Jill thinking about her hot date tonight.

This is too much excitement for me!

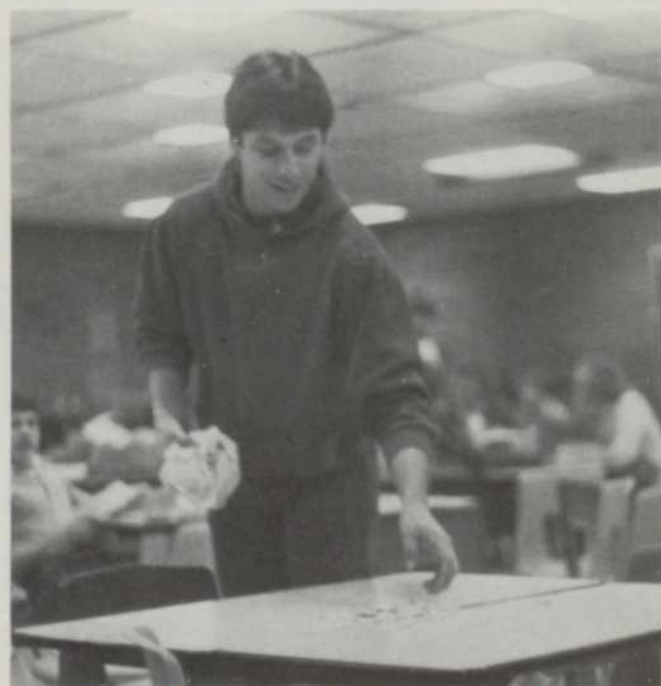

You know how Mr. Yarbrough is before his morning coffee.

Hey. Where did you get that ice?

He's got to be Rick Springfield's twin!

Waiter, I'll have a large coke.

Not another timed writing!

I'm gonna wash that grey right outa my hair.

Accounting always cheers me up!

Marsha and Susie heading for their next class.

I want to suck your blood.

We love the cafeteria's food!

I heard you talking about me.

Indigestion??? Pepto Bismol

Oh, no, not the bell!

I'll get that dumb fly now!

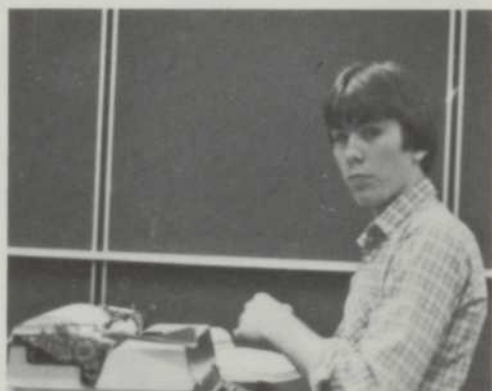

Ha! Ha! I beat you to it!

I hope they put water in the pool.

Siamese twins?

If I had a gun, this would be one dead machine!

I can't believe I ate the whole thing.

If looks could kill . . .

TIMBER!!!

Captain Keusch

Milk is the fresher refresher.

You can't do that!

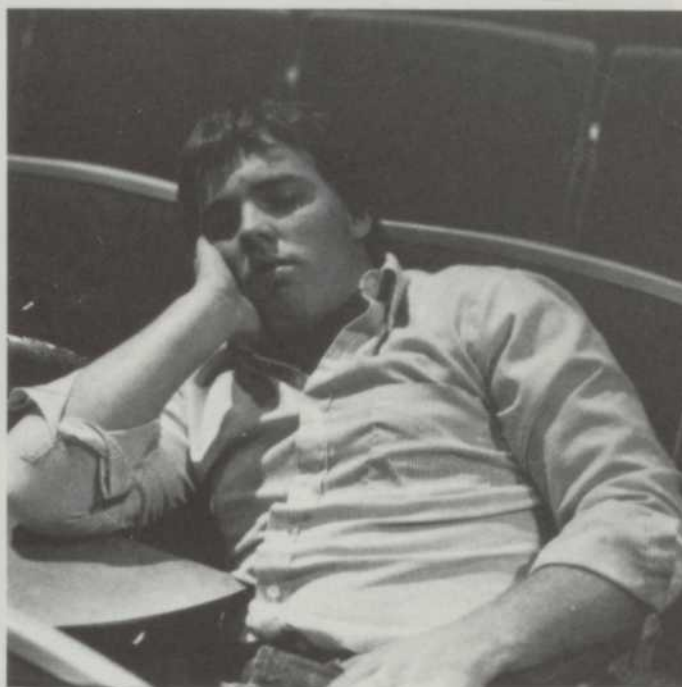

Fer Shur! Fer Shur!

So that's how the other team gets our plays!

Howdy Partner

School's a good place to get caught up on your sleep!

You did WHAT with my frog!?!

This isn't my day!

Hi, Mr. Hayes!

And what is that supposed to mean?

Hey, you wanta fight?

No, I wasn't sleeping.

Angie and Friend

Let's see now, number 37 is out of place.

Is that Larry behind those Foster Grants???

Look out Go Gos!!!!

Hey, Hey, Hey . . . Goodbye!

Wayne's hitting the books again!!

Just take a swig, Roberta.

Watch out, Sheena Easton, here comes Diana.

Be for real!!!

I dare you to say that again.

Could it be J.J. "Kid Dyn-O-Mite"?

I could have sworn this was the right room.

Let's hear it for silicone.

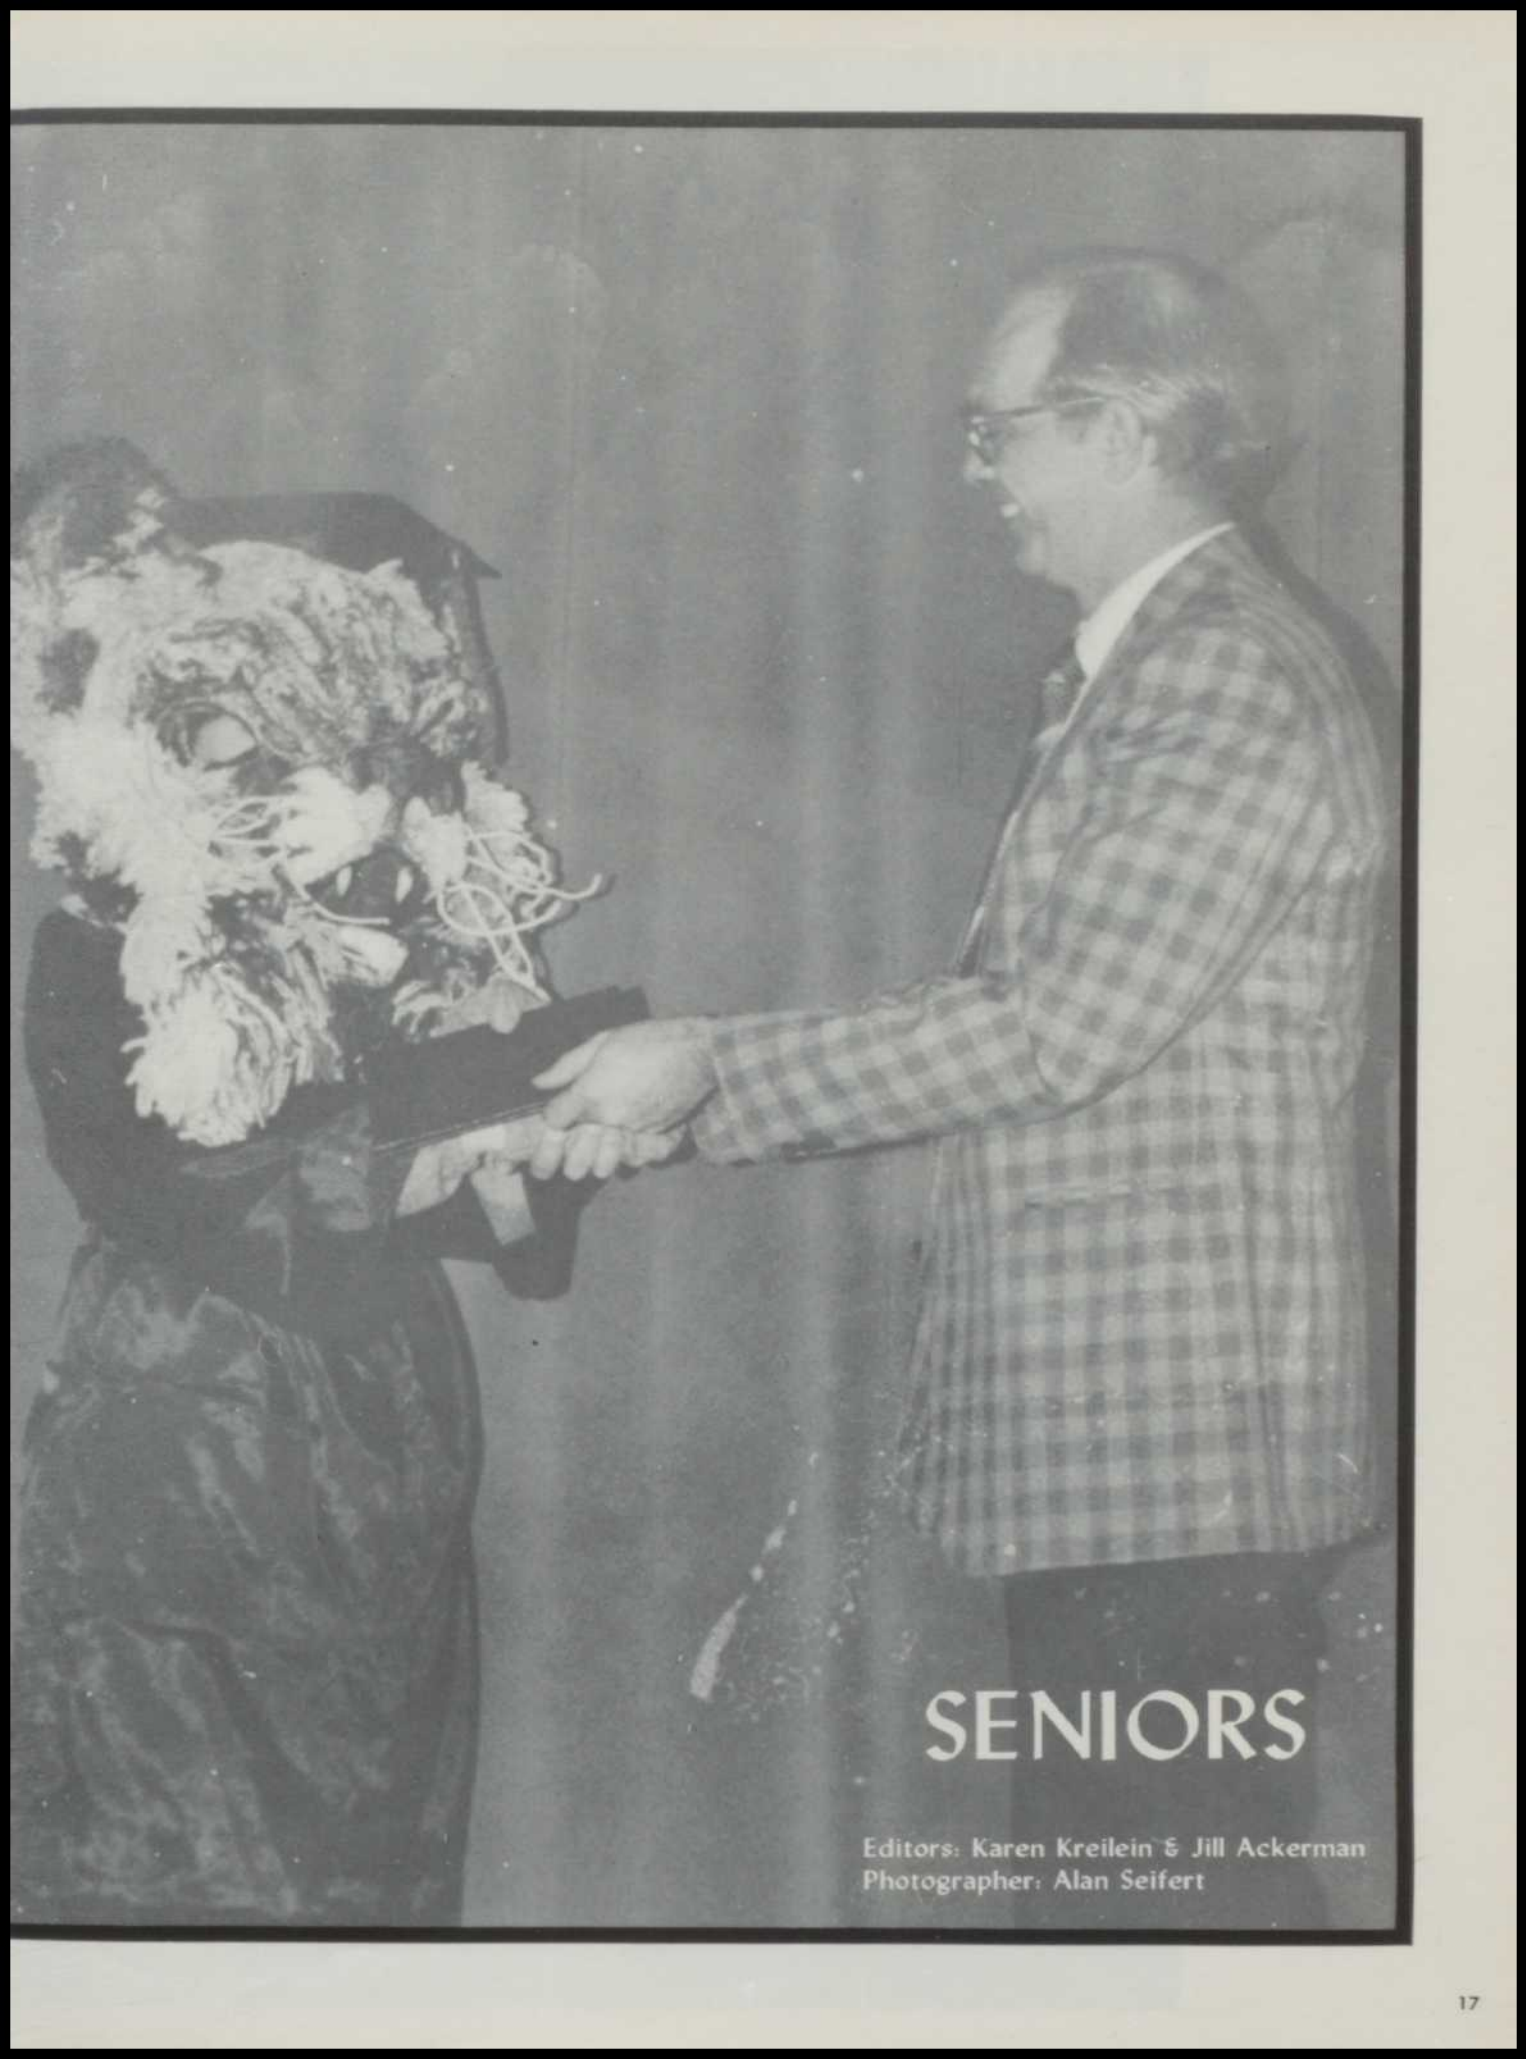

Come on, Paul, give us a smile.

SENIOR DINNER

The Seniors went to town on the dance floor.

The Seniors say farewell to the end of their high school days.

Well Tony, it's like this.

Have you heard the latest?

Wayne and John fill their plates.

Joan graciously accepts her award.

Bob Sunderman displays his beer gut.

The gang shows their approval of the meal.

Dean F. enjoys the dinner.

Donna H. accepts her "diploma."

GRADUATION

The Senior guys enjoy a few laughs before the ceremony.

Mike Witte is all smiles about graduation.

On May 13, the Senior class of 1983 was filled with hopes and dreams. These 4 years have gone by swiftly, but they have been productive. All the memories that we have shared will never be forgotten. We have formed many friendships, shared each other's laughter and pain, and have grown from children to promising adults.

Each of us will be going our own separate ways. We will each be discovering the realities of becoming adults. Though we will never be fully together again, the spirit of the Class of 1983 will live on forever.

Brent Kinkade explains last minute instructions.

The flower girls enjoy a laugh.

Sharon and Rod ready for the ceremony to begin.

GRADUATION

Kevin Teder gives his final advise as a Senior.

Jill A. adjusts her cap.

Rene Kuntz makes final adjustments.

The graduates eagerly await their diplomas.

Lisa D. and Jane B. proudly take their seats for Commencement.

Gary adds the finishing touches.

DEDICATION

TOM HOFFMAN

Loving and kind
In all his ways;
Making new friends
Day after day;
Sincere and true
In heart and mind;
Beautiful memories
He left behind.
His memory still
Is very dear;
So many times
He feels so near;
No longer here
In our lives to share.
But in our hearts,
He'll always be there.

Seniors Display High

This years Jasper High School Football Homecoming displays were creative and showed all the hardwork put into them by the members of each class. Combining their ideas, each class put forth winning displays. To uphold tradition, the class of 1983 combined their efforts and once again proved that the Senior spirit prevails.

As the band played "Through the Years," the members of the Football Homecoming Court were escorted through the mist and wind. On this first day of October, nineteen hundred eighty-two, crowned by Jeff Sermersheim, president of the Senior class, and escorted by John Schultheis, Debby Weisman accepted the position to reign as Queen over her court. The other candidates of the court, elected by the student body, included: Karen Kreilein escorted by John Welp; Eileen East escorted by Dwain Merder. Juniors were Jill Sermersheim escorted by Keith Hoffman, Debbi Hurm escorted by Bryan Jaent. Sophomores were Denise Egler escorted by Kurt Freyberger, Penny Rudolph escorted by Glen Buechlein. Freshmen were Nancy Weisman escorted by Chris Tanner, Michelle Forler escorted by Brian Wineinger.

Romance at the Dance

Do what??????

Once again, on October 29, the annual Halloween Dance was held in the high school cafeteria. Students came dressed in all kinds of costumes . . . from clowns to ballerinas. Thanks to the junior class the dance was considered a huge success. Music was provided by the d.j., Terry Tunks.

Vickie and Kristi see something they like.

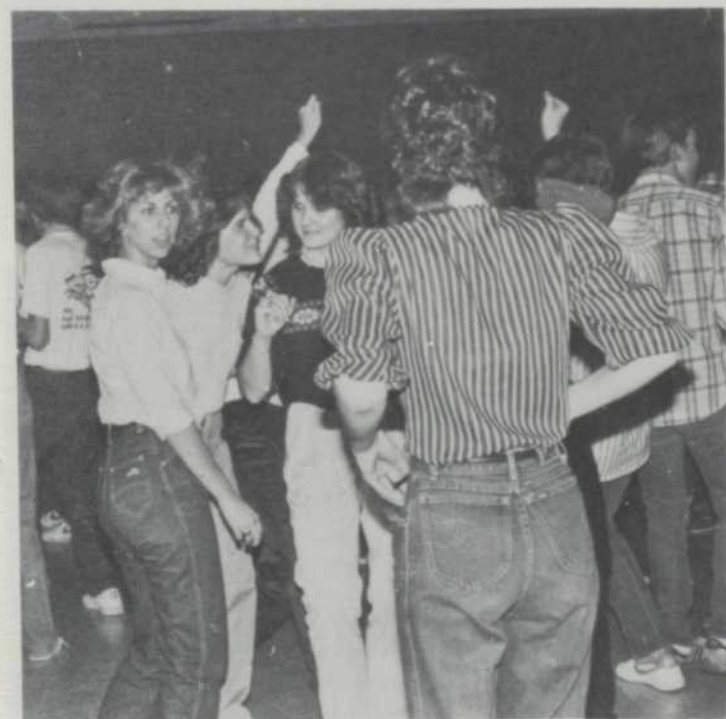

Christmas trees, lights, and tinsel turned the J.H.S. school cafeteria into a winter wonderland as Key Club, Jr. Civitan, Student Council, and Jayteens sponsored the annual Christmas dance. On this cold evening of December 22, Donna Hopf and Zach Bawel were crowned queen and king by the Key Club president, Todd Howard. The music was provided by Terry Tunks.

UP WHERE WE BELONG

Each couple felt "Up Where They Belong" as they strolled hand in hand across the star-lit bridge entering into that special evening they dreamed about for weeks, the 1983 Junior-Senior Prom. Enlightened by the music of Special Purpose, April 23 proved to be a night Lori Schmidt and Rod Schroeder will remember; Terry Keusch, President of the Junior Class, and Susie Kreilein, Vice-President of the Junior Class, crowned this couple King and Queen. The Junior Class also chose Tim Weidenbenner and Shari Bachman to reign as Prince and Princess.

This year's Jasper High School cheerleading squads have helped to lift the spirits of the entire student body. By putting in a lot of hard work and long hours, they led both the basketball and football teams to a winning season. The varsity squad included: Allison Fortwendel, Lynn Stenftenagel, Roberta Hurst, Shari Bachman, and Missy Hoffman. The junior varsity cheerleaders included: Ann Berger, Chris Wagner, Penny Rudolph, and Lisa Weinenbenner. The freshmen cheerleaders included: Pam Hoffman, Michelle Forler, Debbie Popp, and Nancy Weisman.

The purpose of this organization is to: develop attitudes of good citizenship; promote harmonious relations throughout the entire school; improve student-teacher relationships; improve school moral; provide a forum for student expression; and promote the general welfare of the school. Each year the student Council organizes the freshman activities, such as the freshman dance. They are incharge of Homecoming; organize elections for it. The Student Council runs all class elections. They also sponsored the MORP dance and the Christmas dance. They had a coat check at the games this year. They are the voice for the school and have a voice in school policy. They also host a meeting between the students and school board.

What else could go wrong?

A comedy, "The Happiest Millionaire," was presented by the Speech and Drama Club as its annual fall play. The play was directed by Sandy Merkel and Faculty Advisor Ms. Sarabeth Brian. Presented on November 18, 19, and 20, students, faculty, and community members alike enjoyed this light comedy. The dedicated efforts and concerns of club members, parents, and faculty made the production a success. The young cast including Angie Bies, Brent Kinkade, Andy Welsh, Amy Noblitt, Angie Mehringer, Kenny Kemker, Christy Schepers, Karla Loepker, Ann Knies, Tim Mann, and Jeff Mann, were lead by veteran actors Todd Howard, Joan Loepker, and Greg Abell.

Once again Coach Ed Yarbrough's boys tennis team put together a successful season. With hard work, determination, and optimism the Jasper netters surprised many and put together a strong team and a stunning season. The hours of hard work and strong desire paid off when the cats captured the Big 8 title and sectional crown. Led by seniors, Dean Fischer, John Schultheis, Bill Healy, and Paul Nonte, the Cats proved their ability and finished their season with a dazzling 16-4 record.

VOLLEYBALL

The 1982 Volleyball season is one that will be long remembered. Their outstanding season proved what the Lady Wildcats are really made of. They finished with a final record of 32-5. This earned them their 2nd consecutive Big 8 Crown. The Lady Cats also added to this crown, the sectional victory for the 4th time and brought home their first regional title. With skill and determination, they snatched an almost sure victory from Seymore in the semi-state, advancing them to the coveted final four. These athletes played to the best of their ability but lost to eventual state champs Muncie Burris. Jasper didn't come home empty handed as Jill Ackerman brought home the renowned mental attitude award. This was truly an unforgettable season for Coach Zehr, the team, and fans.

FOOTBALL

The Jasper defense was lead in tackles by Phil Smith.

Defense waits to attack.

Coaches Rohleder and Phillips discuss strategy.

The defense intercepted ten opponent's passes, and recovered fourteen fumbles.

Zach Bawel was quarterback for this year's team.

The Jasper football team had another great year. They finished 11-2 after winning sectional and regional titles for the second year in a row. They also won their second Big 8 championship with a 7-0 record. Bill Kaiser and Wayne Eckerle were placed on the All State first team. The junior varsity and freshman teams also had fine seasons. Their records were 1-2 and 6-1 respectively, assuring the Cats of many great seasons ahead.

Tim Fehribach leads the way.

The Cat Car entertains the fans.

The Jasper Basketball team had one of its greatest seasons ever. The team went 16-4 and was ranked 16th in the state for much of the season. They had impressive wins over 10th ranked North and Princeton and also came within one point of beating #1 ranked Bosse. Though being upset in the sectional, the Cats had a year that will not be soon forgotten.

The J.V. also had a super year. They compiled a record of 18-2 and gained valuable experience for next year.

Tim Weidenbenner looks for an open man.

Thank You

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the sponsors of this book, the businessmen of Jasper, for aiding in the production of this year's "J". Without their financial support, our efforts would be in vain. Show your appreciation to these established merchants by patronizing their places of business. Save time and money by shopping in Jasper.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

As we returned to school on August 23, 1982, a sense of pride and power swept over the class of '83. We were the leaders, the seniors. Throughout the year, we all wondered if we could make it to May 13th. Now we reminisce, and for many, the time has gone too fast. Supposedly, the best four years of our lives are behind us now, leaving only the memories. As editor of the yearbook, I believe a great portion of those memories are preserved within the cover of this book. Our four years of high school are truly unforgettable, but it's the senior year that always makes a lasting impression. Throughout this year, we have experienced a variety of events. We began in the fall by walking the halls in full command. We led in spirit by forming the Mafia. We lived it up at our parties, especially during senior week. We experienced a tragedy when we lost a special classmate, Tom Hoffman, to whom this book is dedicated. And now, finally, we receive a diploma to acknowledge our learning, growing, and maturing together as a class. Although we will never be able to relive this year, I hope this yearbook will hold special memories for everyone. I would like to thank the many people who have made this book possible:

The work and time devoted from the J-Staff members are immeasurable. The people I worked with were super!! They made the year enjoyable, and they gave me support everytime I felt like giving up. I thank each one for his cooperation, time, and most of all, for putting up with me!!!

Most important, I want to thank Mr. Gibson. He stood beside us and gave me confidence. He took over when things got hectic and was always there for reassurance. I definitely enjoyed working with him.

Thanks to Mr. Pumphrey, our ICP advisor, for all the support he gave the staff and me. He helped a great deal. Mr. Pumphrey gave us many ideas and had the patience to answer and explain our many questions. His visits were much appreciated!!!!

Thanks to Lynne Rudolph, my assistant editor. I hope everything goes great for her next year. Just remember, Lynne, to have patience and not to give up until you've reached page 200.

The McCarty Studio and Herald need to be recognized and thanked for all their pictures. They were understanding and cooperative throughout the year.

Thanks to Mom, Dad, Teresa, and my close friends for listening to me complain about this book for a whole year. Thanks for all the "extra" help and for backing me. Now I can finally clean up the mess and put my yearbook supplies away forever!!!

Thanks to Mr. Noblitt, Mr. Hayes, the office staff, and many other teachers who contributed in any way.

Thanks to Ann Knies, who drew the design for the front cover. You did an excellent job, Ann!

Thanks to all who either bought an ad or a yearbook. I hope this book contains precious memories for all. I know the staff and I did our best to make it the best.

Congratulations to all my classmates and best of luck!!!!
