, leaving a legacy far richer than all the treasures on earth. It is for us, their heirs, to be aware of this heritage and, as our own silent tribute to them, preserve it for our posterity.

Our beloved John F. Kennedy was taken from us tragically, unexpectedly--but he had lived his life day by day and thus, even at the age of 46, his life was full.

John XXIII, our beloved Pontiff, much to the sorrow of all men, was taken from us peacefully at the age of 81. He, too, in the five short years of his papacy lived from day to day, marking accomplishments that astounded the world.

These two men personify, each in his own way, the Spirit that is America and the World. These two great men spent the greater part of their lives in the service of others, reaping little earthly reward. They set an example for generations to come. They were humble, compassionate, warmly human. They paved the way for the unknown future. These two men were Greatness itself.

This, then, is what our President and our Holy Father have left to posterity in unwritten testimony. Each of us now in his own heart must evaluate this legacy. This book is humbly dedicated to the ardent hope that we may have the grace and the wisdom to do so.

Ask What You Can Do For Your Country

When President John F. Kennedy was assassinated, the United States as a nation lost a great man. The following passage taken from the Holy Bible was his favorite. It was his Code of Life.

"All things have their season, and in their times all things pass under heaven. A time to be born and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to destroy, and a time to build. A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance. A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them; a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces. A time to get, and a time to cast away. A time to rend, and a time to sow; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak. A time to love, and a time of hatred; a time of war, and a time of peace."

Seniors Prepare to Step into the Future

Patty Hoffman, Rita Laake, and Ellen Verkamp use dictation discs to increase their shorthand rates.

The juniors and seniors in the family living class entertain their mothers at a mother-daughter party. Virginia Helming models the attractive dress she herself made. Behind her are Patty Oser, Kathleen Gadlage, Mary Lou Helming, Barbara Graman, and Irma Jean Pund.

The study of Indiana government adds to the senior government class. Phyllis Hoge, Mary Jo Hedinger, and Diane Schulz check on the congressional representation of Dubois County.

David Weyer verifies Barbara Graman's solution for a problem in analytic geometry.

These English students find that listening to readings of the classics by experts enriches their study of world literature.

Seniors Relax

The seniors took a day off from their regular studies and left with plenty of food and refreshments for Brown County State Park, one of the most beautiful in Indiana. The students spent the day horseback riding, hiking, and just having fun.

Measuring the seniors for caps and gowns is another step toward graduation.

The seniors on the stage crew contribute to the success of the performance.

In their Pep Assembly for the Holiday Tournament the seniors bury the opposing teams.

These "painters" keep busy during the senior Halloween class party.

Mary Jane Olinger, a '52 graduate of S. F. H. S., and Mrs. Margaret Clark, director of student nurses, confer with the senior girls interested in nursing.

Terry Ruxer, winner of a first division rating at the music contest, adds another medal to his collection.

Completion of each book is the goal to be accomplished by members of the English class. Doris Dilger, Darlene Recker, Albertha Schnell, Rosemary Drach, Ralph Hagedorn, Gilbert Otto and James Pund demonstrate the height of the stack.

Energetic Juniors Accept Responsibilities of Upperclassmen

Members of the family living class, senior Barbara Graman and juniors, Ruth Auffart, Mary Lou Helming and Mildred Durcholz, make last minute preparations for an Epiphany Party given on January 9 for the faculty and freshmen girls.

Scientists in the making: Allen Hasenour, Val Fleig, Juanita Kuebler and Eugene Heilers.

U.S. History students supplement text with SENIOR SCHOLASTIC each week. James Bromm, Alberta Jasper, David Bender, Roberta Hulsman, and Joe Greenwood study the latest issue.

Typing students Margie Wehr, Shirley Wagner, Dick Mohr, David Berg and Larry Schaefer put good typing techniques to work.

Active in many areas, the Student Council organized student groups to sell concessions at home ball games to finance several projects. Janet Barth, Kenny Hauser and Gene Verkamp are serving Terry Ruxer and Judi Schnieders.

To make the council a truly student affair, the entire student body expressed their choice of the candidates by secret ballot. Mark Hubers casts his vote.

Student Council - Links Student Body with Administration

The Student Council initiated a "Courtesy Week" which was carried out during the week of February 2. Officers of the council practicing courtesy here are Kenny Tretter, vice-president; David Laake, treasurer; Glenda Schreiner, secretary; and Kenneth Hauser, president.

C.S.M.C. Develops Strong Crusader Spirit

On February 27, Father Cyprian, OSB, a Negro Priest from St. Meinrad Archabbey, gave his views on the civil rights issues to the student body.

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade helps students to be conscious of their responsibilities as Crusaders for Christ. To this end each class assumes some worthwhile project making members pray and work for the spiritual and temporal good of others all over the world. The mission field may seem far away to some; but through prayer and sacrifice in Christ, all our efforts are made one with His for the salvation of the whole world.

The freshman class officers, Gene Vaal, Rebecca Vaal and Eddie Becher, count stamps to be sent to the missions.

Kenny Tretter, Juanita Kuebler, Mary Sue Hauser, and Donald Barth, our C. S. M. C. unit officers, display the C. S. M. C. flag.

The annual Recollection Days for boys and girls were combined this year into a two-day retreat for all. The Blessed Sacrament Chapel was one of the best places for the students to "recall, think, plan, and pray."

Retreat Reawakens True Christian Spirit

Father Marcellus, O.S.B. urges the boys to put their faith to practice in daily life.

Father Meinrad, O.S.B., encourages the girls to cultivate "friendship with Christ."

The library opens its treasure of spiritual books for reading and recollection.

The Cinderella Ball

was the theme name given the Junior-Senior-Faculty Banquet, held on May 8.

The evening began with a "Lavish Banquet" followed by "Unlocking the Future" of the seniors.

Lee Joe Werne and Mary Jo Boehman were crowned Prince and Princess of the ball.

Music was furnished by Bill Mosley and his Cyclones from Huntingburg.

Sophomore boys, Jack Hagedorn and Kent Schreiner, acted as courtiers while David Oeding served as town crier.

Girl soloists for the spring concert, Gail Thompson and Margie Hagedorn, lead the chorus in singing "I Feel Pretty" and "Danny Boy."

On board the USS SAIL ALONG WITH A SONG with Captain Paul Lehr, the girls' chorus bids farewell to the homeland as they cruise on a romantic journey of song.

Accompanied by the boys' chorus, George Becher sings "Tonight" from the movie, "The West Side Story."

“Sail Along with a Song”

They Back the Team

The Pep Band under the direction of Jim Kemper provided added spirit along with entertainment at all home games.

A New Venture

The Library Club, the "baby" organization of the school, was formed during October to increase pupil interest in library work, to attract good pupil assistants, and to arouse interest in librarianship as a profession. Under the guidance of Sister Mary Boniface, Librarian, the twenty-six members sponsored a Book Fair and two movies to encourage not only the reading but also the viewing of good literature. The club also participated actively in state and regional library functions. As a gift to the library, this year's club purchased the WORLD BOOK ENCYCLOPEDIA UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY in two volumes and Attwater's A CATHOLIC DICTIONARY. Future plans of the club include the providing of financial assistance to members wishing to attend the Library Workshop at Indiana University during the summer.

Officers of the newly-formed S.F.H.S. Library Club are: Janet Barth, President; Mary Jo Boehman, Vice-president; Judi Schnieders, Secretary; and Diane Vaal, Treasurer.

Sister Mary Boniface and two library assistants proudly display the charter which the club received from the Catholic Library Association.

St. Benedict College and A.I.C. students and faculty members browse through the varied display of books at the Book Fair sponsored by the club.

Let Your Light Shine

Graduates assemble as a body to turn their hearts and minds to God as they pray for the grace to fulfill His Will.

Memories of high school days linger in the hearts of seniors who walk together as a student body for the last time.

Probably the best balanced and most talented team in the history of St. Ferdinand High School, the '63-'64 squad captured the PVC trophy for the first time on record, won the holiday tournament, defeated the Jasper Wildcats in the sectional, and rolled on into the final game of the contest.

Lee Joe Werne scored forty-one points in a single game for the finest scoring effort in Ferdinand's basketball history, and the team sported an exceptional 20-3 record when the season came to a close.

These are but a few of the statistics which have convinced fans that this was the school's greatest basketball quintet ever.

Tom Ruhe demonstrates his versatility which aided the Crusaders in defeating the Jasper squad.

Behind the outstanding group of boys of the '63-'64 sectional team was an even more enthusiastic and determined group of basketball experts, Coach Jim Wahl and assistant Coach Robert Maxey.

We'll Never Forget

The sectional was an event filled with excitement, joy, and sadness as the boys in blue and gold cornered the Jasper Wildcats, downed the Dubois Jeeps, and lost a heartbreaker to the young but spirited Blackhawks of Springs Valley in the final game.

High-scoring Lee Joe Weine led the sectional scoring attack and proved that the Crusaders were not an easy team to stop.

Although Springs Valley deprived Ferdinand of hopes for a sectional victory, Dennis Oeding, with the ball, made the task difficult.
