I am... A JEEP

In order to have a jeep as a mascot, a school must be unique. At Northeast Dubois, that is what we are. Our community stands strong behind our school system and everything that it represents. We are all unique in our own ways. Each person speaks different words, participates in different activities, and achieves their own goals. It is those who choose to help others with their journey that speak loudly, not in voice, but through choices. The words 'I am' have the ability to describe all of us . It is what we choose to put after those two words that changes everything.

Sunrise School Spirit

Each school that participates in the 14 News Sunrise School Spirit is required to create a food sculpture using the donated goods the schools donated to the Tri-State Food Bank. Our sculpture consisted of over 18,000 pounds of food, what an accomplishment!

Many students gathered in the gymnasium to participate in the pep rally directly related with the Sunrise School Spirit Challenge. The gym was filled with spirit members of our corporation.

A vast amount of activities had been planned to be completed during our rally. Tug of war was just one of them. Pre-selected students from each grade level, elementary all the way up to seniors, participated in the tug of war competition.

The theme of our pep rally challenge was "Happy 80th Birthday Eugene." We used this theme in several ways. Our food sculpture was a birthday cake and cupcakes for Eugene's birthday. Some of the elementary students even joined Eugene in singing happy birthday to him.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Adrienne Betz who earned a Division 1 Gold Medal at the ISSMA Solo and Ensemble at North Meridian High School on February 18, 2017 singing the song "Into the Night"

WOULD YOU RATHER?

Take a trip to the Bahamas or Hawaii?

Maggie Stephenson

"I would rather go to the Bahamas because America is about to be out of wack, so I'd rather leave the country."

Duplicate yourself or be invisible?

Ross Butler

"I would rather be invisible because I can steal candy from kids on the playground."

Drive a clean car or dirty truck?

Austin Palmer

"I would like a clean car because I wouldn't have to clean it all the time."

Inherit a mansion or $10 million?

Amberly Jacob

"I would rather inherit $10 million because I can buy whatever I want."

Live by the beach or in the woods?

Madison Voegerl

"I would rather live in the woods because it's more cooler in the woods and it's peaceful."

To coffee or not to coffee?

39
NO

35
YES

We surveyed the entire junior class to find out if we all indulged in the art of coffee drinking, or if not.

35 students, a little under half, take part in coffee drinking; while a little over half (39 students) do not.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF CHAD KNIES 1999-2017

MY FAVORITE MEMORIES ARE JUST BEING WITH CHAD. IT WAS ALWAYS VERY INTERESTING. I LIKED FARMING AND HANGING OUT, TALKING ABOUT GIRLS AND EVERYTHING ELSE. HE WILL BE VERY MISSED.
-CURTIS GRESS

"YOU'RE GONNA MAKE ME CUSS."

THE FLOOR BOARD IS THERE FOR A REASON, USE IT.

HIS BEARDED MEN ARE SEXY SHIRT

CHAD HELPED ME WITH MY DISTRICT X CONTEST PRESENTATION. HE ASKED IF I WAS REALLY NERVOUS, AND I SAID 'YEAH.' HE TOLD ME, 'STOP BEING A PRY!!! YOU'RE GONNA WIN IT FOR ME!' HE ASKED ME AS SOON AS I WALKED IN HOW I DID, AND I SAID I WON 3RD. CHAD THREW UP HIS ARM AND SAID, 'GOOD ENOUGH FOR ME!' HE ALWAYS SAID THE PLACE I WON WAS ALL HIS.
-MELANIE ROBERTS

"OH, I REALLY GOTTA TAKE THIS ONE, IT'S IMPORTANT," AS HE ANSWERED THE PHONE.

ME AND CHAD HAD A LOT OF GOOD TIMES, WILD NIGHTS, AND OF COURSE THE USUAL 'SUNDAY FUNDAY.' ME AND CHAD HUNG OUT EVERY WEEKEND, FROM THE NORMAL HANGING OUT IN THE SHOP, TO GOING ON A TEAR IN ONE OF OUR TRUCKS, DRIVING AROUND UNTIL WE FOUND A PARTY TO GO TO, OR GOOD TO DO. SOMETIMES, WE WOULD JUST SIT IN HIS BASEMENT, PLAY POOL, AND DRINK. I AM PRETTY SURE IF EITHER ONE OF OUR TRUCKS COULD TALK, WE WOULD BOTH BE IN JAIL.
-KALE ASBELL

MY FAVORITE MEMORY OF CHAD WAS WHEN HE WOULD ALWAYS ARGUE WITH MRS. TERWISKE.
-AUBREY MARKS

ROCKSTARS AND CIGARETTES.
-ROBERT REUTMAN

ONE DAY I WAS AT CURTIS' AND LOGAN HAD A MO-RED, SO CHAD WENT ON IT AND WAS DRIVING IT UP AND DOWN THE ROAD GOING, 'WOOOAAAHHH,' AS HE PULLS IN THE DRIVEWAY AND ABOUT TURNS THE DARN THING OVER.
-PAIGE JACOB

HE ALWAYS GAVE THE WEATHER FORCAST

IF ANYONE ASKS, YOU BACKED INTO ME.
-BRANDON TOLBERT

MY FAVORITE MEMORY WITH CHAD WOULD BE RIDING WITH HIM IN THE DUMP TRUCK. WE WENT BACK TO THE JACOBS' PLACE AND HIS DAD, KENT, WAS SHELLING CORN. HE CALLED ME UP, SO I WENT AND WE WERE TALKING ABOUT ALL HIS GIRLFRIENDS AND LISTENING TO 'ROXANNE.'
-CODY WEISHEIT

ONE OF THE THINGS I WILL MISS ABOUT CHAD IS WHEN I WAS RUNNING LATE FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, CHAD WOULD BE LEAVING WHEN I WOULD BE COMING TO SCHOOL, AND I WOULD BE LIKE, 'DID THE BELL RING YET?' HE WOULD SAY, 'YES, I'M GETTING THE H OUT OF THIS PLACE!' I WOULD LAUGH AND TELL HIM TO HAVE A GOOD DAY. WE ALL HATE SCHOOL, BUT CHAD HATED IT MOST.
-CARLY TERWISKE

"CAN I CUSS?"

"I DON'T CURR, IT'S FURDAY."

MY FAVORITE MEMORY WITH CHAD WOULD BE ALL OF HIS INTERESTING STORIES HE WASN'T AFRAID TO TELL IN FRONT OF ANYONE. THEN, WHEN SOMEONE TOLD HIM IT WASN'T APPROPRIATE HE WOULD GET ANGRY AND SAY 'CAN I CUSS?'
-LOGAN JACOB

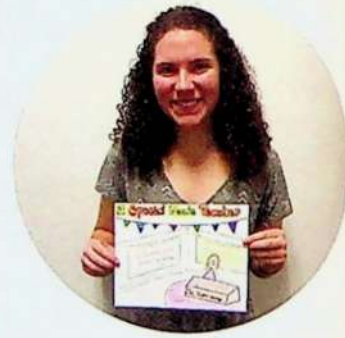

CHAD WANTED TO SHAVE HIS BEARD, SO LA'KIEGHA, PAIGE, AND I WENT ALONG TO RELIGION WITH HIM. AFTER RELIGION, WE WENT TO CURT'S. HE WOULDN'T DO IT FOR THE LONGEST TIME, AND FINALLY CURTY GOT HIM TO DO IT.

Labor of Love

Senior Kale Asbell and Junior Wyllie Neukam made a cross in Mr Friedman's wood working class in honor of a good friend, Chad Knies. The orange painting on the cross was done by Miss Russell. They made this cross to give to his parents Kent and Brenda Knies along with his brother Blake Knies.

Harley Hall joined 1 hour before our 1st competition. The second competition, we placed 2nd in Fine Arts but were given 3rd place ribbons. Mrs. Russell studied with us alot - we will be back next year. Our favorite artist was "Frogman" which is Fraganard who was a painter during the French Revolution Era.

Lisette Moya

Junior, Leslie Moya and Lydia Miller said "We really don't have a favorite picture for face paint, but we had a fun time."

Art Club

Clare Mangin, grade 11, pictured center, ran for a position as a Indiana Beta State Officer this year at our state convention. Even though she did not receive an office, Clare stated that: "Running for an office has opened my eyes to what I can accomplish if I put my mind to it. I never thought that I could give a speech to a ball room full of people, but I did! It was a very satisfying feeling."

Pictured above and below are the winners from State convention that have the opportunity to attend the National Convention in Orlando, Florida this summer.

Becca's Closet, Dubois Chapter

Beautiful dresses, shoes, and accessories. A night on the town, a night to remember. Prom night at any high school is an important one in a girl's life; however, the price of prom can be very overwhelming. The cost of a dress, hair, nails, and shoes can cost upwards of $500, causing some girls to forfeit their extravagant night.

This is a problem that junior, Clare Mangin, wished to solve. She created Indiana's first chapter of Becca's Closet, a non-for-profit organization that supplies economically challenged girls with prom dresses, shoes, and accessories. When asked about what influenced her to begin this chapter, she stated "I was just really motivated one day and wanted to do something that mattered. I came across this website and immediately knew that I wanted to do this."

With the help of our corporation's social worker, Paige Mundy- Clare collected over 200 prom dresses to be distributed to high school girls all around the community. She held a dress drive in January of this year, where 174 dresses were donated by members and businesses around the community.

Harley Hall, the drum major, says the best/most memorable thing about band, besides the actual performance, would be the trips to the competition.

Best band bromance!
McGwire Hale, senior, and Evan Dunning, sophomore.

"We are the band family! We would do anything for each other!"
- Evan Dunning

TOOL TIME

Kirk Steinhart

Kirk has always enjoyed Woodworking with his dad. throughout the class he made a coat rack, nightstand and a table, his favorite part of working with tools is the hands on experience

Nick Burgan

A class from the past

This year a new class is back from the past. Mr Friedman teaches a class of 9 students called Intro to Construction. The main objective is basic woodworking skills, teamwork and drawing skills. He gets the wood from farmers that donate it. The most difficult part of the class is taking an idea from a piece of paper and making it.

Nick started building when he was 7. Depending on the project it took him 1 month, 2 weeks, and 6 months. The hardest part to him is making it look good.

Chase Zehr

Chase has worked with wood ever since he can remember. he uses any type of wood but prefers old oak barnwood, he has made a walking stick, end table, and entertainment center, but his favorite is the end table.

Brent Roberts made this haunted house for his mother, it only took him 5 days.

Brent Roberts

Kale made this coathanger for his mom because she always yelled at him to pick up his coat, it took him about one month to complete.

Kale Asbell

Kale made this barn stable for Mrs Ferguson, it gave him something to work on and be proud of.

Kale made this 2 story birdhouse in about 2 weeks. he really enjoys creating new things and making them look good.

Our winter winds show this year was themed Twisted. The show concept was a mental mind twist, it was really fun and the music was amazing. It was our first year of winter winds and it wasn't very challenging considering the fact that it's basically marching band indoors. We went in to the first competition with a higher score then what we ended with in marching band, but we're planning on pushing harder next year.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes at NDHS orchestrated two days of collective prayer for students and the community to take part in. Prayer Around the Flagpole was held in September where Cameron Gladish spoke, and students led the congregation in various prayers. The dim early morning was illuminated by candle light, as they praised God at this beautiful multi-denominational gathering. National Day of Prayer was held in May where Deacon Mike Seibert spoke and blessed a cross in memory of Chad Knies. Students- Aubrey Marks, Emily Merkley, Adrienne Betz, and Ayane Mundy led the group in the theme song for the National Day of Prayer: "Your Great Name" by Natalie Grant. The band played at both events and created a wonderful vibe that all enjoyed.

French Club & Spanish Club

Foreign Language Week

This year, our Spanish and French clubs put together a whole week with the purpose of celebrating different cultures from around the world. The French club served a lunch of chicken cordon blue to the students, and the Spanish club served chicken on the beach. WE had numerous dress up days such as: Spanish day, French day, International day, and Tourist day. The clubs also put together bulletin boards showing different ethnicities and languages.

FFA

Ever since freshman year Chad Knies, Grade 12, always strongly suggested placing Allis Chalmers on the Tractor Show shirts. To honor him this year, the FFA decided to put Chad's favorite model of Allis Chalmers. The shirt includes the years 1999-2017, and "The Road Gear Farmer" on the front of the tractor.

FFA Week...

During A and B Lunch, students lined up to toss eggs back and forth to their partner.

Mr. Matheis was voted by the student body to "Kiss the Pig" during A Lunch. He said, "At first the pig didn't seem that interested in being kissed. She finally warmed up to me and I was just thinking I needed to get it done before she changed her mind."

Hannah Mehringer, Grade 11, and other FFA members, sold ice cream in a bowl to students. Students had a variety of yummy toppings to add on top of their creamy desert.

Logan Jacob, Grade 12, blew black smoke from Chad Knies, Grade 12, tractor during the tractor show.

Mara Schroering, Grade 11, participated in the Tractor Pull. She said, "It was difficult to pedal because I am a weak-ling, and I did not win because I barely went anywhere."

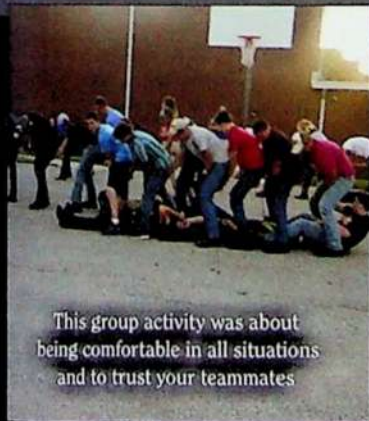

Jackson Brosmer, Grade 10, and Ross Butler, Grade 9, stood manly in the bed of Jackson Brosmer's truck during the Truck Show.

Children from the elementary schools came to the high school to play and pet the animals in the Petting Zoo.

District X Kickoff...

On September 9th, over twenty FFA chapters gathered for District X Kickoff. It was hosted at Northeast Dubois Middle school this year because Melanie Roberts (Grade 12) was elected to serve as the District X Vice President. Generous and committed parents and fellow people in our community donated their time to help grill and serve food. Northeast Dubois FFA members also worked together as a team to prepare and plan for the eventful evening. The District and State officers worked closely together to put on three group activities for the members. Each activity had a lesson behind it. At kickoff, members met other fellow members within their district, ate great food, did various group activities, and had a night of fun! Thank you to all Northeast Dubois members, parents, and other volunteers! We greatly appreciated it!

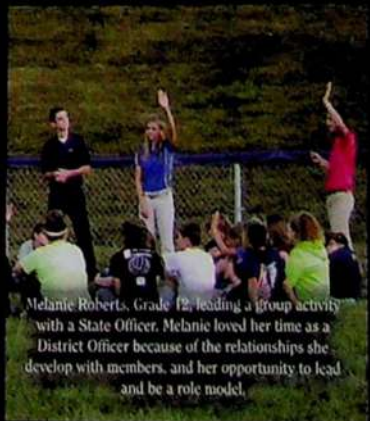

This group activity was about being comfortable in all situations and to trust your teammates

Parents and FFA members grilling food for the evening.

FFA members strategically put the rope on the ground over their heads by working as a team and communicating with one another.

Melanie Roberts, Grade 12, leading a group activity with a State Officer. Melanie loved her time as a District Officer because of the relationships she develop with members, and her opportunity to lead and be a role model.

First in our district in spell bowl. Proud of all the girls this year (and Dalton) ❤️ X

Adrienne Betz, Grade 9, says that the hardest and funniest word for her was hullabaloo.

Aubrey Marks, grade 12, held an eventful and unforgettable team bonding. at her house, which was her favorite memory from the season. She believed, "the girls grew closer and got to know each other on another level."

"I looked up to the entire team because we were all there to play our favorite sport." - Delaney Rasche, Grade 10

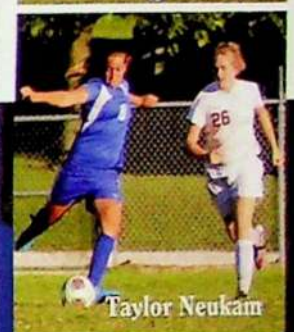

Fantasy Wright, freshman, said, "my most memorable moment was when Mel made our first goal of the season." Melanie Roberts, senior, said, "I have been extremely proud of Fantasy this season. Not only because she stepped up to be goalie when I was out at the end of the season, but because Fantasy always communicated on the field, gave her all, and supported the team no matter where she played."

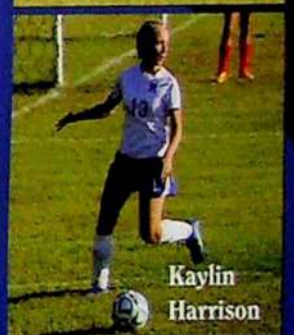

"As a senior, I am going to miss the sport, soccer, in general. I fell in love with it in the 6th grade. I loved the teams I played for every year. We all got along so well and so many friendships were made along the way." - Taylin Friedman, Grade 12

Favorite One Tree Hill Moment

This season, one of the Volleyball team's favorite pregame rituals was watching episodes of the CW's TV series: "One Tree Hill". Here are some of the squad's favorite moments from the show.

Junior Adi Denu says her favorite moment is "When Haley goes to see if it's Nathan's dead body... it's not."

Coach Kendra Kopatich says she enjoys "When Lucas tells Peyton 'It's you,' or when the dog eats Dan's heart (monumental). Any scene involving Jamie smiling laughing, or dancing. <3."

Tyla's favorite moment from her short time watching the show was "When the guy in the wheel chair went into the pool."

"I thought that the new coaching staff was good, but Coach Denu and I butted heads a few times... He's my dad, you know."

-Adison Denu, 11

Juniors, Clare Mangin and Adison Denu celebrate a 49-45 victory over the Springs Valley Black Hawks. Adison finished the game with 10 points and Clare with 7.

Juniors- Tyla Rasche, Kortney Quinn, Alex Dodson, and Adison Denu-pose with head coach Andy Chinn before the Lady Jeeps squared off with the Southridge Lady Raiders. This game was the annual "Cancer Night". The teams sported pink socks and cancer t-shirts in recognition.

Pictured above and below are the team's two seniors this season. Jessica Kahle led the team in scoring with 10.4 PPG (229 pts this season), while Savannah Stafford led in assists per game with 3.2 APG (71 assists on the year).

Junior, Kortney Quinn, prepares to shoot a free throw during an away game at West Washington. Kortney produced 7 points, 9 rebounds, and 3 steals during this match-up.

Under Pressure

How do you compete...under pressure?

Northeast Dubois offers many opportunities for us to unleash our inner "Fighting Jeep." Whether you are competing on the court, field, track, or pool; there is always the pressure to be successful. The pressure to win and to help your team can be overwhelming at times; however, as "Fighting Jeeps" we always know how to handle this pressure appropriately.

Below, are four student-competitors who we have interviewed. Reece Bauer (9), Elizabeth Kunz (10), Harley Hall (11), and Savannah Stafford (12).

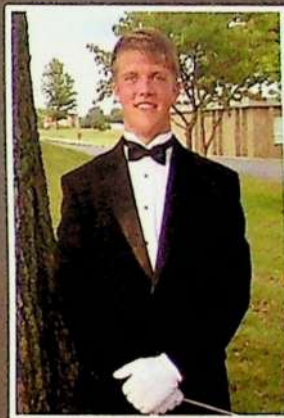

#hanginthereReece

Freshman, Reece Bauer, participates in baseball, basketball, and tennis. He feels the most pressure during basketball season, and stated that "I felt the most pressure during our game at Southridge because I started varsity." He also said that his grade level does not contribute to his stress.

Sophomore, Elizabeth Kunz participates in basketball and softball. She states that she feels the most pressure in "softball because I've been playing my entire life." The game in which she felt the most pressure in was "against Tecumseh because they are a sectional opponent and a big rivalry." She says that her grade level contributes to her stress "because I'm only a sophomore playing on varsity. Being a young player on varsity puts a lot of pressure on you to do well."

Junior, Harley Hall, participates in marching band and winter percussion. He says that marching band causes him the most stress because it requires you to move perfectly as an ensemble. He also states that "the marching band state prelims were the competition when he felt most pressure because it determined if we were going to be on our way to state for the first time." He explains that "as you get older, you realize how important cooperation is in marching band."

Senior, Savannah Stafford, participates in basketball and tennis here at NDHS. She says that she feels the most pressure during basketball season. Her thoughts on this year's post season are: "Sectional is what we prepare to win every season. It is the game that everyone feels the most pressure. The most pressure I have ever felt was playing Wood Memorial in the sectional championship." She also added "As I got older, the more stress I have had. Each year I felt I became more and more responsible for myself and my teammates, especially being the captain my senior year."

When the game heats up, will you keep your cool?

Gabrielle Schepers, a co-captain on the squad, and one of two seniors, states that "my absolute favorite parts of cheerleading are the sport itself, and the team bond that we have. We are all like a big family."

La'Kiegha Fawks, one of the squad's co-captains, and the other senior on the squad, has been a varsity cheerleader for 4 years. La'Kiegha started out as a flyer her freshman year, and switched roles back to becoming a base in her last two years on the squad.

Seniors La'Kiegha, pictured left, and Gabrielle, pictured second from left, are pictured here with their coaches, Leann Knieriem, and Riley Mehringer. Gabbi and La'Kiegha have been cheering together since they were 4 years old, where they cheered competitively for Royer's All Stars.

"What I like about baseball is just playing the game and having fun."
- Owen Fuhrman, 11

The boys had to take the school van to one of the away games and found this penguin in there so they decided to bring him to the games as a 'rally penguin.' They named him Jason. Then the team started to win games, so they just kept bringing him. They only lost one game in a long streak of them when they had Jason with them. The penguin was their good luck charm for this season.

The Whole Tennis Team

Alex Bauer, grade 11, says that Coach Dwayne Knies influenced him the most and pushes him to do his best. After Sectional, Alex and Austin Sander took their water jugs and poured them over Coach Chinn head in celebration.

Parker Zehr and Alex Harder

"I was extremely proud of the accomplishments of our tennis team...winning the Blue Chip Conference, finishing with an undefeated regular season, and capturing the Sectional Championship."

- Coach Dwayne Knies

Luke Harder, grade 9, states that he thinks Jasper was the best team they played, because they're good at the net and could serve the ball fast.

Austin Sander

Parker Zehr, grade 12, said he started tennis in the 7th grade and his favorite part is the environment.

Ethan Ziegler, grade 9, said his least favorite thing about practice is picking up the balls, because he would rather be hitting them.

Reece Bauer, grade 9, said he liked playing at home because there's nothing like playing at home.

"Throwing shot-put was definitely my favorite because, not only did I not have to run, but it felt like it came more naturally for me." - Megan Senninger, Grade 9

"My personal goal was to make at least everyone laugh this season." - Emily Kieffner, Grade 11

Heidi Sander

Many of the girls' goals this season were to break personal times, even school records. Jessica Kahle, Grade 12, and Heidi Sander, Grade 10, strived to break the 800 and 400 meter race. Maddy Laux, Grade 12, wanted a fast 1600 meter relay split time, and Emma Emmons, Grade 9, always ran to knock off 5 seconds in her 300 meter hurdles.

1. Shelby Livingston, Grade 9, said, "I think the most memorable part of the season was getting to practice and run meets with an awesome team, great friends, a motivating coach, and having our 1600 relay team advance to regional."

2. "Cassie Wertman is my role model because she is from Southridge and she made it to the Olympic trails. It shows it doesn't matter where you come from, it's how hard you work,"

Paige Jacob, Grade 12.

3. "My favorite event is the 1600 relay. I love running a 400 and it's exciting and nerve-wracking at the same time to have three other people relying on you,"

Maddy Laux, Grade 12.

Hunting, Fishing, Loving Everyday

Logan Jacob, Gr. 12

Senior, Logan Jacob, slayed this ten-point buck during an evening hunt late in gun season. "I was looking at my phone, I heard leaves rustling, looked up and saw the deer 80 yards away. I raised up my gun to take a look, and decided that it was good so I shot and it dropped like a rock."

Reece Newland & Kale Asbell, Gr. 12

Senior, Reece Newland and Kale Asbell, have been coon hunting since they were both very young. Reece has two dogs, Ox and Ruby. Reece explains, "First, to go coon hunting, you must put the garmin on the dogs and then let them loose. After that, you walk to the tree they are barking up. This is called being treed. Finally, you shoot the coon out of the tree."

Kyndal Green, Gr. 11

Junior, Kyndal Green, participated in the 10th annual Recruitment Hunt on Saturday, November 30th when she harvested this pheasant. The hunt is held by the Glendale Fish and Wildlife Area and The Dubois County Sportman's Club.

Tjidsger Postmus, Exchange Student

On Sunday, November 20th, Exchange Student, Tjidsger Postmus, went on an early morning hunt that ended in a very special memory. He explained, "I stopped walking and looked around. Right in front of me on the path a deer walked out of the woods. In my head I said: 'I have to shoot it!'"

Here at Northeast Dubois, many students participate in various hunting activities. Whether it be via fishing pole, shotgun, or bare hands- we get the most out of this great wilderness here in Dubois County. Our students take great pride in their hunts, so we decided to highlight some of their well earned work. Below, are eight NDHS students who have succeeded in their hunts this school year.

Jeb Knies, Gr. 11

Junior, Jeb Knies, caught this bass on a cold day in late February. It weighed in at 5 pounds 2 ounces. Jeb explains, " Shortly after I hooked this fish my rod snapped in half. Thanks to my cat-like reflexes, I grabbed the line with my hands and pulled the fish to shore. I had some cuts on my hands but it's the biggest bass I've caught to this day."

#rippinlips#yeeyee

Cody Danhafer, Gr. 10

Sophomore, Cody Danhafer, killed this tom during Youth Season. It's measurements came in at 25 pounds, with an 11 inch beard and 26 millimeter spurs. Cody stated, "It's my biggest bird and a great hunt to remember."

Kortney Quinn, Gr. 11

Junior, Kortney Quinn, killed her first tom on opening morning of Youth Season. She stated, "It was a very interesting hunt. The morning started out by seeing a bobcat run across the field and then nothing for a couple of hours. Finally, just about when I was ready to leave, this bird came strutting up to the decoys." It weighed 23 pounds and had an 11 inch beard.

Ronnie Thewes, Gr. 12

Senior, Ronnie Thewes, took this photo while mushroom hunting this spring with some of his friends. He explains, "I found about 500 plus morels this year- which isn't a whole lot compared to other seasons."

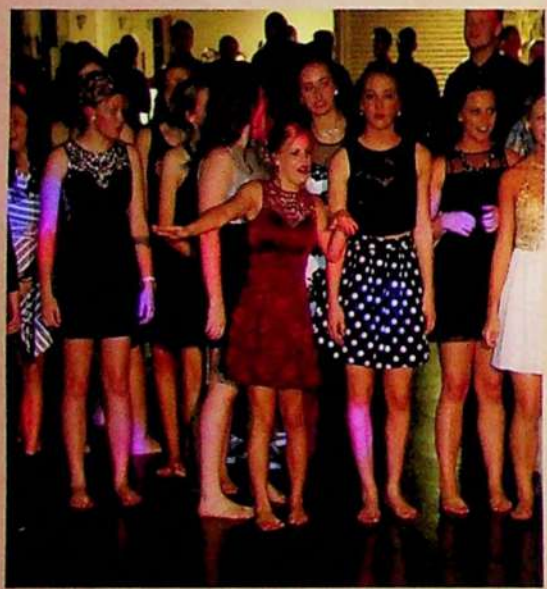

Holiday Ball

November 19, 2016

Dancing into Fall

On Saturday, November 19, 2016 at Celestine Community Club, the Northeast Dubois High School student body danced and had fun at their Holiday Ball. The theme for this year was Fall and the Harvest. They decorated the Club with corn stalks, pumpkins, and gourds. Chips and drinks were offered. Students danced to the music played by Boogie Tunes, which was the DJ for the night.

Senior, Jessica Kahle, liked dancing to the song "Timber".

Senior, Cody Weisheit's favorite song was the chicken dance. Cody and girlfriend, Gabbi Schepers, enjoyed slow dancing the night away.

Senior, Aubrey Marks, was taken by surprise when she was nominated queen and crowned by Parker Zehr who was holiday ball king.

Junior, Kortney Quinn, thought the mannequin challenge was a great idea.

Freshman, Mary Grace Wagner, went to holiday ball with Freshman, Emma Clare, and took pictures with Nikita Fischer.

Freshman, Amberly Jacob, liked looking at all of the cool dresses at holiday ball and dancing to Boogie Tunes music.

Junior, Jada Fromme, said that the fall theme this year was pretty cool.

Freshman, Olivia Schroering's favorite song of the night was "God Gave Me You."

Guitar Hero

McGwire Hale thinks the easiest part of the class is learning the base line to the song.

The hardest part of the class for Alexis Sturgeon was learning the bar chords.

Angel Gutknecht has gotten better at strum patterns.

Emma Emmon's favorite song that she learned was "Happier" by Ed Sheeran

Mr. Fox says although preparation is very time consuming, he enjoys listening to all the weird songs students learn.

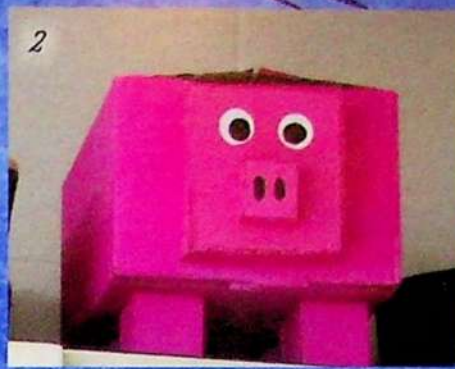

Ben Merkel said the strangest chords in his songs were G/F, F/dim, and C/F.

Adrian Cole's favorite song is "Call Me". She learned it for her mom

1. Members of the senior class gathered together to take a picture before prom started, with lots of them wearing a bright orange ribbon somewhere on their prom attire in honor and memory of their fellow classmate, Chad Knies.

2. The Dubois members of the Health Occupations Class, known as HOSA, gathered together to take a picture at prom in their formal attire. These students were selected from a very academic group of applicants throughout the county to become members of the 2017 HOSA class.

3. This was the first year that Northeast Dubois Prom was ever held at the Polo Room in Jasper. Students and guests enjoyed a more formal setting this year. Those who attended prom also enjoyed the DJ choice this year as well, which was Boogie Tunes.

4. Members of the junior class posed together for a photo using the backdrop made for the professional photos taken during prom. Prom committee members took the day off school Friday prior to prom and decorated the venue.

"Your Life Is A Movie... You Write Your Own Script"

Jesselca Kahle and Paige Jacob, both grade 12, competed in the Plunger Race. The objective of the game is to weave through the cones using only the plungers to move.

Seniors, Carly Terwiese and Hannah Beckman, posed for a picture in the photobooth area. Students were able to choose from a numerous amount of props to dress themselves with.

Bailey Hopf, grade 12, and her date raced as they played the game Stompers. Whoever won received a dollar.

Students gathered around a table as they watched one of their friends play a Minute to Win It game.

Post Prom

Owen Fuhrman, grade 11, put on a blindfold as he played one of the Minute to Win It games. Owen had to sort washers, nuts, and bolts in a minute to win a dollar.

BRYCE BUTLER

*Bryce,
Congratulations on all of your accomplishments. We are so proud of the smart, caring, and hardworking young man you've become. Whatever your future holds- we know you will succeed.*

*We love you so much and we will always be your biggest fans!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Ross, & Brynn*

Parker Zehr

"I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known."

*Parker, we are so proud of the intelligent, ambitious, and thoughtful young man you have become.
Lots of love,
Mom, Dad, & Corbyn*

Megan Lueken

*Megan, we are so proud of you and the young woman you have become. You are beautiful, amazing, loving, and have such a wonderful spirit about you. Please never change for anything or anyone. Always stay true to yourself and what makes you happy. We can't wait to watch you make a difference in this world. Believe in you, as we do. Love you so much.
Love, Mom, Dad, Emily, Molly, and Nicholas*

Savannah Stafford

This saying hangs in your room and I think of you whenever I read it. "Be so happy that when others look at you, they become happy too." Savannah, when you smile, it really does light up the room! We have loved every minute of watching you grow into an amazing person. Follow your heart and continue to be true to yourself.

Love, Mom, Dad and Alexis

To our Granddaughter, Carly Terwiske:

We are so proud of your accomplishments and the young lady you have become. Your future is bright. You can do anything you set your mind to. We will always be here for you
Love, Nan and Pap

Fun day before finals week.

We Are...

JEEPS

Our mascot is not the only unique feature that Northeast Dubois represents. Each individual has a story. A story that has chapters, and pages that fill those chapters. Each page symbolizes stepping stones along the path of life. The preceding chapters speak the words of childhood, the middle chapters tell the stories of educational experiences, and the final chapters are yet to be written. High school is full of diversified experiences. The last chapter of high school education has drawn to a close for some and is just beginning for others. The words we speak and the actions we pursue are our choices. May all futures be bright for those who have stepped foot through our doors as they begin a new journey, and let them not forget where they came from.
