Prom Night

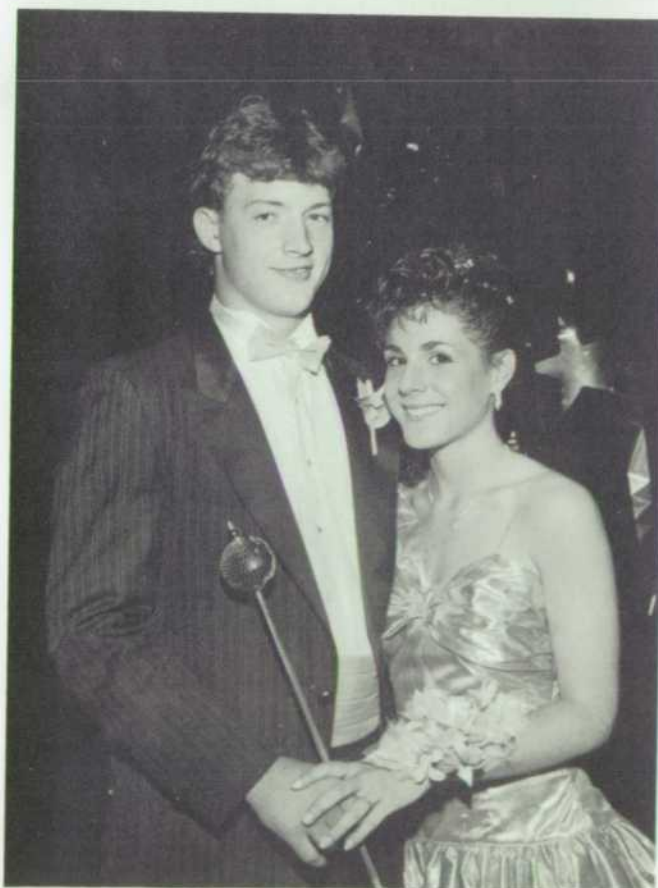

April 30, 1988

The theme of Prom 1988 was "I've had the time of my life." The music, provided by Terry Tunks, added a special touch to the evening. Karla Wessel and Matt Buettel were crowned queen and king, while Adam Mitchell and Dana Lautzenhizer were crowned prince and princess. Prom was very nicely decorated this year especially with the colors of royal blue and silver illuminating the atmosphere of the cafeteria and the gym.

Karla Wessel and Matt Buettel are pictured as queen and king of the 1988 Prom.

John Herzog and Jeff Gramelpacher boogie the night away with their dates in style.

Brad Wehr and Jane Nordhoff share a special moment, something that prom does to many couples.

David Quiroga and his date look really entranced because of the special night.

Sherry Miller shares a moment with one of her friends as to what she thinks of the prom.

Pryce Arvin and Dave Helseth decide to experiment with the punch bowl, as Jason McCune decides to keep his mouth shut about the situation.

A ratio of four girls to one guy is not a good formula for dancing.

Lisa Ernst and Jason Mehringer share an intimate moment as many couples do during their romantic prom night.

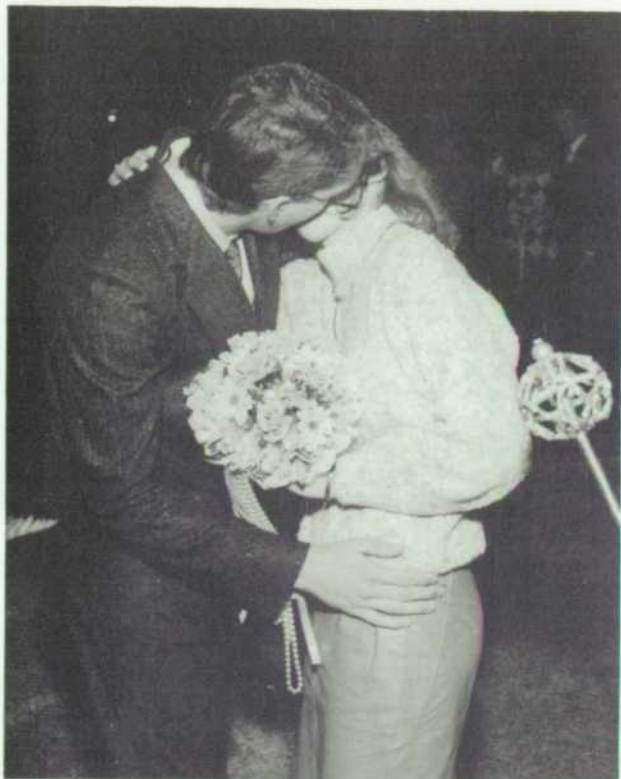

BARBIE AND MONTE CROWNED

On October 16, 1987, Monte Striegel and Barbie Nonte were crowned King and Queen of Football Homecoming. As the Jasper High School Marching Band played the theme "Always," the Court walked across the field. Brian Drew crowned Barbie and Ann Lechner crowned Monte. Tammy Giesler introduced the court.

Brian Drew gives Barbie Nonte the crowning kiss.

Ann Lechner makes Monte Striegel official king by sealing him with a kiss.

Senior Court: Matt Bueltel, Karla Wessel, Kelli Schmitt, Monte Striegel, Barbie Nonte, and Mike Bell.

Junior Court: Steve Hoffman, Angie Bauer, Michelle Fowler, and Todd Hurst.

Sophomore Court: Brian Voges, Allison Waddell, Valerie Yates, and Keith Witte.

Freshman Court: Jay Hamlin, Emily Tanner, Anne Blackwell, and Steve Lukemeyer.

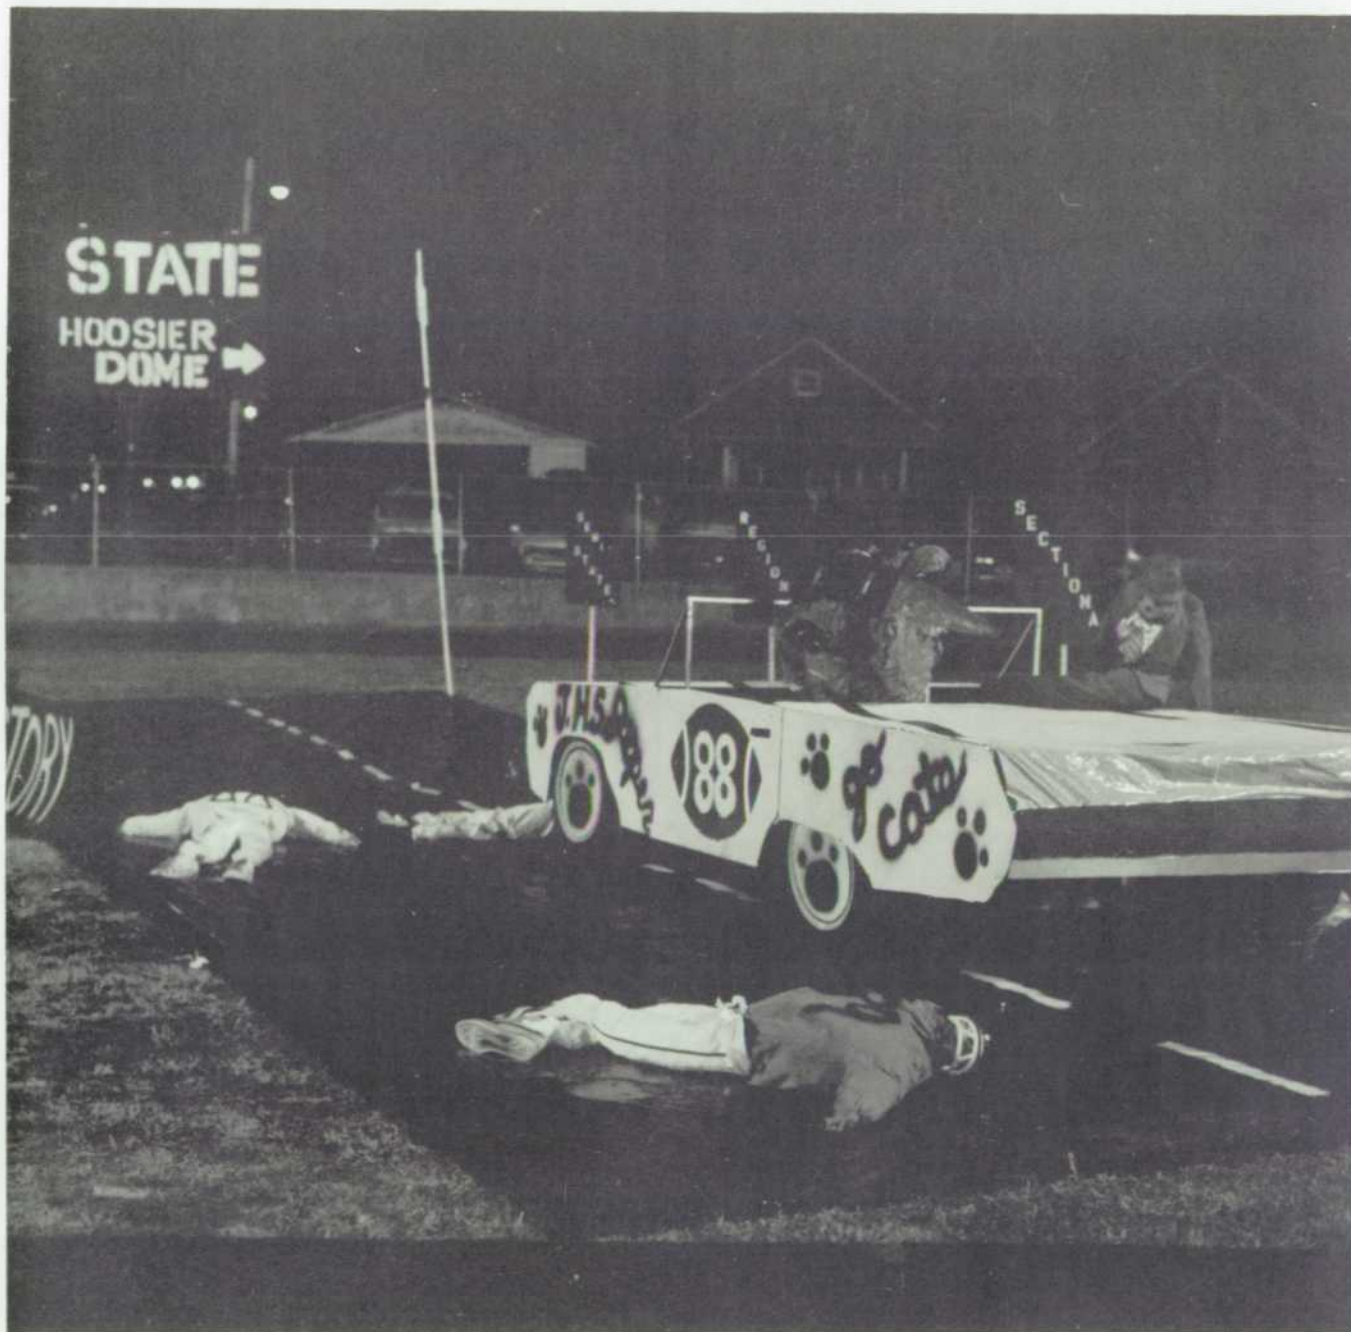

Brian Drew and Ann Lechner had the honor of crowning the king and queen.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING DISPLAYS

The 1987 Football Homecoming displays were very successful. Congratulations to the Sophomores for winning the Football Homecoming Display Contest.

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING: "POWER OF LOVE"

Matt Bueltel and Karla Wessel were crowned King and Queen of the 1988 Basketball Homecoming. On January 29, 1988, Emily Thyen and Chad Hurm crowned Karla and Matt, and Lesley Flannagan introduced the court. The theme song, "Power of Love," was sung by Alice Wehrle. Troy Wening, Brian Guillaume, Carter Cates, and Alan Schnarr played the song.

SENIORS: Matt Bueltel, Karla Wessel, Greg Mathies, Jill Katter, Craig Blessinger, and Brenda Loepker.

JUNIORS: Chris Henke, Holly Kluemper, Kris Bishop, and Annette Schwenk.

SOPHOMORES: Matt Weinzapsel, Nikki Litherland, Lance Haas, and Karen Boyles.

FRESHMEN: Nathan Schmitt, Hillary McClure, Todd Fromme, April Resenbeck

SENIORS

Senior Officers for the Class of 1988 were as follows—President: Chad Hurm; Vice President: Brian Drew; and Secretary/Treasurer: Ann Lechner. According to Vice President Brian Drew, "The Class of 1988 is a class of ambitious people. We like going for excellence and setting high goals to strive for." Secretary/Treasurer Ann Lechner adds, "Our class has achieved high standards in both athletics and academics. This year we had various teams and individuals compete for State championships." In addition, "Our class is the first to graduate from JHS with four valedictorians." In conclusion, President Chad Hurm advises the underclassmen to "work hard, because you are what you make of yourself."

While Staci Wehr is deeply engrossed in her metal enameling project, Jill Erny shares some of her scientific knowledge.

Angie Schuetter exchanges an accounting answer with Connie Whitson, while Jerrille Harville shouts his disapproval.

SENIOR DANCE

The Senior Dance was a big hit this year thanks to the great music by WRTB and the delicious food of the P.T.O. Senior Class Prophecies were also handed out ... Only time will tell which ones will come true!!

Senior guys kick back and relax as they enjoy the last dance of the year.

Phil Wagner, a.k.a. Bruno, shows his enthusiasm after he receives his award as "The Ultimate Slob."

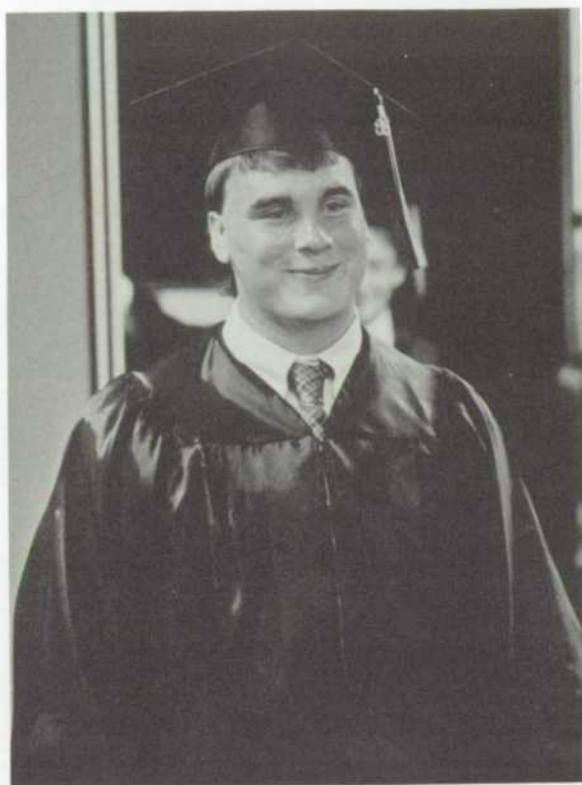

Chris Rasche shows the "Biggest Beer Gut" of the Class of '88 to a cheering crowd of seniors.

Graduation

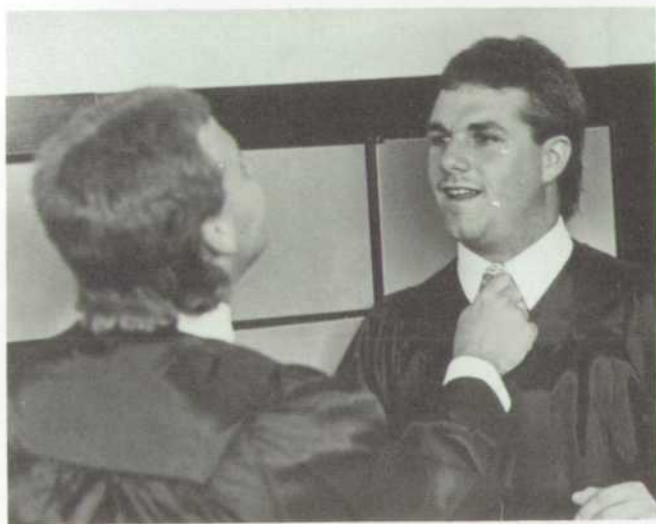

On May 27, 1988, the graduating class of Jasper High School received their diplomas. This year's commencement exercises were especially memorable with Chris Friedman, Jon Lehmkuhler, Mike Waddell, and Monique Winkler as the four valedictorians.

Ann Lechner proudly led the graduates in the Pledge of Allegiance during the opening of the commencement exercises.

Greg Mathies flashes a "spunky grin" to the camera when asked if he's looking forward to the evening's festivities.

Is Phil Wagner wearing a "Bruno clip-on" or is that the real thing? Bobby Sternberg decides to find out.

A few senior guys make some last minute adjustments as they await the beginning of commencement.

Kristy Humbert, Lori Hoffman, Ann Verkamp, and Jane Nordhoff were the lovely flower girls for the Class of '88.

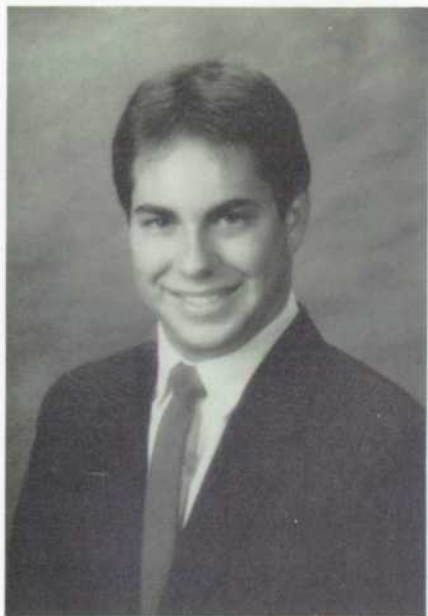

As the class listened to a guest speaker, mixed emotions were reflected on the seniors' faces during this special moment in their lives.

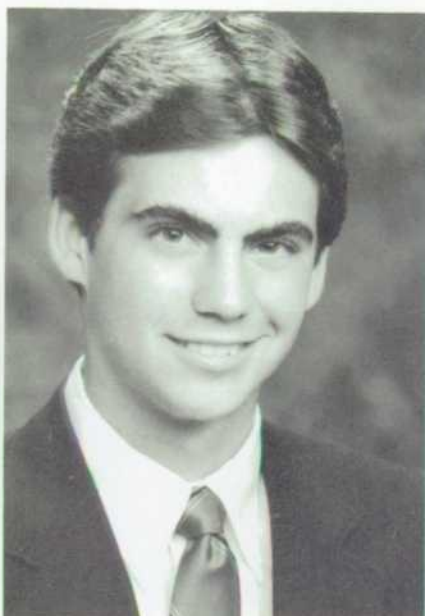

The Class of 1988 will always treasure their shared experiences of the past four years. We would like to wish them much happiness and success in the future!

“JHS says Goodbye to Retiring Teachers”

Mr. Al Schuler

Mr. Bill Bassler

Mr. Jim Holler

Mr. Al Schuler has taught at Jasper High School for 38 years. He has taught various science courses and was head of the Science Department.

A ninth grade teacher at Henryville High School inspired Mr. Schuler to pursue a career in teaching. Following graduation from Henryville High School, he went on to earn his B.S. degree from Purdue University and his M.S. degree from Indiana University.

Mr. Schuler especially likes "being around smart minds" and communicating with youths at an early age and then observing that many fulfill ambitions in various scientific fields.

Mr. Schuler's wife, Rosina, is retiring from teaching music at Tenth Street School this year. Together they plan to travel and pursue other interests which teaching has not provided time for. Mr. Schuler was also the 1988 Teacher of the Year. We wish him many happy years to come.

Mr. William Bassler taught at Jasper High School for 28 years. He taught Latin and was head of the Foreign Language Department. He also taught English.

According to his students, his classes were enjoyable because he mixed educational lectures with other learning activities. His vast knowledge of Latin and English, as well as French and Spanish, provided him with an extensive vocabulary, which he increased daily by "reading the dictionary." His genuine concern for the well-being of his students and his diversity of teaching approaches made him a favorite teacher throughout the years.

Traveling tops the list of activities Mr. Bassler has planned for his retirement. We wish him many happy years.

Mr. James Holler has taught at Jasper High School for 18 years. He has taught many band classes.

One of the things that he enjoyed most about teaching was working with the concert and jazz programs. He also enjoyed the numerous contests and trips.

A message he wants to leave with us is to take each thing at a time. He hopes that Jasper High School can continue to grow musically by getting involved in solos and ensembles. Perhaps, exclaims Mr. Holler, musicianship will carry our students to greater heights outside of Jasper High School.

We wish him many happy years to come.

SPORTS

Cheerleaders

"GO, CATS, GO!" are famous words from the Jasper Wildcat Cheerleaders who not only cheer, but also show school spirit, enthusiasm, and support for our many teams. The Varsity squad is led by Senior Barbie Nonte with three senior and three juniors girls. Along with the varsity squad are the guy cheerlifters consisting of Paul Hedinger, Jon Harder, Mark Henke, Brian Freyberger, Jon Lehmkuhler, Mark Dutchess, Craig Blessinger, Greg Mathies, Jacob Rohleder, Kevin Hilgefort, Jon Short, and Lance Haas. Junior Varsity cheerleaders are Lynn Dippel, Emily Tanner, Amy Uebelhor, Karen Boyles, and Karla Boyles. Freshman Cheerleaders are Kristi Bennett, Amy Cox, Jennifer Tunks, Wendy Weber and Heather Taylor. During the summer, the girls attended the Indiana Cheer Camp at DePauw University, winning the spirit award and finishing as one of the top four squads out of 54 participating groups. The sponsor of the cheerleaders is Mrs. Terry Marquis.

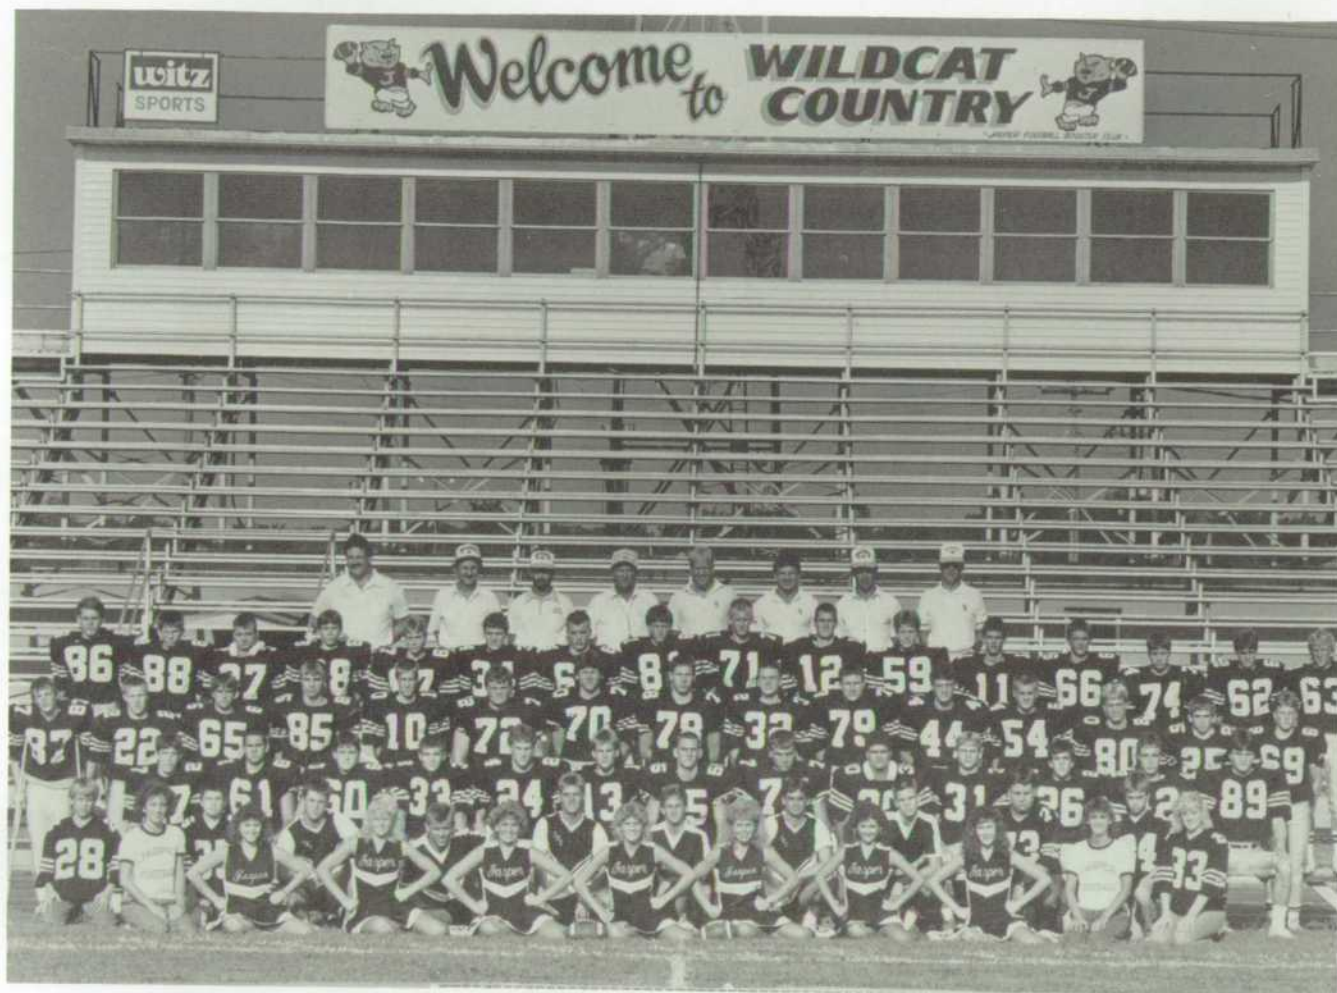

"GO, FIGHT, TEAM!" yell varsity cheerleaders at a football game.

"What's the next cheer?" asks Mark Henke.

Freshman cheerleaders can't believe the action going on among the players on the field.

The onlookers take a break from the action on the field.

With a "Never Say Die" attitude, the Cats held an undefeated Season of 12-0. The team's effort, dedication, and enthusiasm led to success in many ways: Conference, Sectional, Regional, and Semi-State Champions. Senior Brett Wininger was the state's leading rusher, while Senior Mark Sutton broke several passing records. Greg Mathies, Dave Helseth and Brett Wininger were selected All-State. Also, the strength of the squad and encouragement among the players accounted for their effectiveness, said head coach Jerry Brewer.

Senior Scott Eckert hurries to put his helmet on and join the rest of his teammates.

T O T H E D O M E W E G O !

Defensive lineman, Greg Mathies, tried to take down Evansville North's runningback during the Sectional game. The final score was 42-7.

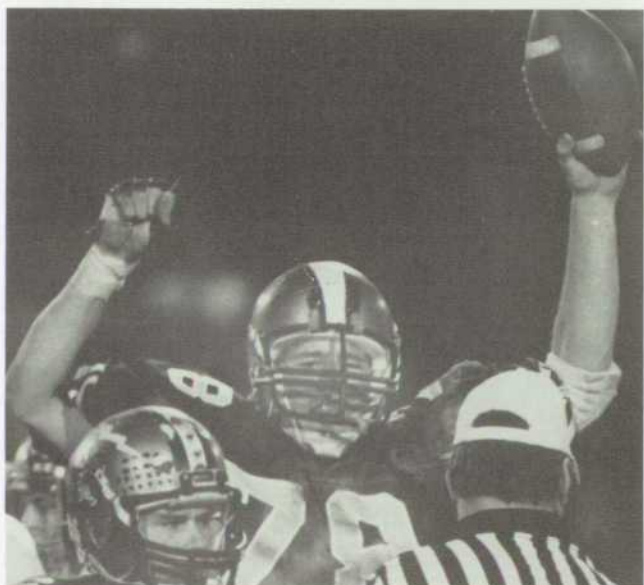

Dreams came true for all the Wildcat players on the team. With a record of 13-0 and 1 to go, the dream of playing ball at the Hoosier Dome against Hobart for the State title was in their hands. Long hours of practice and miles of traveling on the road to away games were all worth their effort. They then played their toughest game ever. But with a defeat of 31-0, the Wildcats maintained their pride and accepted their 1987 State Runner-Up trophy.

During the Regional game against East Central, Craig Blessinger at Defensive end attempted to strip the ball away from the running back, Lee Pettit. The Cats won 16-0.

Dave Helseth and Greg Mathies took down East Central's quarterback for a win of 16-0.

F O O T B A L L

Freshman football is a tough sport. The players practiced hard physically and spent much time trying to achieve a foundation of the basic skills. Due to injuries and illness, the team ended their season with a 3 and 4 record. The two freshman captains were Ben Hasenour and David Huebster who led the team. Overall the team had a great attitude and played well, according to Dennis Forler, coach.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

With a lot of motivation, the Boys' Cross Country Team won the Big 8 Conference, and placed second in the Sectional and Regional, qualifying them for the Semi-State. Three members were named to the All Big 8 Conference Team. They were Brad and Brian Traylor and Rick Kleeman. In the Regional, Brad Traylor beat the course record by 19 seconds, placed 6th in the Semi-State, and placed 17th overall in the State meet. The team captains were Brian and Brad Traylor. They led the team well with much enthusiasm.

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

This year's Girls' Cross Country Team was very young. Running as number one or two was freshman Stacy Leinenbach. Laura Bell, a sophomore, ran as number three or four. The team captains were Juniors Juli Burke and Tracy Messmer. By example, they led the team well. Their main goal of season was to improve and plaee in the Conference. The goal was reached by placing fourth. The team worked hard and displayed a good attitude throughout the season.

Senior Lisa Ernst runs in for the finish.

BOYS' GOLF

Front row, left to right: Derek Sternberg, Chris Jackson, Kurt Uebelhor, Pat Staples, John Ring, and Bob Sternberg. Back row: John Hurst, Richard Kunkel, Larry Schmitt, Jr., Mike Bell, Kenny Wigand, Jerrell Harville, Brian Voges, Greg Streicher and Coach Bob Johnson. Not pictured: Andy Schroeder and Andy Lampert.

The boys' golf team opened with a brand new season and also with nine new holes added to the Municipal Golf Course. Starting off the season with that, the Cats held a 15-4 record. In addition the boys also won the Jasper Invitational and the Sectional. The four senior team captains were Mike Bell, Larry Schmitt, Bobby Sternberg, and Kenny Wigand. The team as a whole maintained a good attitude and played well.

Senior Bobby Sternberg concentrates on his putt for "Birdie"

CATS KEEP UP TO PAR

Front row, left to right: Julie Bellner. Middle row: Cindy Clark, Dana Vonderheit, Staci Wehr, Denise Werne, and Karen Schnierle. Back row: Gennie Allen and Coach Paul East.

This year's team was very young and inexperienced. "Our main goal was to be competitive with the teams in Southern Indiana," stated Coach Paul East. With a seasonal record of 1-4, the girls played strong in the Evansville Sectional, finishing fourth out of eight teams. Senior Staci Wehr finished sixth and came within one stroke of qualifying for the Regional. The team captain was Staci Wehr. The overall attitude of the team was strong and positive, and this attitude helped them achieve their many goals.

The team played in style with five new golf bags and a new mascot, "Garfield."

Juniors Denise Werne and Dana Vonderheit show us their style by putting for "Birdie."

LADY CATS BUMP, SET, AND SPIKE

Front row, left to right: Jennifer Meyer and Jenny Schwenk, student managers, Annette Schwenk, Dana Lautzenhiser, Marchele Englert, Jane Lueken, Stacey Eisenhut, Melissa Greulich, and Andrea Kress, student manager. Back row: Head Coach Pat Zehr, Pam Mehringer, Cheryl Rudolph, Kristie Rolan, Molly Niehaus, Dara Lehmkuhler, Leslie Elliott, Denise Keller, Jane Nordhoff, Kim Arvin, and Assistant Coach Joan Schaeffer.

Great enthusiasm and dedication, according to Coach Pat Zehr, held this inexperienced team together. With a season record of 24-8, the girls also won the Jasper and Evansville Invitational. Senior team captains Cheryl Rudolph, Molly Niehaus, Kristie Rolan, and Dara Lehmkuhler led the team to become Sectional and Regional Champions. Cheryl Rudolph set four school records while Molly Niehaus set three. Both were All-Conference, All Sectional, and All Regional. Dara Lehmkuhler, Kristie Rolan, and Denise Keller were also All Sectional and All Regional. As the season progressed, the team became very competitive, said Coach Zehr.

The Junior Varsity ended its season with a 14-3 record. Eight sophomores shared the responsibility as team captains. The girls fell short in the Forest Park JV Tourney by losing to Mater Dei in the final match. Julie Heeke served 30 aces and had 83 kill assists. Kim Arvin had 49 kills at the net and 8 point blocks. Pam Mehringer led in service reception, and 10 digs came from Melissa Greulich and Nikki Litherland. Overall, stated Coach Joan Schaeffer, the team had an excellent season.

Discussing their strategy are partners Jon Lehmkuhler and Scott Schneider.

With an outstanding record of 23-1, winning the Jasper High School Invitational and the Big 8 Conference, and finishing as the State runner-up, the Cats remained on top throughout the season. Seniors Brian Freyberger and Mark Dutchess held a 29-1 record in #1 doubles, Junior Scott Yarbrough had a 29-1 record in #1 singles, and Senior Jon Lehmkuhler won the Tennis Mental Attitude Award at the State Finals. The team was led by Captains Brian Freyberger and Jon Lehmkuhler. With a lot of dedication, the team showed a desire to achieve many goals. Coach Yarbrough stated the "SUPER" attitude of the team was part of the team's concept all season.

Team Is State Runner-Up

LADY CATS SHOOT WELL!

The Lady Cats show their Wildcat Spirit at the end of the game.

To have a good season and win the Big 8 Conference were just two goals accomplished by this year's girls' basketball team. They finished their best season since 1983 at 17-4. Two of the four losses came to 15th ranked and undefeated Southridge.

This year's team was led by seniors Lisa Ernst, Kristie Rolen, Sheila Bieker, and Molly Niehaus, plus junior Tara Bayer. All five scored the most points per game of any Jasper team and ranked in the top 21 all-time scorers. An individual accomplishment was achieved by Lisa Ernst. She finished her career with the highest points per game average in the school's history, and she was the third all-time leading scorer.

Senior Lisa Ernst looks for an open teammate.

BOYS' SOCCER

Senior Kurt Wanninger tries to kick the ball as his opponent refuses to let go.

Although the sport soccer is not recognized as a Jasper High School Sport, many students form the team. Dedicating a lot of their time, effort and hard work, the team itself developed from individuals into a cohesive team in which they became more competitive after each game. The seniors of the team were the hardest working and most improved class. They developed into starters and made many contributions. The team opened their season playing against the Evansville Day School and closed it with a loss of 2-1 in the first round of the State playoff.

Front row, left to right: Managers Cindy Clark, Kent Weisheit, Kristie Schepers. 2nd row: Mike Bell, Jason Ahlbrand, Scott Yarbrough, Chris Klem, Brad Dedrick, Paul Hedinger, and Brett Wininger. 3rd row: Coach Ed Yarbrough, Mike Fulton, Brian Seibert, Steve Hoffman, John Nordoff, Chris Nelson, Mark Fulton, Craig Grulich, Coaches Dennis Lewis and Phil Wendel.

This year's boys' basketball team was made up of very competitive players who were dedicated and worked hard. Their mental toughness and strong character paved the way to a winning record of 17-5. They finished 2nd in the Big 8 Conference with a 5-2 record. Also they finished runner-up in the sectionals and had a regular season of 16-4. Mike Bell, Brett Wininger, and Scott Yarbrough were selected to the All Conference team. Scott Yarbrough made the All Sectional 1st team. This year's team was led by Senior Brett Wininger. Coach Ed Yarbrough stated that his team had a "Will to Win".

Winning fifteen games, especially the last four, and the Christmas Tourney were goals accomplished by this year's Junior Varsity team. They ended their season with a record of 15-5. Team Captains were juniors Craig Gruelich, Brad Dedrick, and Brian Siebert. They led the coachable team with a very good attitude. In the last five games freshmen John Lichlyter, Todd Rolen, Micky Williams, and Greg Nordoff were brought in to play. The highlight of the season was a triple overtime win at Harrison.

Senior Chad Hurm gets a grip and remains on top.

Coach Joe Rohleder shouts some words of encouragement.

Starting late in the season due to football, with ten seniors and a great attitude from the rest of the squad, the Cats ended its season with a winning record of 13-5. At the State Tournament, Heavyweight Greg Mathies won the State title and Charlie Tagliareni finished in 6th place. During the season Jacob Rohleder broke the career record for the most takedowns during a season and Greg Mathies was the first to go undefeated in a season and win the State title. This team was led by senior team captains Charlie Tagliareni and Jacob Rohleder.

Greg "Spunky" Mathies holds his Southridge opponent for a Victory pin.

Girls' Track

Over the top of the high jump bar is sophomore Emily Schmidt.

Leslie Elliott grabs the relay stick from Jennifer Meyer.

The girls' track team worked hard this year to perform as a team. As a team they ended their season at 10 wins and 1 loss. They also placed 2nd in the Floyd Central Relay and 4th in the Big 8 Conference. The Senior girls provided the leadership for the team, and winning the Mental Attitude Award was Andrea Kress.

Senior Lisa Ernst pushes as far as she can in the long jump event.

Senior Jane Zoglman takes a flying leap into the sand.

BOYS' TRACK

Middle row: David Hubster, Glen Hopf, Steve Schitter, Brad Hudson, Lance Haas, Jacob Rohleder, Brad Traylor, Tom Kaiser, Kevin Jahn, Nathan Verkamp, and E. G. Bartley. Back row: Assistant Coach Phil Wendel, Head Coach Jerry Brewer, Rick Malone, Carter Cates, Jason Fuhs, Brian Traylor, Craig Blessinger, Greg Matheis, Steve Willoughby, Chris Hopf, Mike Williams, Kurt Wanninger, Brian Matheis, Scott Sutton and Assistant Coach Tony Ahrens.

Ben Hasenour shows his stuff while throwing the shot put.

Coach Phil Wendel and Matt Rendall discuss the last event.

Richard Mitchell sprints fast as he rounds the turn in the relay race.

The boys' track team had a good season. With many hard practices and a lot of determination they made it from the pioneer relay, to the Mt. Vernon Invitational all the way into the Sectional. Leading the team were senior captains Jacob Rohleder and Craig Blessinger. Some favored events in every meet were the mile and the 2 mile run by Brad Traylor, sprints and long jump by Tom Kaiser, hurdles by Chris Vogler, pole vaulting by Brian Mathies, the 800 meter by Rick Malone, and the shot put and discus by Greg Mathies.

Putting the poles away after the pole vaulting event is Junior Brian Mathies.

Leaping over the hurdle is freshman E. G. Bartley.

Sophomore Nikki Litherland gives encouragement to her partner Jill Krapf.

Putting pizzazz on her swing is senior Dana Dupps.

This year's girls' tennis team played well in every event. One of their goals for the season was to place high in the Big 8 Conference. They succeeded in their goal by placing 2nd. Also they ended their season at 10 wins and 5 losses which is very good. All of the teammates provided leadership and encouragement. The Best Player of the Year Award went to Cheryl Rudolph, and Dana Dupps received the Most Valuable Player of the Year Award.

Senior Barbie Nonte waits for partner Dana Lautzenhauser to serve the ball.

BASEBALL

Keeping his eye on the ball, the Jasper hitter gets a base hit.

Senior Brett Winninger watches the pitcher for a possible play.

Playing consistently as a young team, these Cats ended with yet another good season. Climbing the ladder to the top, the Cats started with placing second in the Jasper Invitational, then advancing to win the area sectional. Their final record stood at 21-11. As a young team, they worked hard to play together as a team and to be mentally in the game.

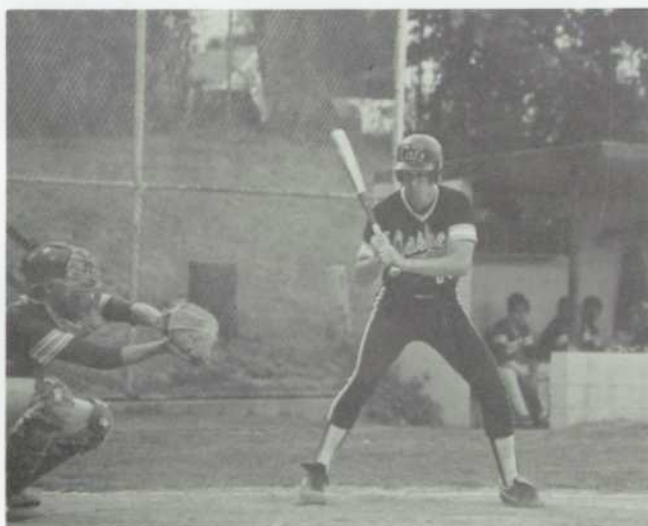

Senior Jon Lehmkuhler listens to coach Terry Gobert give some pointers.

Trying to improve stroke proficiency and swim for their best times were two goals sought by these swimmers. With this in mind, they held a 6-5 record for the season, finishing fourth in the Big 8 conference, and placing fifth in the Sectional. Serving as an excellent team captain was senior Scott Blackwell. He led the team by demonstrating sacrifices in order to excel. Outstanding individual accomplishments were by Scott Blackwell in sprints, senior Brian Drew in the 100 breast stroke, Matt Rendel in the breast and distance free stroke, Rick Kleeman in the IM and distance free stroke, Chad Mehringer in the back stroke, Jim Drew in the fly and distance free stroke, and Ethan Lowe in the breast stroke. Having a positive attitude enabled the team to reach their goals and enjoy the competition.

Coming up for air, Senior Brian Drew makes a turn for another lap.

THE GIRLS SWIM IN SUCCESS!

Front row, left to right: Courtney Schwenk, Amy Gettelfinger, Allison Tagliareni, Shandena Mills, Valerie Yates, Emily Tanner, and Dana Dupps. Back row: Assistant Coach Terri Marquis, Candi Watkins, Amy Sermersheim, Kristy Bennett, Kathy Bennett, Anne Blackwell, Sarah Blackwell, Kristin Gutsell, Susan Mattingly, Tiffany McClure, and Head Coach Kevin Stanton. Not pictured Emily Schmid.

Confidence and a positive attitude kept this team working together as a unit. Their successful season ended 13-1. They finished first in the New Albany Invitational, seventh in the Columbus Invitational and third in the Tell City Relay. The team lost one dual meet and placed second in the Conference, and third in the Sectional. Seniors Dana Dupps and Tiffany McClure were the team captains keeping everyone together, taking care of team activities, and setting proper examples. Shandena Mills was a Novice Diver who finished fourth in the Sectional. Swimming their best times, the girls developed as a team achieving their goals.

SADD

SADD's main purpose is to save lives! The goal of the group is to make young people aware of the dangers of drinking and driving. In order to reach this goal, the club has sponsored community alcohol awareness programs. For those who have concerns about drinking and driving, the SADD programs can offer great help.

Just prior to Prom and graduation, posters which were displayed throughout the school presented powerful messages and graphic artwork about the results of drunk driving.

FRIENDS DON'T LET FRIENDS DRIVE DRUNK!

Color Guard

Row One: Dana Wehr, Emily Thyen, Julie Hoffman, Missy Skaggs, Karen Garland, Elaine Gutsell, Jill Katter. Row Two: Amy Spangler, Angie Klee, Evie McCoy, Karen Hildenbrand, Amy Beckman, Renae Schuetter, Brandy Blaize.

The Winter Guard competed and participated in many activities this year. The guard did pregame for every home basketball game. They also competed in many Color Guard contests at various schools.

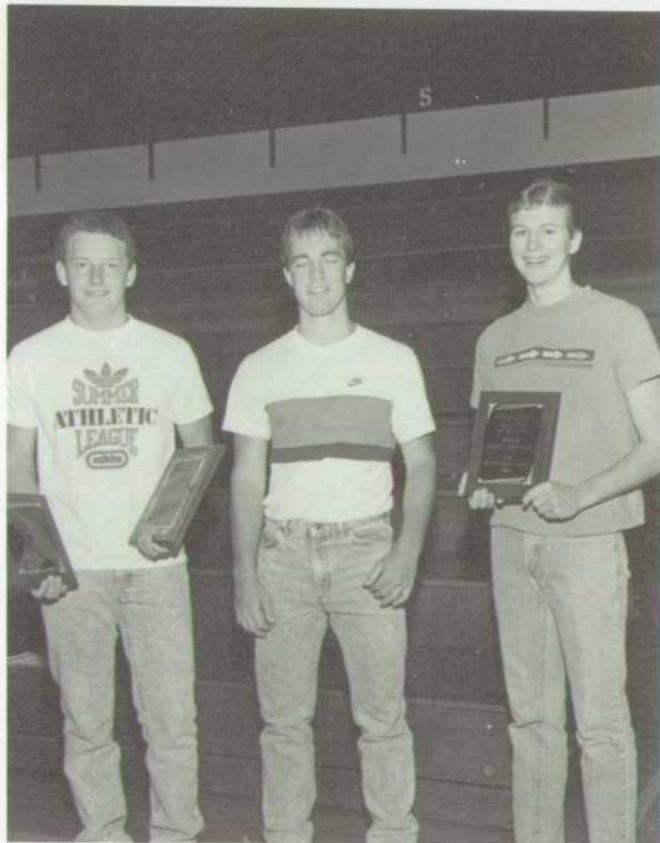

The guard is considered part of the band, but members use flags, rifles, and other different equipment instead of instruments. Garry Sprinkle and Phil Fleming coordinated group routines to music, and also advised the group.

Senior Color Guard Award: Jill Katter

Jayteens

Row One: Jeff Gramelspacher, Jeff Fortwendel, Chris Klem—internal vice-president, Brian Freyberger—treasurer, Kevin Neuhoff—president, Kenny Wigand—secretary, Craig Blessinger—external vice-president, Mark Buechlein, Chad Kieffner. Row Five: Ben Hasenour, Nathan Schmitt, Todd Fromme, Chad Hardin, Brent Weisman, Frank Philips, Chris Weisman, Jamie Clark, Chris Recker, Chris Friedman, Blake Voegerl.

The Jayteens have several activities. January 22, Jayteens sponsored a TOGA dance. From February to March the club sponsored a Scholarship Fund Drive. At Christmas time community projects included Christmas Caroling and sending flowers to Nursing Home residents; bingo at the Providence Home; and clean-up for Strassenfest. Other activities included Kimball picnics, a summer dance, and donations to charity.

Barry Weisman, Chris Recker, and Blake Voegerl have been outstanding members. The individual work each member does helps that member gain points to enhance his chance of receiving a scholarship his senior year. Any one Jayteen could receive up to one thousand dollars toward his college education.

Co-Jayteens-of-the-year: Barry Weisman and Chris Recker. The awards were presented by Kevin Neuhoff.

Jayteenettes

The Jayteenettes are affiliated with the Jasper Jaycees headed by Juanita Boehm and Liz Bowman. Under President Cheryl Rudolph's direction, the Jayteenettes had a successful 1987-1988. Their involvement with the Jasper Sommerfest and Strassenfest has helped them a great deal. Other social activities such as the Scavenger Hunt and Kimball picnics have helped the Jayteenettes become a better community club. The March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon, work for the Easter Seals Society, and Christmas caroling at nursing homes and the Providence Home helped them to become recognized as an outstanding club.

The Octagon Club has sponsored many events this year. Each summer the club helps in the elephant ear stand which is sponsored by the Optimist Club. The Members held a Halloween dance at JHS and a Christmas party at the Providence Home.

The Club sponsored the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon and the Phone-a-thon. The Octagon members also helped at the Red Cross Blood Drive. The club sold video coupon books and calendars to raise money.

A special thanks goes to Dawn Herring for all the effort she put into the club's scrap book.

J-Staff

The Jasper High School Yearbook is created under the advice of Mrs. Clara Fromme and Mrs. Sue Ann Burns. Mr. Robert McCarty and Associates were also a big part of the yearbook. They have helped us with taking pictures and developing them. We cannot forget the staff members. They have put in many hours after school on Tuesdays and have taken work home to be completed. Dedication is a big factor of being a part of the Yearbook Staff.

Each year the Yearbook seems to be improved by putting Seniors in color, writing better captions, or taking better pictures. We have also had to raise the price of yearbooks and of ad prices. The J-Staff has tried to reach many goals this year. We hope we have succeeded.

We Made It Happen!

SENIORS IN ACTION

Is Chris Friedman trying to ignore Karla Wessel?

Larry Schmidt, Chris Schmitt, Stephanie Brixey, and Kelli Schmitt wait for the bell to ring.

Kim Uebelhor, Mindy Giesler, Lisa Hurst, and Michelle Luegers really want their pictures taken.

Carmen Jones wonders what her friend is up to.

FRESHMEN

Jeff Pund and classmate listen to Mr. Yarbrough's lecture.

Kurt Meyer, Jeff Hayes, Jeff Pund and Bert Forler can't wait for school to start.

It looks as if this freshman science class is hard at work.

These freshman guys are a little camera shy! Who are the bashful boys behind the books?

Chemistry class provides a challenge for Denise Keller, Nathan LaGrange, Richard Mitchell, and Kevin Vogler.

The cameraman takes Candi Watkins and Jill Krapf by surprise.

Doing tricks on his bike is Eric Gadlage's after-school hobby.

Laura Freeman listens to "Dirty Diana" on Mrs. Fromme's headphones.

Amy Forbes tries to find something in her purse.

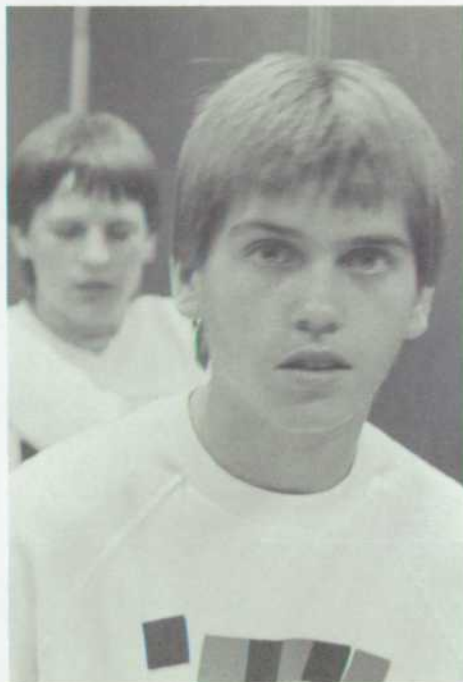

Zach Ziliak and Jay Scheerle fight over who gets to sit by Brian Wright.

Sophomores

The camera takes Phil Matthews by surprise as he and Rex Weisheit enter the room.

Jay Scheerle wins again!

JUNIORS

Ann Verkamp tries to remember the answers for her history test.

Fred Rouston tells Kristin Gutsell a joke while she's trying to study.

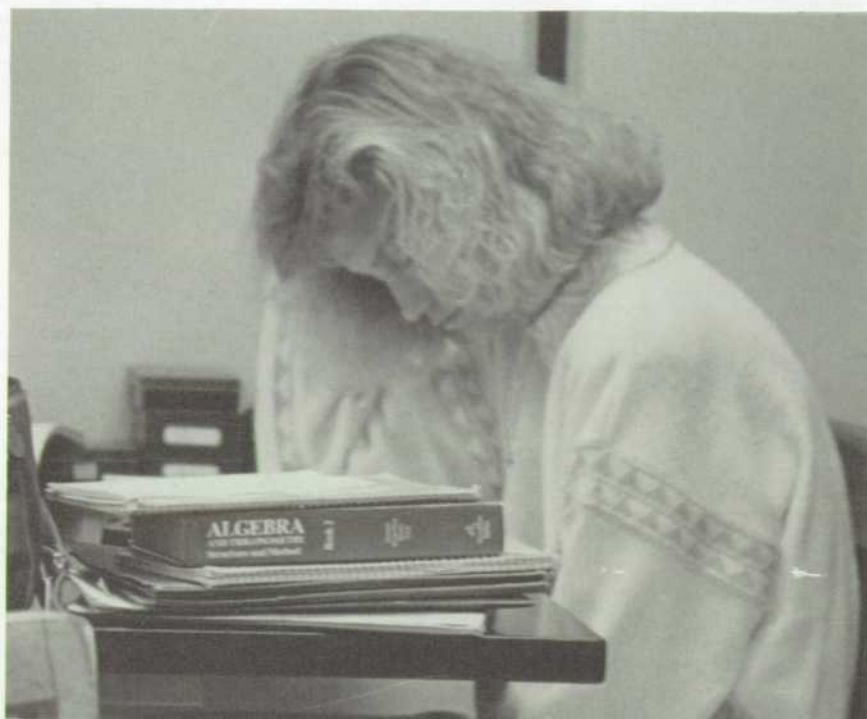

Phil Fleck smiles for the camera as he dances with his date at Prom.

Tracy Kippenbrock walks with Jennifer Borden and Mary Reynolds after lunch.

SENIORS

Kourtney Hochgesang catches up on her sleep after an apparently late night of studying.

Mindy Geisler suppresses a giggle while attempting to finish her homework.

While working in the computer room, Connie Whitson and Missy Mathies try to discover the secret of how to change their grades.

Brian Drew does his good deed for the day by helping out in the Science Department.

Seniors in Mr. Johnson's Government class are overjoyed as tests are handed back.

INDIANA MEDIA FAIR AWARDS: The Consumer Education Class, taught by Mrs. Gayle Jochum, wrote, produced, and directed original TV commercials. Students presenting the project at the Regional Media Fair at Evansville were Amy Cox, Tina Hopf, and Courtney Schwenk. The entry received a superior rating, and it was then presented at the State Media Competition in Indianapolis. It received third place in the category of Video Media Competition.

Producers, directors, and actors were class members Channa Meyer, Kristie Hoffman, Stacy Robbins, Julie Persohn, Junior Schreiner, Amy Jo Mehringer, Kena Meyer, Tracey L. Schmitt, Brian Gagne, Jill Ficker, Lisa Keller, Jason Pierce, Charnel Schneider, Rachelle Owens, Lisa Freeman, Michelle McGuffey, Amy Schmalenberger, Angie Bridgewater, Paula Kuebler, Rhonda Helfter, and Michelle Lindsay.

Jill Katter worries about what she will get on a test she just took Tonya Lee turns to ask Jeff Schepers a question.

Is Tracey Sermersheim really studying or thinking about some guy?

CONGRATULATIONS

WE MADE IT HAPPEN . . .

Each year the Yearbook Staff tries to put together remembrances for each class to treasure forever.

I would like to thank the staff for all the dedication they have shown throughout the year. Mrs. Clara Fromme and Mrs. Sue Ann Burns need to be thanked by everyone because without their support and guidance we would not have a yearbook.

The staff would also like to thank Mr. Robert McCarty and Associates for all the time they spent taking and developing pictures. We also need to thank Mrs. Brandt, Mrs. Voges, and Mrs. Lechner. Through their dedication we get even the toughest jobs accomplished.

The parents of staff members also need to be thanked for coming to pick them up every Tuesday and for putting up with all the work they do at home.

There is a great responsibility in being on the Yearbook Staff. I can not stress that enough. I had no idea how much time and work went into making a yearbook. It takes a lot of effort from a staff. You have to show up for after-school meetings and even take work home to be finished.

Each year we have new ideas and hope to make the yearbook even more special. We hope we have succeeded in making the yearbook even better this year.

THANK YOU,

Christine Kiefer, Editor
