LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Another school year has come and gone just as a tree grows—spring to fall. A tree branches out just as we branch out to make new friends and form lifetime attitudes. Seniors branch out as they graduate. They find their own place to fit in the kalidescope of the world. Juniors start thinking about college or work plans. Sophomores look forward to driving a car on their own for the first time. Freshmen adjust to the new social opportunities like going to ball games and dances so that they can be a part of Jasper High School. With all of these changes can come fear of what lies ahead. So many of us are afraid to move on to bigger and brighter things because we are scared of what the future holds. Many don't realize that one controls the future by making careful decisions now. A tree branches out to grow and flourish. We need to look toward the future to live our lives to the best. We can build on the memories of Jasper High School to create a better future for ourselves.

I would like to thank a number of generous people who gave their time to make our yearbook great! Mr. Noblitt, for allowing us to take our staff pictures at the Zinger Waterslide. Mr. Hayes, for helping with the Spirit Dance. I would like to thank those at McCarty's—Robert, Judy, Donna, Connie and Cheryl who prepared the great looking table of contents page and developed pictures for us. Mrs. Lechner, for delivering all of those messages, handling sales, and distributing underclassmen proofs. Mrs. Brandt and Mrs. Voges for putting announcements in the bulletin and help with sales. Mrs. Fromme, for proofreading pages and always believing I could get the job done. Mr. Gibson, for lightening the load with a funny joke, and proofreading. "Happy Man" Mr. Pumphrey for helping me with print sizes and styles. Thanks goes to the section editors and staff members who worked hard to make your yearbook shine. They did a good job and I am proud of what they accomplished. Thanks goes to my mom who always was there to help. Thanks to Steve Mellon, Mike Bowman, and Bill Huddleston of the Herald for pictures and sports info. With their help, I feel we gave quality coverage considering the limited amount of space we could use.

Stephanie Weisman, editor for 1986 will keep up my goal to make the yearbook better and different. Don't ever give up until it's finished. Maybe next year you will be able to put seniors in color!

As a last note, I would like to say I had fun being editor. I learned what the word RESPONSIBILITY truly means. If I could do it over again, I would. It was worthwhile and interesting to do.

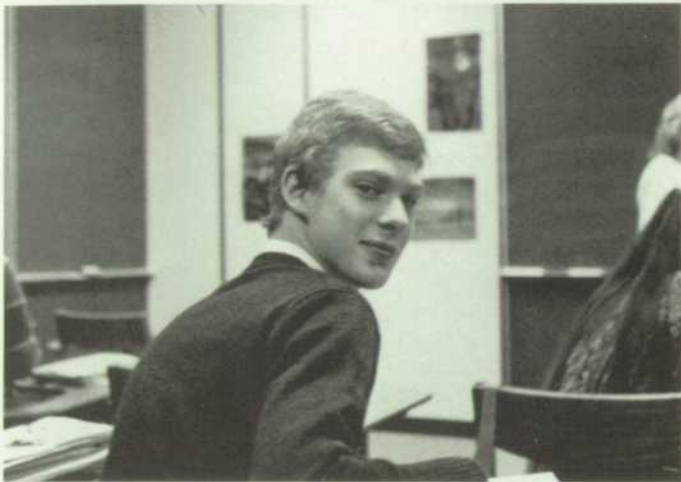

We hope you appreciate the way we have preserved this year's memories.

Our freshmen year was a learning experience for all our class officers. As we go through the next three years, we hope to accomplish more challenging goals. I'm sure we all are looking forward to next year.

VICE-PRESIDENT

I feel that we, the freshman class, have worked hard and accomplished a great deal our first year at Jasper High School. We look forward to our next three years, and we hope that they are as productive and rewarding as the first.

1984 FOOTBALL HOMECOMING DISPLAYS

The 1984 Homecoming Displays were the proud achievements of all the classes. Despite the rainy weather, the displays held up very well.

For the second consecutive year, the Herald presented the best display award to the 1985 seniors. Much credit goes to Lisa Weidenbenner, Guy Hurst, Chris Schmitt, and other members of the senior class. The underclassmen displays showed excellent merit as well.

Congratulations to all the classes for their hard work

Poem

To The Seniors

Another year goes passing by	But now the path gets steeper
Another Prom ^{is} here	And the climb is just begun.
To some this brings a joyous smile	We're very glad to know you
To others, brings a tear	We'll miss you when you've gone
For four years you have tread a path	And to the class of '85
From dawn to setting sun	We dedicate our Prom.

FALL PLAY— THE MURDER ROOM

Brenda takes it easy before going on.

Lottie talks to Susan and Barry.

The Murder Room, by Jack Sharkey, was performed November 9 and 10 at 7:30 p.m. This play was a mystery farce. Jeff Mann had the dual role of Edgar Hollister and Abel Howard. Mavis Templeton Hollister was played by Brenda Hedinger. Amy Noblitt was Mrs. Lottie Malloy, the housekeeper. Guy Hurst played Mr. James Crandall. Louisa Kaiser and Tim Mann portrayed two young people who were in love, Susan Hollister and Barry Draper.

Mavis murdered her husband. She then hid the body in a secret room. The trouble starts when the police investigate Edgar's mysterious absence. Edgar's daughter, Susan, then shows up on the scene. Susan knows how to gain entry to the secret room. Mavis spends the rest of the play attempting to keep Susan out of the secret room. She also attempted to convince everyone that Edgar was alive and well. This play was a good experience for all. It was a very enjoyable play. To the cast—NICE JOB!!!

James and Abel discuss the disappearance.

Louise psyches up for her performance.

THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE SHOW BUSINESS

Jane Jackle, Tim Mann, and Jason McCune earned Underclassmen Choir Band Honors while Troy Wening, Kevin Sherman, and Kevin Voigt earned Underclassmen Band Honors.

QUILL

AND SCROLL

The J-Staff's main objective is to capture the special memories each of us has during high school. In order to meet this goal, the J-Staffers have worked extra hard to sell ads, more yearbooks, and organize the first annual Yearbook Spirit Dance for the boys' basketball sectional. All of these fundraisers have helped to pay for the "Jasper Wildcats" cover, the special senior pages, and artwork. Another goal was to try to give sports and clubs better coverage. Improvements in writeups and photography have also been made. Next year, many improvements will be made because of you, our customers.

Thanks to Mr. Noblitt, our staff was able to have pictures taken at the Zinger Waterslide at Patoka Lake.

Row 1: Scott Blackwell, Brian Drew, John Drew, Bob Drew, Joe Kluesner, Coach Stanton. Row 2: David Helseth, Kevin Cox, Kurt Hief, John Vogt, Kevin Hilgefert, Eric Hall.

At the end of the season, there were many swimmers who qualified for the state meet at the IUPUI Natatorium. They are as follows: John Vogt—diving, Bob Drew—200 individual medley, 100 back, and 400 freestyle. John Drew—200, 1500, and 400 free relay, and Joe Kluesner in the 400 free relay.

Bob Drew set school records in the 100 back, 200 individual medley, 100 free, and sectional records in the 100 back and 200 individual medley. School records were set by John Drew in the 500 free and by John Vogt in diving.

The season ended strongly and positive feelings were conveyed for next year. John Drew gave invaluable help and leadership in accomplishing goals. Each swimmer made great progress and did so by giving up a lot of free time.

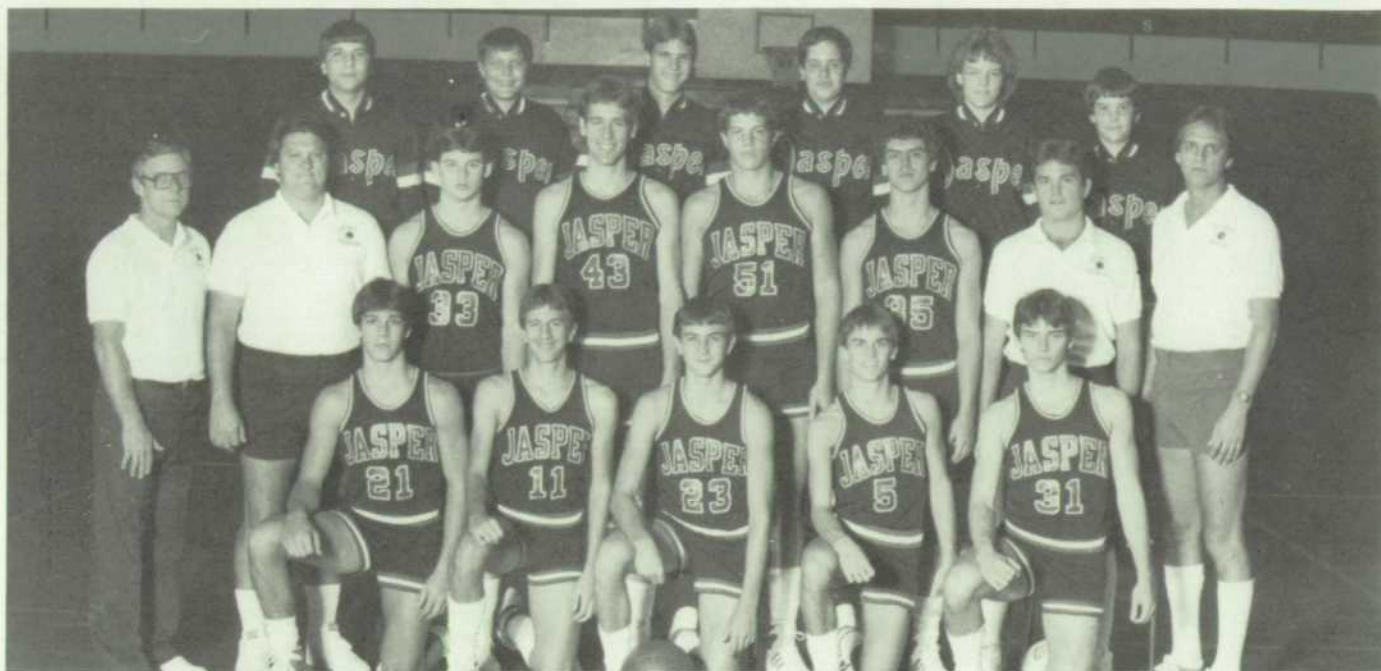

Help me—I'm drowning!

A YEAR OF INTENSITY

From the opening tip-off to the final horn, the meaning of the word INTENSITY was pounded into each player's mind. INTENSITY means mentally preparing for each game and consistently working hard. INTENSITY also means playing a hard-nosed man-to-man defense and an inventive motion offense. For the most part, Coach Hecklinski feels the team adjusted well to what he taught them.

Individually, Steve Nordhoff led in scoring (13.3 ppg with a .548 fg %), rebounding (9.8 per game), and earned MVP honors. Todd Ballenger closed in on Steve with a 13.0 ppg average and earned the distinction of being the top free throw shooter in Indiana (76 for 82, .927%). Jeff Stenftenagel knew what Coach meant when it came to hustling and diving after loose balls. Jason Stamm, team leader, prided himself in taking a charge and ballhanding. For being a guard, Tom Bell did well on the boards (3rd overall) and was 2nd in assists. Coach can be proud of Jayme Erny, whose attitude was to put everything on the line. Leading in assists was Scott Rees (40 for the season). Brian Wininger was Jasper's hard working clutch player in the many 4th quarter comebacks.

Bell's dead eye shots were devastating near the end of the season.
Nurdy and Princeton's Vichter go at it strong.

CARTER'S KIDS WORK HARD TO IMPROVE

Scott Rees shared ball handling honors with senior Jason Stamm.

Overall Coach Bob Carter's young JV team was 8-12 this year, but sometimes the final outcome of wins vs. losses doesn't really show how hard the game was played or how close the final scores were. Adjustments to a new motion offense and a stingy defense were major obstacles that the boys worked hard to improve on. Evidence of improvement is shown by contrasting the record before Christmas (2-6) and after (6-6). Highlights included the defeat of Evansville Memorial and Southridge. Leading scorer was Phil Mehringer (9.8 ppg), and ball handler Jason Lents received credit for the most assists. Mike Ficker hit the boards the most, and Max Verkamp earned the Mr. Hustle Award.

Steve and Scott create an unbeatable trap.

Coach and the ref have a slight disagreement.

FROSH HUSTLE ALL FOUR QUARTERS

Coach Sonny Lents feels his players hustled and worked hard. Evidence of this is shown by the A Team record of 12-4 and the B Team record of 11-4. The Frosh Team advanced to the semi-final round of the Big 8 Tourney, but lost to eventual champ Vincennes. The Cats dominated Southridge with a 17-4 1st quarter lead and won that game by 15 pts. They also put on an offensive show in the defeat of Springs Valley 61-59.

Throughout the year, Todd improved his defensive skills.

6-1 junior Brian Wininger contributed 26 field goals and 37 free throws for a yearly total of 89 points.

GIRLS HAVE A REBUILDING SEASON

Lisa sprints up the court.

Audrey and Janet get ready to rebound.

The girls' basketball team improved from a 6-13 to a 9-11 record during the 84-85 season. Coach Musselwhite felt that the team had improved overall from last season. Cheryl Lehmkuhler was the leading scorer for the past two seasons, finishing third in career scoring. Dana Lehmkuhler set the field percentage record with her career of over 80%. The varsity team's main goal was to have a winning season, which they didn't quite achieve. However, they did improve their play from the year before. The junior varsity nearly reached their goal of an undefeated season, losing only 4 games. Coach Musselwhite felt that the junior varsity played close to their ability and had a very fine season.

JV GIRLS HAVE A GREAT SEASON!

Row 1: Ann Lechner, Lisa Ernst, Kerry Klem, Sheila Bieker. Row 2: Mrs. Brandt, Maria Thacker, Christy Rolen, Molly Niehaus, Laurie Knies, Lisa Rohlman, Coach Musselwhite.

17TH CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASON

A RECORD of 15-2 complements a string of consecutive winning seasons that started 17 years ago. Add on Coach Rick Stenftenagel's undefeated reserve season this year, all which proves the wrestlers don't know how to lose. The Cats placed 2nd in the conference and won the sectional. The Cats have won the sectional 12 out of the 17 since years wrestling became a high school sport. Scholarship winners were Jeff Lechner, Paul Lehmkuhler, Ryan Mitchell, and Bob Welp. Conference winners were Jim Gudorf, Mike Soellner, and Todd Armstrong.

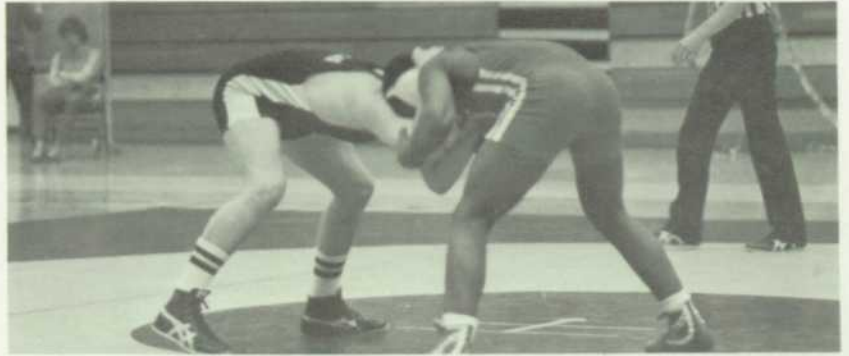

Cats defeated Southridge 38-15.

Angie, Louisa, and Cheryl prepare for their events in the Bedford North Lawrence Regional.

Goals were set very high for the girls' team this year mainly because of the fact that the team had quite a few seniors who knew what it was like to win. Practice started early this year. If the weather was too cold or rainy, they ran in the halls of the high school. The addition of many talented freshmen made the team very strong and provided depth which won many meets. The 1600 meter relay team, Angie, Louisa, Missy, Lisa, and alternate Kristie, made it to state. Nicki, Cheryl K., Cheryl H., and Cheryl L., qualified for the regional. The Cats completed their goals by winning the sectional.

Cheryl Keusch earned Most Valuable Player in track thanks to her mad dashes in the 100 and 200 over the past four years.

Since there weren't many upperclassmen to carry the load, the boys' track team had to rely on underclassmen strength. Coach Brewer, Coach Nance, and Coach Carter tried to get the boys to develop that strength and depth. Overall, they fared well. John Sander and Brian Bartley survived the rain and aggressive competition at Bloomington and advanced to the regional.

The Wildcat Netters completed an undefeated season, and were ranked 20th in the state entering the sectional. The team captured the Big 8 crown and were highly favored to win the sectional. The Wildcats advanced to the finals, but were stopped in a loss to Dubois. Jan Dupps, undefeated this season, and Dana Lehmkuhler provided leadership and experience to the underclassmen.

This year's season ended with a 23-8 record. The Cats tied for first in the Big 8 conference with a 6-1 record. The regular season was finished with 11 consecutive wins and 5 of the 11 were shut out games. Along with a 9-2 pitching record, senior Rick Rasche had an E.R.A. of 1.18. Junior outfielder Todd Ballenger led the team in hitting with a .358 average. Sophomore Phil Mehringer followed Todd with a .326 batting average. The Cats outscored their opponents 174-88, outhit them 226-155, and outbatted them with a team average of .285 to their opponents' .201.
